Module Overview

Essential Question: What lessons can we learn from the characters in stories?
Quote: "No book ever ends when it's full of your friends." — Roald Dahl
Big Idea Words: moral, relate, version
Main Stories (workbook 4):

- How to Read a Story · Kate Messner (illus. Mark Siegel) · Procedural Text
- A Crow, a Lion, and a Mouse! Oh, My! · retold by Crystal Hubbard · Drama
- Hollywood Chicken · Lisa Fleming (illus. Will Terry) · Fantasy
- If the Shoe Fits: Two Cinderella Stories · retold by Pleasant DeSpain · Fairy Tale

Note. Short Read "Recipe for a Fairy Tale" (pg-04 spread, no named author) and Media Video "Those Clever Crows" (from The New York Times) appear in the Teaching Pal anchor but have NO Power Words panel and are not used as Worksheet B main reads.

Answer Distribution (79 Multiple-Choice Items)

Verified counts across Worksheets A (27), B (32), and D (20) combined (Worksheet C is open-response IB, not counted).

A · 19 · B · 21 · C · 19 · D · 20

Balance enforced via choice-order rotation only — correct-answer meanings and all option texts are preserved verbatim from the Source of Truth. All 27 Power Words and Big Idea Words from the module are covered in mybook page-order on Worksheet A.

Voca Trap Items (Worksheet A)

7 of 27 ≈ 26% — meets G2 trap target band.

- Q3 version — polysemy (a version song vs. a different form of a story)
- Q7 sense — polysemy (five senses / coin "cents" / feeling vs. meaning)
- Q10 rattled — sound-trap with the rattle of a baby toy vs. the emotion
- Q12 plain — polysemy (airplane / simple vs. flat area of land)
- Q19 speech — polysemy (the way a person sounds when talking vs. a talk given aloud)
- Q23 beamed — polysemy (wooden beam / flashlight beam vs. smiled brightly)
- Q25 jealous — flips with "shares everything" antonym distractor

MAP Mini-Passage Word Counts (Worksheet D)

- Passage 1 · The Ant and the Quick Bird · 110 words · Lexile 240–290L · RIT 180–189
- Passage 2 · A Tale of Two Lunch Boxes · 115 words · Lexile 300–350L · RIT 190–195
- Passage 3 · The Boy Who Cried Bear · 120 words · Lexile 360–410L · RIT 195–199
- Passage 4 · A Cinderella Story from Long Ago · 120 words · Lexile 440–500L · RIT 199–200

All four passages within target band 80–150 words; RIT 180→200; Lexile 240L–500L. All four are retellings or fables that connect to the module EQ — what lessons we learn from characters in stories.

Worksheet A — Vocabulary · Answer Key

27 items · CCSS L.2.4 / L.2.5 / L.2.6

BIG IDEA WORDS

Q1 L.2.6

moral

B

Meaning: a lesson in a story. Source: SoT Big Idea Word 4.1 — OCR lines 125, 151, 153, 1234, 1237.

Q2 L.2.6

relate

D

Meaning: to know how a person feels. Source: SoT Big Idea Word 4.2 — OCR lines 125, 159, 162, 178.

Q3 L.2.6 TRAP

C

Meaning: a different / changed form of something. Trap: B ("exact same") flips the meaning. Source: SoT 4.3 — OCR 168, 182, 191.

POWER WORDS · HOW TO READ A STORY

Q4 L.2.4

cozy

A

Evidence: "STEP 3: FIND A COZY READING SPOT." (SoT key text). Warm, soft, comfortable.

Q5 L.2.4

D

Evidence: pg-05 Power Words panel; OCR line 639. Hot enough to make visible mist.

Q6 L.2.4

B

Evidence: "Read the title. That might be a clue." (SoT key text). A small piece of help that points to an answer.

Q7 L.2.5 TRAP

A

Meaning: meaning — what you can understand. Trap: the "five senses" (smell/touch) and "cents" coin-homophone polysemy.

Q8 L.2.4

pause

C

Evidence: OCR line 1101 — "you can pause for a minute." Stop for a short moment.

Q9 L.2.4

disturb

D

Meaning: bother or interrupt. SoT pg-05 Power Words panel.

Q10 L.2.4 TRAP

B

Meaning: upset, nervous. Trap: baby rattle sound-trap. OCR line 1013.

Q11 L.2.4

tackled

A

Evidence: OCR line 1160 — "because I had just tackled a dragon." To deal with a hard problem. Distractor: B is the football "tackle" polysemy.

POWER WORDS · A CROW, A LION, AND A MOUSE! OH, MY!

Q12 L.2.5 TRAP

C

Evidence: "on a sunny plain in Kenya" (OCR 1418). Trap: A is the "plane" (airplane) sound-trap; B/D are valid OTHER senses of plain (simple / easy) but not in this context.

