Story 1 · Wild Weather

NARRATIVE NONFICTION · 8 ITEMS

Q1 RI.2.1

B

Evidence: The hiker folds an origami bird; a gust lifts "Sonny" (OCR lines 376, 398).

D

Evidence: Chuck's wife Natasha is missing (OCR lines 438, 489).

C

Evidence: "It's pellets... The pellets hit water..." (OCR line 642).

B

Evidence: "The ice crystal clings to other crystals" (OCR line 806).

C

Evidence: Point + reason — "They both have strong spinning winds" (OCR line 1218). Trap A: only hurricanes form over the ocean (tornadoes form over land, OCR 986); D reverses it — these storms have fast winds, not stillness.

A

Author's purpose: Chuck explains what a tornado and a hurricane are and how each forms (OCR 981, 1066, 1218). Trap B/C/D pull from the story frame (Sonny, ducks) and miss the informational aim.

B

Source: SoT genre — Narrative Nonfiction. True facts inside a story.

C

Synthesis: Hail, tornado, hurricane + "Meteorologists study and predict weather" (OCR 711, 981). Trap A uses Sonny the paper bird; B reverses the duck-teaches-hiker frame; D swaps tornado/hurricane location (tornadoes form over flat land, OCR 986).

Story 2 · Cloudette

FANTASY · 8 ITEMS

Q9 RL.2.5

A

Source: SoT genre — Fantasy. Clouds with names and feelings are not real.

B

Evidence: "smaller than the average cloud" (OCR line 1463).

D

Evidence: "being small had lots of advantages" — she does not mind at first (OCR 1466).

A

Evidence: "lay awake wondering" + "feeling blue" — wants big, important work (OCR 1705, 1788).

A

Evidence: "a big storm... She didn't know anyone here" (OCR 1801, 1841).

D

Evidence: "looked down at what was supposed to be a pond... Cloudette rained on —" (OCR 1931, 2065).

A

Evidence: "exhausted, but happy. Even the higher-ups were impressed" (OCR 2124, 2154).

C

Synthesis: Cloudette is small but cares — and rains on the dried-up pond for the frog (OCR 1931, 2065). Trap A contradicts the rain scene; B is a story-detail trap (lonely in new neighborhood, OCR 1841); D states what the "higher-ups" assume — exactly what the story disproves.

Story 3 · Get Ready for Weather

INFORMATIONAL TEXT · 8 ITEMS

Q17 RI.2.5

B

Source: SoT genre — Informational Text. Real facts and safety tips.

C

Main topic: The whole text is about getting ready for different kinds of weather (OCR 2899, 2965). Trap A is a text-feature distractor; B mis-frames it as a biography; D belongs to "Cloudette."

A

Reason supports point: "Lightning can be very dangerous" backs the advice to go inside (OCR 2616, 2625). Traps B/C/D are real text details but from other sections (rainbow, blizzard, sandstorm).

C

Author's purpose: The box shows that "Having the right supplies is one way to prepare for a storm" (OCR 2733, 2965). Trap A/B/D confuse the box with a narrative, a how-snow-forms passage, or a literal price list.

B

Evidence: "Sandstorms happen when ... Being outside during a sandstorm is unsafe" (OCR 2768, 2811).

D

Evidence: "clothing and supplies they may need" (OCR 2718, 2743, 2965). Traps A/B/C all sound reasonable but ignore the safety/readiness purpose stated in the text.

D

Synthesis: Author's purpose — inform + keep safe across thunderstorms, blizzards, sandstorms, hurricanes. Trap A confuses genre (narrative vs. informational); B mis-targets audience (kids ≠ future meteorologists); C is a text-feature trap (no alphabetical cloud list).

A

Evidence: "Get Ready for Weather" groups facts by storm type — thunderstorms, blizzards, sandstorms, hurricanes — so readers can locate info per category. Trap B confuses with narrative structure; C invents a chronological/historical order not in the text; D confuses with the poetry selection.

