CCSS RI.4.4 · L.4.4

Directions. Read each short passage. Choose the best meaning of the bold word as it is used.

Q1 RI.4.4

Flora pictured a comic caption that called her a natural-born cynic. Yep, she thought, that's me.

What does cynic mean here?

- A. a person who complains loudly whenever plans change
- B. a person who is drawn as a character in a comic strip
- C. a person who expects the worst and doubts that anything good is real
- D. a person who tells jokes to cheer up a crowd

Q2 RI.4.4

Flora kept reading her comic in defiance of the contract she had signed. Her mother shouted the word contract twice.

What does defiance mean here?

- A. the act of carefully keeping a promise you signed your name to
- B. a loud argument between two people who disagree
- C. the act of openly refusing to follow a rule or a person in power
- D. the act of forgetting a rule because you were not paying attention

Q3 RI.4.4

Before the accident, the squirrel had few profound thoughts; he mostly wondered about food. Afterward, everything seemed full of meaning and purpose.

What does profound mean here?

- A. very long and hard to read all the way through
- B. hungry and always wondering where to find the next meal
- C. very serious, showing great thought and full of real meaning
- D. silly and not worth taking seriously

Q4 RI.4.4

Flora's comic warned readers about inadvertently swallowing plastic fruit. Apparently it happened more often than anyone would guess.

What does inadvertently mean here?

- ○ A. after thinking it over carefully and deciding to act
- ○ B. often, in a way that keeps happening to many people
- ○ C. very slowly, so that nobody notices what you are doing
- ○ D. without meaning to; done by mistake rather than on purpose

Q5 RI.4.4

The comic explained what to do if you consumed plastic fruit by mistake. Some fake fruit looked real enough to fool anyone.

What does consumed mean here?

- ○ A. to be fooled by fake food that looks real enough to eat
- ○ B. to throw something away because it is fake
- ○ C. to take something into your body by eating or drinking it
- ○ D. to chew something for a long time without swallowing it

Q6 RI.4.4

The comic even told what to do if a swarm of locusts descended on you. The answer was to run, since locusts eat stripes.

What does descended mean here?

- ○ A. to wait quietly for a long time
- ○ B. to come down from a higher place to a lower one
- ○ C. to chase after someone who is trying to run away
- ○ D. to circle around the same spot for a long time

Q7 RI.4.4

Flora breathed into the squirrel's mouth and pushed on his small chest, hoping he would breathe. The squirrel obliged and took one deep breath, then another.

What does obliged mean here?

- ○ A. to agree to help only after being paid for it
- ○ B. to go along with what someone asks or wants you to do
- ○ C. to refuse to listen and run away
- ○ D. to gasp suddenly for air after nearly choking

Q8 RI.4.4

A caption in the story asked what astonishments might hide inside the most mundane being. Below it, a plain squirrel held a heavy vacuum over his head.

What does mundane mean here?

- A. plain and dull, with nothing special or exciting about it
- B. old-fashioned and no longer used by most people
- C. strong enough to lift something heavy over its head
- D. wild and dangerous to be near

Q9 RI.4.4

The squirrel set the vacuum down and held very still. He considered Flora and Mrs. Tickham as his whiskers twitched.

What does considered mean here?

- A. to look at someone or something carefully while thinking it over
- B. to hold very still so that nobody will notice you
- C. to glance at something quickly and then look away
- D. to chase someone up a tree

Q10 RI.4.4

Most of the time, people looked right past the janitor. Often they even treated him with disdain, as if he did not matter.

What does disdain mean here?

- A. a warm wish to make a new friend
- B. a feeling of being nervous around people you do not know
- C. a feeling that someone or something is too worthless to deserve respect
- D. a feeling of being in too much of a hurry to notice others

Q11 RI.4.4

Flora's mother had often accused her of being a natural-born cynic. Flora suspected that her mother was right.

What does accused mean here?

- A. to say that a person did something wrong or broke a rule
- B. to praise a person for being honest
- C. to give a person a nickname that fits them well
- D. to warn a person not to do something before it happens

Q12 RI.4.4

Flora suspected that her mother was right about her. She was not totally sure, but it seemed likely.