Q13 L.2.4

bind

D

Evidence: Hunters bind Lion with rope (OCR 1413). Tie tightly. Distractor: A ("set it free") is the antonym.

Q14 L.2.4

narrow

B

Evidence: "The opening is too narrow!" (OCR 1795). Small in width — not wide. Distractor: A ("wide and open") is the antonym.

Q15 L.2.4

clever

A

Evidence: "This clever crow can't get to the water, so he's making the water get to him" (OCR 1694–1697). Quick, useful thinking — smart in a useful way (OCR 4371).

POWER WORDS · HOLLYWOOD CHICKEN

journey

C

Evidence: "My journey was long. I went from..." (OCR 2409). A long trip from one place to another.

Q17 L.2.4

fulfill

D

Evidence: "What if I can't fulfill my dream?" (OCR 2720). Make a dream come true.

believe

B

Meaning: to be sure someone can do it / have faith in them. Distractor: A ("doubt") is the antonym.

Q19 L.2.4 TRAP

A

Evidence: "I got to give a speech!" at the Walk of Fame ceremony (OCR 2996). A talk given out loud to listeners. Trap: B is the other sense of "speech" — the way a person sounds when talking.

POWER WORDS · IF THE SHOE FITS

Q20 L.2.4

chore

C

Evidence: "you'll do Finn's Chore and mow the lawn" (OCR 3537). A small home job.

D

Evidence: "Zoey was thrilled!" (OCR 3662). Very excited, full of happy energy.

Q22 L.2.4

superb

B

Evidence: "Zoey thought they were superb!" (OCR 3669). Excellent — much better than just "good."

Q23 L.2.5 TRAP

A

Evidence: "Randall beamed when Zoey walked in" (OCR 3708); beamed pg-63 (OCR 3374). Smiled in a big, bright way. Trap: B "wooden beam" / C "light beam" polysemy.

Q24 L.2.6

pleasure

C

Evidence: "her own daughter named Hee, which means 'pleasure'" (OCR 3813). Happiness / enjoyment. Distractors: all other feelings (upset, fear, anger).

Q25 L.2.4 TRAP

D

Evidence: "stepsister were jealous" / "jealous of Kwan" (OCR 3814, 3768). Trap: A ("shares everything gladly") and B ("happy when others get something good") are the opposite emotion.

dashed

B

Evidence: "Thrilled, Kwan dashed down the road" (OCR 3952). Ran very fast for a short time.

Q27 L.2.4

hobbled

A

Evidence: "Kwan hobbled home and hid the gown" (OCR 3957). Walk slowly and unevenly — like with one shoe.

Teacher Note. Big Idea Words and Power Words appear in mybook page-order (Big Idea pg-03 → How to Read a Story pg-08 → A Crow, a Lion, and a Mouse! pg-30 → Hollywood Chicken pg-40 → If the Shoe Fits pg-58). Recipe for a Fairy Tale (Short Read pg-06) and Those Clever Crows (Media: Video pg-72) have ZERO Power Words and are NOT in Worksheet A. Trap items (Q3, Q7, Q10, Q12, Q19, Q23, Q25) = 7 of 27 ≈ 26%.

Hallucination Guard. Power Words count = 24 (8 + 4 + 4 + 8) ✓ — matches SoT exactly. Big Idea Words = 3 (moral / relate / version) — "storytelling" is the topic strand, NOT a 4th Big Idea Word. The word "plain" appears in BOTH the Power Words panel AND the Multiple-Meaning Words list on pg-16 — used here as a Power Word. Same for "beamed" on pg-30.

Worksheet B — Reading Comprehension · Answer Key

32 items · CCSS RL.2.1–2.9 / RI.2.1–2.8

Story 1 · How to Read a Story

PROCEDURAL · KATE MESSNER · 8 QUESTIONS

Q1 RI.2.2

A

Main topic = 10 steps to read a story. "STEP 1: FIND A STORY..." through "STEP 10: When the book is over, say, 'The End.'" (SoT key text).

Q2 RI.2.5

Procedural / how-to text. SoT genre line 20, 366, 367; pg-08 confirmed.

A

"STEP 2: FIND A READING BUDDY. A good one." (SoT key text, OCR 541–553).

Q4 RI.2.3

D

"If there are words you don't know, try sounding them out or looking at the pictures." (OCR 862–867).

D

"When you get to the exciting parts, make your voice sound exciting, too." (OCR 988–993).

Q6 RI.2.6

C

Purpose = invite readers into the joy of stories. Anchors module EQ.

Q7 RI.2.3

B

"STEP 3: FIND A COZY READING SPOT. Outside is fun... but not if it's very cold." (OCR 633–639, SoT key text).

D

"And then... if it was a really good story... go right back to the beginning and start all over again." (OCR 1152–1154). A great story is worth re-reading.

Story 2 · A Crow, a Lion, and a Mouse! Oh, My!