Story 4 · Whatever the Weather

POETRY · 8 ITEMS

Q25 RL.2.5

B

Source: A Collection of Poems — "Weather" (Eve Merriam), "Covers" (Nikki Giovanni), "Cloud Dragons" (Pat Mora, OCR line 4391).

Q26 RL.2.4

D

Evidence: Eve Merriam's "Weather" uses sound words (splatter, rumble, "puddle splosh," OCR line 4222) to help the reader HEAR a rainstorm begin.

Q27 RL.2.4

B

Evidence: "Cloud Dragons" — dragons "curl their tails as they go slithering by" (OCR line 4402). Slither and glide show smooth, sliding movement.

D

Evidence: Repetition of "cover" across lines is a structural device — "Clouds cover the sky ... Blankets cover me when I'm asleep" (Nikki Giovanni, "Covers," OCR lines 4294, 4300) — linking sky, night, and bed.

D

Term: Onomatopoeia — words that copy a real sound.

Q30 RL.2.4

D

Inference: "creep" + "slithering" build the image of long, slow-moving cloud creatures.

B

Synthesis: Each poem captures one kind of weather through sound and image (Merriam's sound words splatter/rumble; Giovanni's "covers," OCR 4294; Mora's "Cloud Dragons," OCR 4391). Trap A overgeneralizes from "Weather" rain poem; C is a poetry-form misconception; D mistakes the figurative "Cloud Dragons" title for a real animal.

Comparison: Poetry uses sound/feeling; informational text uses facts and safety tips.

Worksheet C — IB Critical Thinking · Answer Key

5 questions · PYP Key Concepts · DOK 2–4

Q1 Causation DOK 3

In "Wild Weather," show the cause-and-effect chain that turns water vapor into a snowflake.

MODEL ANSWER

Cause: Water vapor rises into very cold air high in the sky. The vapor freezes and becomes a tiny ice crystal. The ice crystal clings to other ice crystals. Effect: Together, the crystals grow into a snowflake. The snowflake becomes heavy enough to fall. It drifts down to the ground. What this teaches: Weather is not magic — it is a chain of small, real changes. Each step CAUSES the next. Understanding the chain helps meteorologists predict what will fall — rain, hail, or snow.

vapor + freeze | crystal clings to crystal | chain → snowflake

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): chain has 3+ steps in correct order + cause-effect named.
- Partial (2): chain steps named but order is fuzzy.
- Minimal (1): only one step ("it gets cold") or only "snow falls".

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Anchor the quote.

강사: "Find the line, 'The ice crystal clings to other crystals.' What word is doing the work here?"

코멘트. 'clings'가 인과 사슬의 핵심 동사. 한 결정이 다른 결정에 달라붙는 과정.

Step 2 · Draw the chain.

강사: "Draw three boxes. Box 1: vapor. Box 2: crystal. Box 3: snowflake. Arrow between each."

코멘트. 3박스 화살표 다이어그램으로 인과 사슬 시각화.

Step 3 · Stretch to other weather.

강사: "What is the cause-and-effect chain for hail? For a tornado?"

코멘트. 우박·토네이도로 확장. Causation 개념을 다른 날씨에 적용.

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "What does 'clings' tell us about how crystals work?"
  'clings' 한 단어로 어떻게 결정이 모이는지 설명해보자.
- "What would happen if the air was NOT very cold?"
  만약 공기가 차갑지 않으면? — 비가 되는 이유와 연결.
- "Where in the chain is the most important step?"
  사슬의 어느 단계가 가장 중요하다고 생각해?

DIFFERENTIATION

STRUGGLING Provide 3 picture cards (vapor / crystal / snowflake) — student puts them in order.

그림 카드 3장 순서 맞추기.

ADVANCED Compare snowflake chain with hail (Chuck's "pellets" — OCR 642). What is the same? What is different?

눈송이와 우박의 사슬 비교 — 같은 점과 다른 점.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "Snow comes from clouds." Cloud is the location — but the real cause is vapor freezing and clinging.