What does suspected mean here?

- A. to find out for certain that something is true
- B. to hope very much that something will never happen
- C. to admit out loud that another person is right
- D. to believe that something is probably true without being completely sure

Q13 RI.4.4

The contract said Flora would turn away from comics and toward true literature. Those were her mother's exact words, not Flora's.

What does literature mean here?

- A. rules and promises written down in a signed agreement
- B. instructions and labels printed on boxes and cans
- C. books, poems, and stories that people value as fine, serious writing
- D. funny picture stories printed in bright colors

Q14 RI.4.4

Early in the summer, Flora had signed a contract to turn away from comics. "Do not forget the contract!" her mother shouted.

What does contract mean here?

- A. a list of chores that a parent writes for a child
- B. a written agreement that both sides put their names on and must keep
- C. a short story told in pictures
- D. a plan to stop reading comic books for the whole summer

Q15 RI.4.4

Flora said "I hate romance" and imagined her words floating above her head in a comic-strip bubble. She found it comforting to have words hanging there.

What does comforting mean here?

- A. making a person feel sleepy and ready for bed
- B. making a person feel confused and lost
- C. making a person feel annoyed and tired of love stories
- D. making a person feel calm, safe, and less worried or sad

Q16 RI.4.4

Mrs. Tickham did not seem to know what she was doing with the vacuum. Really, the machine itself was in charge.

What does in charge mean here?

- A. broken and too loud to use
- B. being blamed when something goes wrong
- C. having the power and responsibility to control or lead something
- D. having no idea how to work a machine the right way

Q17 RI.4.4

The vacuum roared across the yard, bent on destruction. It headed straight for a squirrel and sucked him up.

What does destruction mean here?

- A. a fast race across a yard
- B. the act of sucking something up into a machine
- C. the act of taking something apart to fix it later
- D. the act of wrecking or ruining something so it is completely gone

Q18 RI.4.4

In the comic, a quiet janitor was transformed into a glowing hero called Incandesto. Each time, he became a pillar of light.

What does transformed mean here?

- A. to turn completely into something very different in form or nature
- B. to be praised as a hero for saving other people
- C. to clean until something shines
- D. to move from one place to a different place far away

Q19 RI.4.4

Alfred T. Slipper was an unassuming janitor whom most people looked right past. Inside him, though, waited the amazing Incandesto.

What does unassuming mean here?

- A. invisible, so that other people cannot see you at all
- B. modest and quiet, not trying to seem important or get attention
- C. secretly powerful and glowing
- D. shy and afraid to speak in front of other people

Q20 RI.4.4

Mrs. Tickham knelt by the vacuum and gave the squirrel's tail a tentative tug. Then she stood, looked around the yard, and asked for help.

What does tentative mean here?

- A. done with full strength and confidence
- B. done in secret so that nobody else will find out
- C. done together with another person who comes to help
- D. done slowly and carefully because you are not sure or confident

Q21 RI.4.4

Flora put her hand on the squirrel and picked him up. She cradled him in her left arm.

What does cradled mean here?

- A. to hold someone gently and closely in your arms to keep them safe
- B. to push someone away because you are afraid of them
- C. to lift something high above your head to show it off
- D. to press on someone's chest to help them start breathing

Q22 RI.4.4

As a cynic, Flora believed it was wise to be prepared. Who knew what horrible, unpredictable thing might happen next?

What does unpredictable mean here?

- A. so wild and strong that nobody can stop it
- B. changing so often that nobody can tell what will happen next
- C. slow and easy to see coming
- D. ready and prepared for whatever might come next

Q23 RI.4.4

The comic taught readers how to administer CPR, everyone's favorite lifesaving technique. But it never said how to give CPR to a squirrel.

What does administer mean here?