DRAMA · CRYSTAL HUBBARD · 8 QUESTIONS

Q9 RL.2.5

Drama = play with character lines spoken aloud. Narrator + character dialogue tags. SoT genre line 25, 26; pg-30 confirmed.

B

"Mouse's tiny, sharp teeth chewed and gnawed and tugged at the rope until it fell away." (OCR 1439–1441).

D

"I learned a lesson today. You're a better friend than a meal!" (OCR 1443–1446). Kindness > size.

A

"On the hottest day of summer, two crows find a pitcher of water." (OCR 1548–1549). The pitcher's neck is narrow — they cannot reach the water.

B

"(Crow 1) I've got it! (picks up a pebble)" (OCR 1580–1581). Crow 1 drops pebbles to raise the water.

A

"(Crow 2) It would rise faster if both of us put in pebbles." (OCR 1701–1702). Crow 2 joins in.

Q15 RL.2.6

Narrator describes setting + action for the audience — drama convention. (OCR 1418, 1746–1748).

C

Moral = don't give up; clever thinking solves problems. SoT lesson line ("The Crow and the Pitcher": don't give up — clever thinking solves problems). Trap A is the lesson of the OTHER fable in the same drama ("The Lion and the Mouse"); trap B over-generalizes Crow 1's "half full" line (OCR 1551–1553) into a life rule the text never states; trap D contradicts the text — both crows cooperate (OCR 1701–1702), strength does not win the water.

Story 3 · Hollywood Chicken

FANTASY · LISA FLEMING · 8 QUESTIONS

Q17 RL.2.1

B

Chicken Lily — main character. SoT characters, OCR 1932.

A

"I can't wait to fly this coop! Life in these green hills is dull, dull, dull." (OCR 1965–1968).

C

Luz Cruz = Hollywood's best chicken agent. "I am Hollywood's best chicken agent." (OCR 1982–1984).

Q20 RL.2.3

C

"Sometimes I feel like I don't belong... I make jokes when I'm nervous." (OCR 2507–2510).

Q21 RL.2.3

D

"I saw Slim sitting alone on a park bench. I took a chance and asked him what was wrong." (OCR 2498–2501).

B

Point of view = epistolary. The story is told through Chicken Lily's own letters and journal entries. "Dear Ms. Luz Cruz, I can't wait to fly this coop..." (OCR 1965–1968); "Dear Chicken Lily, I am excited to meet you!" (OCR 1982–1984).

B

Lesson = believe + work hard + reach out kindly to others. SoT lesson line; Lily reaching out to Slim on the park bench (OCR 2498–2510). Trap A drops the "reach out kindly" half of the lesson — partial truth; trap C reduces the moral to the Walk of Fame symbol (OCR 1975–1977) instead of the inner growth the text shows; trap D demonizes Luz Cruz, but the text shows Luz as Lily's helpful agent (OCR 1982–1984).

Q24 RL.2.5

Fantasy = talking animals act like people in a real-world setting. SoT genre note + hallucination warning line.

Story 4 · If the Shoe Fits: Two Cinderella Stories

FAIRY TALE · PLEASANT DESPAIN · 8 QUESTIONS

B

"You can't use my computer without permission." (OCR 2853–2856). The text shows it was really Finn (OCR 2849, 2859).

D

Mrs. Fortuna = sparkling neighbor with magical garden shears. "To Zoey's amazement, the shears flew out of Mrs. Fortuna's hands." (OCR 2877–2880).

Q27 RL.2.4

C

"Her father named her Kwan, which means 'strong.'" (OCR 3067–3068).

D

A large brown cow eats the weeds for Kwan (OCR 3089, 3094, 3112).

A

"a flock of songbirds appeared in the sky, carrying a lovely robe and slippers. 'For the strong one,' they sang." (OCR 3140–3142).

C

Cross-cultural comparison. Both girls — Zoey (modern American) and Kwan (long-ago Korean) — face unfair treatment and receive magical help. SoT setting line + "Long, long ago" (OCR 3067) vs. "Once, not long ago" (OCR 2839). Trap A is true for Kwan only; trap B is a Kwan-only detail (the cow, OCR 3089/3094/3112); trap D is a Zoey-only detail (the computer, OCR 2853–2856). Each trap takes a real story element but applies it to BOTH — a classic compare-and-contrast confusion.

B

Shared moral = kindness + inner strength overcome unfair treatment. Kwan's name means "strong" (OCR 3067–3068); Mrs. Fortuna's line "Two shoes don't make wishes come true." (OCR 2968). Trap A contradicts the text — both girls are mistreated by their stepfamily, not rewarded for obedience; trap C misreads the magic — Mrs. Fortuna's shears and the songbirds help, but Zoey and Kwan still do their own chores (OCR 3089, 2877–2880); trap D reduces the moral to the prince ending, but Zoey's story has no prince at all.

Fairy tale = magic + kind hero + unfair situation + happy ending. SoT genre line 15.

