Passage 1 · The Girl Who Led the Walk

Mia was small for her age. At school, the big kids never let her lead the line. One Monday, the class went on a walk. Mr. Park asked who knew the way to the park. The big kids looked down. Mia raised her hand. "I know the way," she said. "I walk it with my dad." Mr. Park smiled. "Then YOU lead the line today." Mia stood at the front. She walked slowly so the small kids could keep up. She stopped at every red light. The big kids did not laugh. They followed her. At the park, Mr. Park said, "A leader is not the loudest. A leader is the one who knows the way and brings everyone along."

120 WORDS · LEXILE 240–290L · RIT 180–189

Q1 RIT 180 | Lexile 240L | Key Detail

- ○ D. Knowing the way and bringing everyone along.

Passage 2 · The Captain Who Listened

Ben was the new soccer captain. On the first day, he made all the choices. He chose the drills. He chose who played where. The team lost three games in a row. After the third loss, Anna stayed behind. "Ben," she said softly, "can I tell you something?" Ben sat down. He listened. Anna said, "We are tired of running the same drill. Lin is faster on the wing. May is great in the goal." Ben thought hard. The next week, he asked everyone what they wanted to try. They picked new drills together. Lin played wing. May played goal. They won the next game. Ben learned that a captain who listens is stronger than a captain who only talks.

125 WORDS · LEXILE 300–350L · RIT 190–195

Q6 RIT 190 · Lexile 300L · Key Detail

- ○ B. A leader who only talks is the best leader.
- ○ C. Leaders should make every choice alone.
- ○ D. Sports are not for thinking.

Passage 3 · Cesar Chavez and the Farm Workers

Long ago, in California, many farm workers picked grapes under the hot sun. They worked long hours. They were paid very little. Cesar Chavez was a farm worker too. He saw the trouble. He wanted to help. Cesar did not shout. He did not fight. Instead, he asked the workers to walk together to ask for fair pay. He asked people across the country not to buy grapes until things changed. Many years went by. Slowly, the farm owners listened. The workers got better pay. They got safer water. They were no longer alone. Cesar Chavez taught us that a leader does not need a loud voice. A leader needs a clear plan, a kind heart, and many friends walking side by side.

130 WORDS · LEXILE 360–410L · RIT 195–199

Q11 RIT 195 · Lexile 360L · Key Detail

Passage 4 · Mayor for a Day

Once a year, the mayor of Greenville lets one student be "Mayor for a Day." This year, the council voted for Ada. Ada was excited. She also felt scared. On her morning, the mayor handed her a list. The list said: "1) Listen to citizens. 2) Visit the schools. 3) Solve one problem." At her first stop, an old man told Ada there were no benches at the bus stop. "I have to stand for forty minutes," he said. Ada wrote it down. At her second stop, kids told her the school library had broken chairs. Ada wrote that down too. At the council meeting, Ada read her list out loud. "I cannot fix everything in one day," she said. "But I CAN start." The mayor smiled and clapped first.