- A. to study how the body works in a science class
- B. to sell medicine in a store
- C. to teach someone how to do something step by step
- D. to give first aid, a shot, or a treatment to someone who needs it

Q24 RI.4.4

The comic called CPR everyone's favorite lifesaving technique. Flora used it on the squirrel, though the comic never covered squirrels.

What does technique mean here?

- A. a particular skillful way of doing something, learned through practice
- B. a rescue that saves the life of a hurt animal
- C. a comic book about saving lives
- D. a tool or machine that makes a job easier

Q25 RI.4.4

The comic warned about a swarm of locusts that might land on a striped shirt. Locusts, it claimed, eat stripes.

What does swarm mean here?

- A. a sudden attack that comes down from the sky
- B. a large group of insects or small creatures flying or moving together
- C. a loud buzzing sound that insects make at night
- D. a single bug that bites very hard

Q26 RI.4.4

What does tragedy mean here?

- A. a happy surprise that arrives early
- B. a feeling of being watched by someone close by
- C. a terrible event that causes great sadness, loss, or suffering
- D. a small mistake that is easy to fix

Q27 RI.4.4

Flora's comics showed that superheroes were born of ridiculous, unlikely circumstances. Spider bites and chemical spills were two examples.

What does circumstances mean here?

- A. the powers a hero uses to fight crime
- B. the reasons someone gives after doing something wrong
- C. the facts and conditions around an event that affect what happens
- D. the silly jokes and funny scenes in a comic book

Q28 RI.4.4

People had no idea of the astonishing acts of heroism hidden inside the plain janitor. To them, he was just an ordinary man.

What does heroism mean here?

- ○ A. a job cleaning floors at night
- ○ B. the quality of acting with great courage when helping or saving others
- ○ C. the habit of hiding your true self from other people
- ○ D. the fame and praise a person gets for being on television

Q29 RI.4.4

The janitor's outward, humdrum disguise kept his secret safe. Only his parakeet, Dolores, knew who he really was.

What does disguise mean here?

- ○ A. uniforms that show what job a person does
- ○ B. dullness and boredom in a person's everyday life
- ○ C. clothes or an outer look that hide who a person really is
- ○ D. bright capes that heroes wear so that people notice them

Flora and the Contract

Flora Buckman was a natural-born (1) _____, a girl who expected bad things to happen. Her mother had often (2) _____ her of being one, and Flora (3) _____ that this was true. At the beginning of summer, Flora had signed a (4) _____ saying she would turn away from comics and toward true (5) _____. Still, she kept reading comic books in (6) _____ of that promise. When she said "I hate romance" out loud, she pictured the words floating in a comic-strip bubble above her head, and having them there felt (7) _____. The hero of her comic, Incandesto, was secretly Alfred T. Slipper, a janitor so (8) _____ that most people looked right past him. His everyday cleaning work seemed (9) _____, and his plain, humdrum look was really a (10) _____ that hid an amazing secret. Whenever wrongdoing had to be stopped, he was (11) _____ into a towering pillar of light. From her comics, Flora had also learned that superheroes were born of strange, unlikely (12) _____, like spider bites and chemical spills. They taught her that (13) _____ was always sitting nearby, waiting, so she tried to be prepared, since nobody knew what terrible, (14) _____ thing might happen next. She did not really believe in superheroes, but she kept reading about Incandesto's astonishing crime-fighting acts of (15) _____.

The Vacuum and the Squirrel

Next door, Mrs. Tickham tried out her powerful new vacuum cleaner, but soon the machine seemed to be (1) _____ instead of her. It roared around the yard, bent on (2) _____, and Mrs. Tickham (3) _____ sucked up a squirrel. Flora knew from one of her favorite bonus comics what to do if you (4) _____ plastic fruit by mistake, or if a (5) _____ of locusts (6) _____ while you wore a striped shirt. The comic also explained how to (7) _____ CPR, everyone's favorite lifesaving (8) _____. Down in the yard, Mrs. Tickham gave the squirrel's tail a (9) _____ tug and called for help. Flora rushed over and shook the squirrel out of the vacuum. A lot of his fur was gone, vacuumed off. Much later she (10) _____ him in her left arm, but first she knelt and put a finger on his chest. She needed him to breathe, and after she gave him CPR, the squirrel (11) _____ with one deep breath after another. Soon he lifted the vacuum over his head, set it down, and (12) _____ the two humans. Before that day he had always been (13) _____ of humans, yet now he moved toward Flora when she called his new name. Like the janitor Alfred T. Slipper, whom people often treated with (14) _____, this plain little squirrel was hiding something amazing, and everything around him now seemed full of (15) _____ meaning.