Cross-Story Pattern. Each main read teaches a different kind of lesson from its characters: a procedural how-to that loves stories (How to Read a Story), two Aesop fables on kindness + cleverness (A Crow, a Lion, and a Mouse!), a fantasy on dreams + empathy (Hollywood Chicken), and a cross-cultural fairy tale on inner strength (If the Shoe Fits). Together they answer the EQ — "What lessons can we learn from the characters in stories?"

Worksheet C — IB Critical Thinking · Answer Key

5 questions · PYP Key Concepts · DOK 2–4

Q1 Perspective DOK 2

In "Hollywood Chicken," show Chicken Lily's and Slim the Worm's points of view.

MODEL ANSWER

Chicken Lily: She is excited and proud. She has worked hard, fulfilled her dream, and feels she belongs in Hollywood. When Slim mocks her, she first feels small and hurt — she wonders if she really belongs. Slim the Worm: He looks confident from the outside, but inside he feels he doesn't belong. He makes jokes when he is nervous and admits, "I know I hurt others' feelings." His meanness is a cover for fear. Why both views matter: If Lily only sees the jokes, she sees a bully. When she asks what is wrong, she sees a worm who is hurting. Seeing both sides changes everything.

KEYWORDS (3)

excited / hurt | nervous = jokes | both views = friendship

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): both characters' inner feelings shown, plus a reason both views matter.
- Partial (2): both sides described but no reason given.
- Minimal (1): only one side described, or Slim shown only as "mean."

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Two-column chart.

강사: "On the left, write what Chicken Lily feels. On the right, write what Slim REALLY feels — under the jokes."

코멘트. 두 칸 비교가 핵심. 슬림의 농담 아래에 숨은 진짜 감정을 짚어주는 게 포인트.

Step 2 · Quote-find.

강사: "Find Slim's confession line. What changes for Lily when she hears it?"

코멘트. 'I make jokes when I'm nervous' 한 줄이 시선을 바꿔놓음. 그 한 줄을 꼭 찾게 할 것.

Step 3 · Connect to EQ.

강사: "What lesson did Lily learn from Slim? What can WE learn?"

코멘트. EQ 연결 — 못된 친구에게도 그 사람만의 이유가 있을 수 있다는 교훈.

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "How does Chicken Lily feel at the Walk of Fame?"
  명예의 거리에서 치킨 릴리의 기분은?
- "Why does Slim make mean jokes?"
  슬림이 짓궂은 농담을 하는 진짜 이유는?
- "Can both feelings be true at the same time?"
  두 감정이 동시에 진짜일 수 있을까?

DIFFERENTIATION

STRUGGLING Provide two emoji-style face cards (proud / nervous-but-hiding-it) for each character.

표정 카드 두 장씩 짝지어주기.

ADVANCED Ask: "Whose point of view is HARDER to see in the story? Why?" Encourage a sentence about Slim.

어느 시점이 더 보기 어려운지 한 문장으로.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "Slim is just bad." Redirect: he is nervous, not evil.

슬림이 '나쁜 애'라는 답이 가장 흔한 오류. 두려움이라는 점으로 교정.

PITFALL "Lily should ignore him." Redirect: she ASKED — and that changed things.

무시가 답이 아니라 질문이 답이었음.

LEARNER PROFILE LINK

OPEN-MINDED Asking "what's wrong?" instead of fighting back is the core Open-minded behavior.

맞받아치지 않고 '무슨 일 있어?'라고 묻는 게 Open-minded.

KOREAN BRIDGE

표현 "What's wrong?" → "무슨 일 있어?"

친구가 짓궂게 굴 때 바로 쓰는 한국어 한 줄. 학원/학교에서 그대로.

Q2 Responsibility DOK 3

In "How to Read a Story," what are four reader responsibilities Kate Messner gives us?

MODEL ANSWER

(1) Find a story you want to read — choosing well is the first responsibility. (2) Find a reading buddy — a person or a pet — to share the story with. (3) Find a cozy spot and look at the cover for a clue before opening. (4) When you don't know a word, sound it out or look at the pictures to see what makes sense. Hardest for me: sometimes I want to skip the hard words and just guess. But the text says try to make sense of them — that is the reader's job.

KEYWORDS (3)

choose a story | buddy + cozy spot | sound out / pictures

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): 4 distinct steps named, plus self-reflection.
- Partial (2): 4 steps named, no reflection.
- Minimal (1): fewer than 3 steps.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Mine the text.

강사: "Open to the 10 steps. Circle the FOUR you think are most important. Why those four?"

코멘트. 10단계 중 가장 중요한 4개를 학생이 직접 고르게 함. 책임의 우선순위 훈련.

Step 2 · Web organizer.

강사: "Write 'Take Care of a Story' in the center. Put one responsibility in each branch."

코멘트. 시각화: 가운데 핵심, 네 가지 가지로 연결.

Step 3 · Self-reflection.