'구름에서 온다'는 부분적 답. 핵심은 vapor → freeze → cling.

PITFALL "Snowflakes are made of one big crystal." Text says one crystal clings to OTHERS.

눈송이는 결정 여러 개가 모여 만들어짐.

LEARNER PROFILE LINK

INQUIRERS Following each step of the chain to understand the whole is the core of inquiry.

단계별로 따라가며 이해하는 자세가 Inquirers의 특징.

KOREAN BRIDGE

표현 "Because of that, ..." → "그래서 그 다음에는 ..."

사슬 단계를 잇는 한 줄. 글쓰기에 그대로 사용.

개념 "Water vapor / 수증기 → ice crystal / 얼음 결정 → snowflake / 눈송이"

한 단계당 한국어 단어 매칭. 영-한 사다리로 시각화하면 인과 사슬이 더 또렷해짐.

발문 "What is the next step?" → "다음 단계는 뭐야?"

학생이 다음 단계를 직접 말하게 유도하는 짧은 질문.

Q2 Change DOK 2

In "Cloudette," track how Cloudette changes from feeling blue to feeling proud.

MODEL ANSWER

Before the storm: Cloudette is smaller than average. She enjoys little things — sneaking through tight spaces, having friends — but she starts to feel blue because she wants to do something BIG and IMPORTANT. After helping the frog: A storm carries her to a strange place. She sees a dried-up pond. She RAINS on it and fills it for the frog. She is exhausted but happy. Even the higher-ups are impressed. What changed her: Doing one BIG thing that was right in front of her — not waiting until she grew bigger. Acting changed how she felt about being small.

KEYWORDS (3)

small + feeling blue | storm + new place | rain on pond → proud

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): before-state, action, and after-state all described + one-thing-that-changed named.
- Partial (2): before/after stated but no clear "what changed her."
- Minimal (1): only one side described, or "she grew bigger" (incorrect — she stayed small).

TEACHING STEPS

코멘트. 두 시점의 감정·행동을 각각 3개의 단어로 정리.

Step 2 · Find the turning point.

코멘트. 전환점 페이지 표시 (개구리 연못 장면).

Step 3 · Connect to self.

강사: "Have you ever felt small and then done something that made you feel bigger inside? Write one sentence."

코멘트. 자기 연결 — '작게 느꼈는데 행동으로 커진' 경험 한 문장.

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "Why was Cloudette feeling blue at first?"
  처음에 왜 마음이 가라앉았을까?
- "Did she change because of the storm — or because of what she did?"
  폭풍 때문에 바뀐 걸까, 행동 때문에 바뀐 걸까?
- "What 'big thing' could YOU do that is right in front of you?"
  나에게 바로 앞에 있는 '큰일'은 무엇일까?

DIFFERENTIATION

STRUGGLING Provide 2 word banks (before: blue, small, waiting / after: tired, happy, impressed).

단어 은행 제공.

ADVANCED Write a one-page sequel: "Next week, Cloudette ..."

한 페이지 후속편 — 다음 주의 클라우디트.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "Cloudette grew bigger." Text says she stayed small — the size did NOT change.

크기는 그대로. 바뀐 것은 마음과 행동.

PITFALL "The higher-ups taught her." They were IMPRESSED — they did not teach her.

'higher-ups'은 가르친 것이 아니라 감탄한 것.

LEARNER PROFILE LINK

RISK-TAKERS Cloudette tried something hard even though she was small.

작아도 도전하는 자세가 Risk-takers.

KOREAN BRIDGE

표현 "I can do something big, even if I am small." → "작아도 큰일을 할 수 있어."

자기 효능감 한 줄. 학생이 일기에 그대로 사용 가능.

Q3 Responsibility DOK 3

In "Get Ready for Weather," name four storms Lucy Jones describes — and one safety tip for each.