Directions. Read each short passage. Choose the best meaning of the bold word as it is used.

Q1 RI.4.4

At Chinese New Year, Pacy and her dad wrote their resolutions. Now, as the year ended, she wondered which ones she could make happen.

What does resolutions mean here?

- A. gifts handed out at the start of a new year
- B. firm plans you make for yourself to act or live better from now on
- C. wishes that you hope will come true on their own
- D. greetings you write to family members to celebrate a holiday

Q2 RI.4.4

Pacy no longer had any doubts about her talent. Still, she wondered if her dream was something she could really make happen.

What does doubts mean here?

- A. feelings of pride about a special skill that you have
- B. strong wishes to win a prize
- C. feelings of not being certain that something is true or will work out
- D. questions you ask someone in order to learn more

Q3 RI.4.4

In Dad's story, the tiger crossed the river relying on nothing but his own courage and strength. Pacy saw that she, too, had to lean on herself.

What does relying mean here?

- A. to push forward with great force through something difficult
- B. to watch a person closely so you can copy what they do
- C. to depend on a person or thing for the help or support you need
- D. to forget about something completely

Q4 RI.4.4

Pacy finally saw why everything felt clumsy when she was with Becky and Charlotte. Even simple talks with the two girls kept going wrong.

What does clumsy mean here?

- A. not smooth or graceful, as if nobody quite knows how to move or act
- B. neat, careful, and well arranged
- C. rude and unkind on purpose, so that someone feels hurt
- D. quiet and alone, without talking to anyone else

Q5 RI.4.4

Being with Becky and Charlotte had become awkward. Pacy finally understood why: she had stopped being a good friend to them.

What does awkward mean here?

- A. so boring that you want to leave right away
- B. making you feel uneasy and not relaxed, as if nothing fits right
- C. full of excitement and energy
- D. making you act unkindly so that you lose your friends

Q6 RI.4.4

Pacy's best friend Melody had moved to California. Her friendship with Becky and Charlotte had also become strained and uneasy.

What does strained mean here?

- A. ended completely so the people never speak again
- B. far apart because one person has moved to a new place
- C. brand new and just beginning
- D. tense and unfriendly because of stress or hurt feelings between people

Q7 RI.4.4

Melody had moved to California, and to make matters worse, Dad called Pacy's dream job a cold door. Pacy was already missing her best friend, and now her dream felt far away too.

What does to make matters worse mean here?

- A. used to add one more bad thing to a situation that is already bad
- B. used to say that a problem is finally solved
- C. used to say that a plan or dream will never come true
- D. used to explain the reason something bad happened

Q8 RI.4.4

Pacy wanted to be an author and illustrator. Her father called that profession a cold door, a job that could lead to a hard life.

What does profession mean here?

- A. a warning that a choice could lead to a hard life
- B. a hobby you do for fun on weekends
- C. a short visit to a workplace
- D. the kind of work a person does for a living, usually needing special training

Q9 RI.4.4

Pacy hoped to become an author and illustrator one day. For her school project, she was making a book all by herself.

What does illustrator mean here?

- A. a person who makes books by printing the pages and binding them
- B. a person who writes the words of a story
- C. an artist who draws or paints the pictures that go with a story or book
- D. a person who sells books in a shop

Q10 RI.4.4

As the Year of the Rat comes to a close, Pacy looks back at the resolutions she made. She wonders which of her wishes she can truly make happen.

What does comes to a close mean here?