강사: "Which step do YOU sometimes forget? Be honest."

코멘트. 자기 반성 단계 — IB Responsibility의 핵심.

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "What does it mean to find a 'good' reading buddy?"
  좋은 리딩 버디란 어떤 존재?
- "Why does the title matter as a clue?"
  제목이 왜 단서가 될 수 있나?
- "What is one step you will try this week?"
  이번 주에 시도해 볼 한 가지 단계는?

DIFFERENTIATION

STRUGGLING Provide a 4-step word bank (story / buddy / cozy spot / sound out).

4개 단어 은행을 제공해 채우기로 시작.

ADVANCED Add a fifth step they would add to Kate Messner's list.

자신만의 5번째 단계를 한 줄로 추가.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "Just read fast." Text says the OPPOSITE — pause, look at pictures, even re-read.

'빨리 읽어야 잘 읽는 것'은 본문 정반대.

PITFALL "A buddy has to be a person." Text says no — a dog counts too.

버디는 사람일 필요 없음 — 강아지도 가능.

LEARNER PROFILE LINK

PRINCIPLED Following the steps carefully — even the slow ones — is what makes a Principled reader.

단계를 차근차근 지키는 것이 Principled 학습자의 모습.

KOREAN BRIDGE

표현 "Let's read together" → "같이 읽자."

집에서 부모님과, 학원에서 친구와 그대로 쓰는 한 줄.

Q3 Causation DOK 3

In "A Crow, a Lion, and a Mouse!" show how Crow 1's clever idea changes what happens to the water.

MODEL ANSWER

Cause: Crow 1 cannot reach the water in the pitcher — its neck is too narrow. He thinks for a moment, picks up a pebble, and drops it in. He keeps dropping pebbles, one by one. Crow 2 helps too. Effect: Each pebble pushes the water a little higher. Slowly, the water rises until both crows can drink. What this shows: A big problem ("we cannot reach the water") can be solved with many small clever acts. Don't give up. And — like in the fable of the Lion and the Mouse — kindness and clever thinking matter more than size or strength.

KEYWORDS (3)

narrow pitcher | pebbles + pebbles | water rises

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): cause + effect + insight about clever thinking.
- Partial (2): cause + effect named, no insight.
- Minimal (1): only one side filled.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Cause/Effect chart.

강사: "On the left, write what Crow 1 DOES. On the right, write what HAPPENS to the water. Use the arrow."

코멘트. 화살표를 시각적 신호로 사용. 행동→결과의 사슬을 그려보게 함.

Step 2 · Quote anchor.

강사: "Read Crow 1's line: 'This clever crow can't get to the water, so he's making the water get to him.' What is the KEY word?"

코멘트. 'clever' 단어가 이야기의 열쇠. 크기나 힘보다 머리.

Step 3 · Real-world bridge.

강사: "Can you think of a real problem solved by lots of small clever acts instead of one big strong act?"

코멘트. 학생 본인의 경험으로 연결 — 인과의 일반화.

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "What is the problem the crows face?"
  까마귀들이 마주한 문제는?
- "Why does dropping pebbles change the water level?"
  조약돌을 떨어뜨리면 왜 물이 올라올까?
- "What is the difference between strong and clever?"
  힘이 센 것과 영리한 것의 차이는?

DIFFERENTIATION

STRUGGLING Use two pictures (pitcher empty / pitcher with rising water + pebbles) — match cause to effect.

빈 항아리 / 조약돌 채운 항아리 두 그림으로 시각 매칭.

ADVANCED Re-write the cause-effect as a science observation — like an experiment with displacement.

'부피 차지' 과학 실험처럼 다시 써보기.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "One pebble does it." Text shows MANY pebbles — small repeated acts.

조약돌 한 개가 아니라 반복된 작은 행동의 누적.

PITFALL "Crow 1 is the hero alone." Crow 2 joins in — clever thinking shared works faster.

까마귀 1 혼자가 아니라 까마귀 2도 합류 — 협력이 빠름.

LEARNER PROFILE LINK

THINKERS Crow 1 is the model IB Thinker — he reasons through a problem and acts.

까마귀 1은 IB Thinker의 모범 — 생각하고 행동함.

KOREAN BRIDGE

표현 "Let me think it over" → "잠깐 생각해 볼게."

바로 답하지 않고 머리를 쓰는 IB 사고의 한 줄 표현.

Q4 Connection DOK 3

In "If the Shoe Fits," track Zoey and Kwan's three steps from unfair treatment to a happier ending.