- A. reaches its finish after going on for a long stretch of time
- B. looks back at the things that happened earlier on
- C. grows bigger and busier every day
- D. slows down but keeps going for a while longer

Q11 RI.4.4

The weather turned cold in a snap. Everyone was surprised when snow poured from the sky, and the radio said there was no school.

What does in a snap mean here?

- A. after a long and careful plan
- B. in such a short time that it seems to happen all at once
- C. with a loud cracking sound
- D. in a heavy storm that brings a lot of snow and ice

Q12 RI.4.4

The cold wind bit Pacy's face, and the inside of her nose stung with every breath. It felt as if icicles were forming there.

What does stung mean here?

- A. to itch a little so that you want to scratch
- B. to hurt with a quick, sharp, burning feeling, like a needle prick
- C. to freeze solid so that little pieces of ice form inside
- D. to turn warm and comfortable

Q13 RI.4.4

Dad laughed and said he had warned her. Opening a cold door, he joked, was exactly what let the icy wind in.

What does warned mean here?

- A. to give someone a gift as a surprise
- B. to tease someone in a joking, friendly way about a small thing
- C. to tell someone ahead of time about a danger or problem that might come
- D. to scold someone after they have already done something wrong

Q14 RI.4.4

Pacy no longer doubted her talent. What still bothered her was the cold door her father talked about.

What does talent mean here?

- A. a skill you gain only after years of hard practice
- B. a long list of chores
- C. a worry that keeps coming back and will not leave you alone
- D. a special skill you seem to be born with, such as drawing or singing

Q15 RI.4.4

Was becoming an author and illustrator only a wishful dream? Or was it something Pacy could truly make happen?

What does wishful mean here?

- A. full of greedy wants for more and more things
- B. careful and based on proof
- C. built on hoping something comes true rather than on real chances
- D. able to be made real if you work hard enough at it

Q16 RI.4.4

Dad told a story about two philosophers standing on a bridge. One said the fish were happy; the other asked how he could know.

What does philosophers mean here?

- A. storytellers who share old tales about animals and nature
- B. scientists who test ideas with experiments in a lab
- C. thinkers who study big questions about life, truth, and how to live
- D. guards who protect a bridge

Q17 RI.4.4

From the bridge, the philosophers watched an orange fish glide through the muddy green water. It looked like a floating tangerine peel.

What does glide mean here?

- A. to rest without moving at the top of the water, like a peel
- B. to move along smoothly and quietly, with no bumps or effort
- C. to sink slowly to the bottom
- D. to swim very fast with lots of splashing

Q18 RI.4.4

In the sunlight, the orange fish sparkled like a sky full of twinkling stars. The two philosophers had stopped on the bridge to watch it.

What does sparkled mean here?

- A. to glow with one steady, soft light
- B. to turn a bright orange color in warm sunlight
- C. to give off many tiny, quick flashes of light, the way jewels do
- D. to sink out of sight

Q19 RI.4.4

Pacy begged Dad to just tell her the answer. It was too hard to figure out on her own, she complained.

What does figure out mean here?

- A. to find the answer to a puzzle or question by using your mind
- B. to forget something on purpose
- C. to guess without thinking about it at all
- D. to complain that a problem is much too hard for you

Q20 RI.4.4

Only you know yourself, Dad told Pacy, so only you can make your decisions. Nobody else could pick her path for her.

What does decisions mean here?

- A. the rules that someone else makes for you to follow
- B. the things you finally settle on after weighing what you could do
- C. the people who know you best and help you choose
- D. the dreams you have while you sleep at night

Q21 RI.4.4

Pacy felt ashamed about Dun-Wei and about being Chinese. She saw that only she could change that feeling, and nobody else could do it for her.

What does ashamed mean here?

- A. feeling ready to change something all by yourself
- B. feeling embarrassed and uncomfortable about something or someone connected to you
- C. feeling shy around people you do not know
- D. pleased with a job well done

What does frightened mean here?

- A. angry enough to shout
- B. surprised by something you did not expect
- C. suddenly sure of what you need to do next
- D. suddenly full of fear, as if something bad is about to happen

Q23 RI.4.4

The tiger in Dad's story looked at the wild and fierce river. Then he leaped into the rushing water and crossed it alone.

What does fierce mean here?

- A. wide and deep, like a river too far to swim across
- B. shallow and warm
- C. wild, strong, and dangerous, like a storm or an angry animal
- D. very fast but completely safe

Q24 RI.4.4

The tiger in Dad's story had nothing but his own courage and strength to get across. Pacy realized she could be brave like a tiger, too.

What does courage mean here?

- A. a medal given for winning a race
- B. the power to be so strong that nothing can hurt you
- C. the muscle power that helps an animal leap and swim far
- D. the inner strength that lets you face danger or fear without backing away

Q25 RI.4.4

Melody was so excited on the phone that Pacy could barely understand her. The words tumbled out faster than Pacy could follow.

What does barely mean here?

- A. very fast, so that the words come quicker than anyone can follow
- B. completely and with no trouble
- C. slowly and with great care
- D. only just; so little that it almost did not happen at all

Q26 RI.4.4

Melody's mom said the girls would never forgive her if she visited without Melody. So Melody was coming along too.

What does forgive mean here?

- A. to let go of your anger toward someone who did you wrong
- B. to forget that something ever happened
- C. to send a letter to someone
- D. to allow someone to come along with you on a visit

Q27 RI.4.4

Pacy and her friends were out on the playground, watching the boys play football in the snow. "Wow, look at that throw!" Charlotte said as a ball whizzed through the air.

What does whizzed mean here?

- A. to move very fast through the air with a rushing sound
- B. to roll slowly along the ground
- C. to build a snowman with friends
- D. to cheer loudly for a good player

Q28 RI.4.4

Out on the playground at recess, Becky asked Pacy again to be a third partner on their project. Pacy said she wanted to work alone.

What does recess mean here?

- A. a test given at the end of the week
- B. the part of the school day when students stop lessons to play outside
- C. the group of partners who work together on a school project
- D. the long vacation between one school year and the next

Q29 RI.4.4

Pacy realized she had ignored Becky and Charlotte ever since Melody became her best friend. She had chosen to stay away from them and would not even talk to them.

What does ignored mean here?

- A. to not notice someone because you are too busy
- B. to like one friend much more than all of your other friends
- C. to shout angrily at someone
- D. to pay no attention to someone on purpose, as if they were not there

Q30 RI.4.4

Kitoto Goes Looking for a Friend

Kitoto was a little mouse who had never learned to dig a burrow, so he had nowhere safe to hide. One day a hawk circled high above the Savannah and then dropped, (1) _____ as an arrow. Kitoto (2) _____ into a bush just ahead of its sharp claws and stayed there, hungry, all day. Early the next morning he (3) _____ across the grass on his quick little feet. He had (4) _____ before the hawk woke up, but another animal had already eaten the seeds of a fallen baobab fruit. Then he heard the roar of a rushing river. He (5) _____ the bank (6) _____ and watched the angry water carry off huge trees and rocks. 'How (7) _____ this river is!' he thought. Standing at the edge, he (8) _____ out loud that he wished to be the river's friend, so he would never have to fear the hawk again. 'Not so,' roared the river. 'In the dry season the sun burns me down to a (9) _____. The sun is stronger than I am.' So the river carried Kitoto up into the sky in a nest of steam. Kitoto decided that he must do his best to (10) _____ the sun. He arrived late in the day, in the chill of (11) _____. The (12) _____ sun sat wrapped in a blanket, fanning his dying log fire. Kitoto puffed himself up and gave himself a grand title, Master of the Savannah, but the sun said the wind was even stronger. The next morning the sun sent Kitoto across the sky on a bright beam. The wind was busy tugging clouds together when he arrived. 'I am Kitoto the Great, King of the Savannah,' he (13) _____ firmly. Riding the sunbeam, he had (14) _____ down at the Savannah, no bigger than a nut far below. He had come a long way since the nest of steam, where he had first (15) _____ at how small the earth looked from above.