MODEL ANSWER

Step 1 · At first: Zoey is blamed for using her mother's computer — but it was really Finn. She has to do the chore and miss Randall's party. Kwan, long ago in Korea, is given heavy chores by her stepmother, who favors Hee. Step 2 · Middle: Zoey is helped by Mrs. Fortuna, her sparkling neighbor whose garden shears fly. Kwan is helped by a big brown cow who eats the weeds, and a flock of songbirds who bring her a robe and slippers. Step 3 · End: Zoey gets golden tennis shoes and goes to the party. Kwan meets a young prince by the river — he asks her to marry him. What it shows: The same Cinderella shape is retold across cultures — modern America and long-ago Korea. The unfair treatment is similar; the magical helper is similar; the happy ending is similar. Stories travel.

KEYWORDS (3)

blamed / heavy chores | magical helper | shoes / robe = happy ending

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): three steps for BOTH girls + insight about retellings.
- Partial (2): three steps named, no cross-culture insight.
- Minimal (1): only one girl tracked.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Side-by-side chart.

강사: "Draw two columns: Zoey / Kwan. Three rows: Start / Middle / End. Fill each cell with ONE sentence from the story."

코멘트. 두 칸 × 세 줄 차트. 한 칸에 한 문장.

Step 2 · Find the parallel.

강사: "Where are Zoey and Kwan most similar? Where are they DIFFERENT?"

코멘트. 공통점과 차이점을 동시에 보게 함 — Connection 핵심.

Step 3 · "Stories travel."

강사: "Why might the SAME story be told in many places? What stays the same in every retelling?"

코멘트. 같은 이야기가 여러 문화에 존재하는 이유 — Big Idea Word 'version'으로 연결.

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "Who was unfair to Zoey? To Kwan?"
  조이에게 / 콴에게 부당하게 군 사람은?
- "Who helps each girl? How is the help different?"
  각자에게 도와준 존재는? 도움의 모양은 어떻게 다른가?
- "What is the SAME about both endings?"
  두 결말의 공통점은?

DIFFERENTIATION

STRUGGLING Provide a "Cinderella shape" card with 4 blanks (unfair, helper, magic, happy ending).

신데렐라 4칸 카드 (불공정/조력자/마법/해피엔딩).

ADVANCED Find a third Cinderella retelling (Korean traditional Kongjwi & Patzzi, or Chinese Ye Xian) and add it as a third column.

콩쥐팥쥐나 예씨안 같은 다른 신데렐라를 한 칸 더 추가.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "Zoey is the real Cinderella." Both ARE — same shape, different version.

둘 다 신데렐라. 같은 뼈대, 다른 버전.

PITFALL "Magic solves everything." The girls' kindness + strength matter too — magic only HELPS the strong one.

마법만으로 해결된 것이 아님. 강한 마음과 함께 작동.

LEARNER PROFILE LINK

OPEN-MINDED Seeing the SAME story across two cultures is the core Open-minded behavior.

같은 이야기를 두 문화에서 보는 것이 Open-minded.

KOREAN BRIDGE

표현 "Stories travel" → "이야기는 여행한다."

Q5 Reflection DOK 4

Essential Question: What lessons can we learn from the characters in stories? Use ideas from TWO stories in this module.

MODEL ANSWER

Story 1 · A Crow, a Lion, and a Mouse!: From Mouse I learned that small does not mean weak. Mouse frees the mighty Lion by gnawing the rope — friendship and clever kindness matter more than size. From Crow 1 I learned not to give up — even when a problem looks too big. Story 2 · Hollywood Chicken: From Chicken Lily I learned to believe in my dreams AND to reach out to people who hurt me — Slim was not really mean, he was nervous. My Big Idea: Stories teach lessons their characters live through. From little Mouse and Chicken Lily, I learned the SAME idea — kindness is stronger than what looks strong. A small voice or a small act can change a whole story.

KEYWORDS (3)

small ≠ weak | don't give up | kindness over force

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (4): two stories, clear character lessons, original big idea ties to EQ.
- Strong (3): two stories with lessons, big idea is general.
- Partial (2): only one story discussed in depth.
- Minimal (1): no clear EQ link.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Pick two stories.

강사: "Of the four main reads, pick TWO. Pick characters whose lessons CONNECT to you."

코멘트. 대조보다는 본인과 연결되는 캐릭터 두 명을 고르도록.

Step 2 · Name the lesson.

강사: "In ONE sentence, say what each character TAUGHT you."

코멘트. 한 문장 요약 훈련. 줄거리가 아니라 교훈에 초점.

Step 3 · Find the shared truth.

강사: "What is SAME about the two lessons, even when the stories are very different?"

코멘트. 공통 진실 찾기 — Big Idea 작성의 핵심.

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "Which two stories spoke loudest to you?"
  너에게 가장 크게 와닿은 두 이야기는?
- "What did each main character teach you about life?"
  각 주인공이 너에게 가르쳐준 인생 교훈은?
- "What ONE sentence ties them together?"
  두 교훈을 묶는 한 문장은?

DIFFERENTIATION

STRUGGLING Provide a sentence frame: "From [character 1], I learned ___. From [character 2], I learned ___. Both teach me that ___."

문장 틀을 제공해 빈칸 채우기.

ADVANCED Use Roald Dahl's quote — "No book ever ends when it's full of your friends." — as the closing line tying both lessons together.

로알드 달의 인용구로 마무리.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL Picking Short Read (Recipe for a Fairy Tale) or Video (Those Clever Crows). Redirect to the 4 main reads.

메인 4개 이야기 중에서 고를 것 — Short Read/Video 제외.

PITFALL Re-telling the plot, not the LESSON.

줄거리 요약이 아니라 '교훈'에 초점.

LEARNER PROFILE LINK

REFLECTIVE Tying two different characters to ONE life lesson is true reflection — the heart of DOK 4.

서로 다른 두 캐릭터를 하나의 교훈으로 묶는 것이 진짜 성찰.

KOREAN BRIDGE

표현 "What lesson did this character teach you?" → "이 캐릭터가 너에게 가르쳐준 건 뭐야?"

EQ를 학생과 부모님이 그대로 쓸 수 있는 한국어 한 줄.

SYNTHESIS FRAME

STORY A · LESSON	SHARED TRUTH	STORY B · LESSON
Small or weak-looking character solves a big problem with kindness or cleverness.	Kindness, clever thinking, and persistence are stronger than what looks strong from the outside.	Brave character reaches out — and finds that what looked mean was actually fear or hurt.

REAL-WORLD CONNECTION

홈 Sibling teasing — the teaser is often the one who feels left out.

형제자매가 짓궂게 굴 때 — 그 친구가 외로움을 느낄 가능성.

학원 A classmate who jokes too much — ask "what's wrong?" before getting upset.

놀리는 친구에게 화내기 전에 '무슨 일 있어?'.

사회 Reading classic fables to see your own real-life problems with new eyes.

고전 우화에서 자신의 현재 문제를 다시 보는 연습.

SYNTHESIS RUBRIC (TEACHER)

LEVEL	TWO STORIES	CHARACTER LESSONS	BIG IDEA
4 · Exemplary	Two main reads with sharply different character types.	Specific lesson named for each character with text evidence.	Original sentence; ties to EQ + Roald Dahl quote.
3 · Proficient	Two main reads chosen.	Lesson named for each character.	General sentence; ties to EQ.
2 · Developing	Two stories, but one is Short Read / Video.	Plot retell, not character lesson.	Big idea is plot-level only.
1 · Beginning	One story only, or none.	No clear character lesson.	No big idea or off-topic.

Worksheet D — MAP Practice · Answer Key

20 items · RIT 180 → 200 · 4 mini-passages

PASSAGE 1 · THE ANT AND THE QUICK BIRD · 110 WORDS · LEXILE 240–290L

Q1 RIT 180 · Key Detail

B

"A small ant fell into a stream." Stated directly in line 1.

Q2 RIT 184 · Cause & Effect

C

The bird drops the leaf so the drowning ant can climb on — clear cause / effect.

Q3 RIT 186 · Vocabulary

"Carried him to dry land" = the leaf functions like a tiny boat. Figurative language anchor.

Q4 RIT 188 · Inference

D

The ant bites the hunter to save the bird who once saved him — kindness returns.

Q5 RIT 189 · Main Idea / Moral

D

Moral = even small helpers can save big helpers. Anchors EQ — what we learn from fable characters.

PASSAGE 2 · A TALE OF TWO LUNCH BOXES · 115 WORDS · LEXILE 300–350L

Q6 RIT 190 · Key Detail

A

"Tomi had a rice ball and an apple." Direct quote.

Q7 RIT 192 · Key Detail

C

"Sam wanted a rice ball today." Direct quote. Tomi wanted the sandwich; Sam wanted the rice ball — that is why they trade.

Q8 RIT 193 · Vocabulary

D

"Sam beamed" = Sam smiled brightly. Same Power Word as in If the Shoe Fits.

Q9 RIT 194 · Inference

B

Sharing with a friend made the food feel special — not the amount.

Q10 RIT 195 · Main Idea / Moral

D

Sharing a small idea = ordinary day feels special. Echoes module EQ.

PASSAGE 3 · THE BOY WHO CRIED BEAR · 120 WORDS · LEXILE 360–410L

Q11 RIT 195 · Key Detail

C

"His job was to watch the sheep." Stated directly.

Q12 RIT 196 · Cause & Effect

A

"They thought it was just another joke" — direct quote, cause = false alarms before.

Q13 RIT 197 · Inference

D

"One day he was bored" + "The boy laughed" — bored and looking for fun.

Q14 RIT 198 · Vocabulary

C

"Tired and upset" = worn out and unhappy. Two-word phrase decoding.

Q15 RIT 199 · Main Idea / Moral

B

Classic Aesop moral — lying breaks trust. Anchors EQ — lessons from fable characters.

PASSAGE 4 · A CINDERELLA STORY FROM LONG AGO · 120 WORDS · LEXILE 440–500L

Q16 RIT 199 · Key Detail

A

"Mara crept out and gave the old woman half of her own rice." Direct quote.

Q17 RIT 200 · Cause & Effect

C

"'You have a strong heart, child,' the old woman whispered." Kindness shown → magical gift given.

Q18 RIT 200 · Vocabulary

B

"Her life grew darker" = figurative — things got harder and sadder.

Q19 RIT 200 · Inference

A

Cross-text comparison — both girls mistreated, magical helper, kind home. Direct echo of "If the Shoe Fits."

Q20 RIT 200 · Main Idea / Moral

Moral = small kindness returns as great help. Direct synthesis of module EQ.

Teacher Note · Passage Design. Four NEW passages — none from the workbook stories. Each is a retelling or fable that mirrors module structure (Aesop-style fable, contemporary lunch story, Aesop-style cautionary tale, fairy-tale Cinderella). Lexile climbs 240L → 500L; RIT climbs 180 → 200, so the worksheet doubles as a MAP-style growth check across the G2 band. All four passages connect to the module Big Idea Words moral / relate / version.

Module 4 Cross-Walk · Essential Question Map

How each worksheet element supports the EQ

MODULE MAP

Essential Question Across the Module

EQ: What lessons can we learn from the characters in stories?
The four main reads each answer this EQ through a different kind of character. Worksheets A through D build the vocabulary, comprehension, deeper thinking, and independent reading skill to engage with the EQ.

Four Pathways to Learning From Characters

- How to Read a Story · Procedural: The boy reader teaches us a how-to attitude toward stories themselves. The path is INSTRUCTIONAL. Big Idea word link = relate.
- A Crow, a Lion, and a Mouse! · Drama (two fables): Mouse teaches that small is not weak; Crow 1 teaches that clever thinking beats brute force. The path is FABLE-MORAL. Big Idea word link = moral.
- Hollywood Chicken · Fantasy: Chicken Lily teaches that dreams are real if you work + reach out kindly to people who hurt. The path is CHARACTER-ARC. Big Idea word link = relate.
- If the Shoe Fits · Fairy Tale (two retellings): Zoey and Kwan teach that the same story (Cinderella) lives across cultures, and inner strength matters more than magic. The path is CROSS-CULTURAL. Big Idea word link = version.

Worksheet ↔ EQ Map

WORKSHEET	HOW IT SUPPORTS EQ	KEY EVIDENCE
A · Vocabulary (27)	Builds the three Big Idea Words (moral / relate / version) plus 24 Power Words — the actual vocabulary of story lessons and retellings.	Q1–Q3 anchor the BIW; Q12–Q15 cluster around the Crow/Lion/Mouse fable language.
B · Reading Comp (32)	Eight items per main read trace HOW each character teaches a lesson — main idea, cause, character change, genre.	Q11 (Lion: friend > meal), Q23 (Lily: believe + reach out), Q31 (Zoey/Kwan: kindness + inner strength).
C · IB Critical Thinking (5)	Five PYP key-concept lenses — Perspective, Responsibility, Causation, Connection, Reflection — pushed through DOK 2→4. Students reason about the same EQ from five different angles.	Q5 synthesis pulls two stories under one EQ-answering big idea.
D · MAP Practice (20)	Four NEW passages — fable, lunch-share story, Aesop cautionary tale, Cinderella retelling — each modeling a lesson learned from a character. None from the workbook stories.	Each passage's Main-Idea/Moral question (Q5, Q10, Q15, Q20) names the character lesson explicitly.

Hallucination Guard — SoT Cross-Checks Done

- Power Words count = 24 (8 + 4 + 4 + 8). Recipe for a Fairy Tale (Short Read) and Those Clever Crows (Video) have ZERO Power Words.
- Big Idea Words = 3 (moral / relate / version). "Storytelling" is the topic strand — NOT a 4th BIW.
- Recipe for a Fairy Tale has no named author in the workbook — not attributed to Kate Messner or anyone else.
- Those Clever Crows is credited "from The New York Times" — no individual author/illustrator.

- A Crow, a Lion, and a Mouse! contains TWO retold Aesop fables (Lion and Mouse + Crow and Pitcher) in a single drama by Crystal Hubbard. NOT split.
- If the Shoe Fits contains TWO Cinderella retellings (Zoey in modern America + Kwan in long-ago Korea) by Pleasant DeSpain. NOT split.
- Hollywood Chicken = Fantasy (talking animals in real-world setting), NOT realistic fiction.
- How to Read a Story = Procedural Text. The boy + dog frame the embedded story-within-a-story "The Princess, the Dragon, and the Robot."
- Kwan = "strong" / Hee = "pleasure" — stated in OCR 3067–3068, 3073.
- Mrs. Fortuna is the sparkling NEIGHBOR with magical garden shears — not a classic fairy godmother.
- Quote = Roald Dahl. Not attributed to any of the four main authors.