MODEL ANSWER

(1) Thunderstorm — heavy rain, lightning, strong winds. Safety: go inside; stay away from windows. (2) Blizzard — winter storm with heavy snow and strong winds, hard to see. Safety: stay home; layer clothes; have supplies ready. (3) Sandstorm — strong winds pick up sand. Safety: being outside is unsafe; cover face if you must be out. (4) Hurricane (mentioned in Wild Weather too) — strong winds rotating around an "eye." Safety: follow meteorologists' warnings; move to a safe building. Hardest: the hurricane — because you must prepare days ahead and travel may be difficult.

KEYWORDS (3)

4 storms named | 1 safety tip each | warnings + supplies

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): 4 storms + 4 safety tips + hardest justified.
- Partial (2): 4 storms + tips, no hardest reflection.
- Minimal (1): fewer than 3 storms, or storms without tips.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Skim and circle.

강사: "Skim pp.206–217. Circle each storm name. Underline one safety word for each."

코멘트. 스토리별로 storm 이름 동그라미 + safety 단어 밑줄.

Step 2 · Web with four branches.

강사: "Center: 'Stay Safe in...' Four branches: storm + tip on each."

코멘트. 중앙 'Stay Safe in...' + 4가지 가지로 시각화.

Step 3 · Personal plan.

강사: "Make a 5-item 'home storm kit' list. What would your family pack?"

코멘트. 우리 집 폭풍 키트 5종 목록 작성.

- "Which storm scares you the most? Why?"
  가장 무섭게 느껴지는 폭풍은? 왜?
- "Why does the author tell us about FOUR storms instead of one?"
  작가는 왜 4가지 폭풍을 다 보여줄까?
- "Who has the responsibility to prepare for storms — kids, parents, or both?"
  폭풍 대비는 누구의 책임일까? — 자녀, 부모, 둘 다?

DIFFERENTIATION

STRUGGLING Provide a fill-in-the-blank chart with storm names already listed.

폭풍 이름이 미리 적힌 차트 제공.

ADVANCED Add a 5th storm not in this book (typhoon, heat wave, etc.) and write a tip.

책에 없는 5번째 폭풍 추가 + 대비 팁.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "A blizzard and a snowstorm are the same." A blizzard is a snowstorm with strong winds AND poor visibility.

눈보라(blizzard)는 강풍과 시야 제한이 함께 있는 경우.

PITFALL "Sandstorms are safe if you stay still." Text says being outside is unsafe — sand can hurt eyes and lungs.

모래폭풍에서 가만히 있어도 안전하지 않음 — 외출 자체가 위험.

LEARNER PROFILE LINK

PRINCIPLED Following safety guidance shows responsibility for self and others.

안전 수칙을 따르는 자세가 Principled.

KOREAN BRIDGE

표현 "Get ready, just in case." → "혹시 모르니 미리 준비하자."

가족에게 쓰는 평범한 한국어 한 줄.

Q4 Connection DOK 3

In "Whatever the Weather," compare TWO poems through what the poet sees, hears, and feels.

MODEL ANSWER

Poem 1 · "Weather" by Eve Merriam. See: the rain falling outside. Hear: sound words like splatter, rumble, and "puddle splosh" copy the sound of rain. Feel: excitement that a storm is coming. Poem 2 · "Covers" by Nikki Giovanni. See: clouds, the night sky, blankets on a bed. Hear: the word "covers" repeated three ways. Feel: safe and snug. What is the same: Both poets pick ONE small word ("rumble" / "covers") and use it carefully so the reader can feel the weather. Poetry helps us notice what we usually walk past.

KEYWORDS (3)

see + hear + feel | sound words / repetition | notice the small word

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): both poems have see/hear/feel + one shared craft element named.
- Partial (2): both poems described, shared element not clear.
- Minimal (1): only one poem; or "I liked them" without evidence.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Three-column chart.

강사: "For each poem: column SEE, column HEAR, column FEEL. Fill in two words each."

코멘트. 시별 see/hear/feel 3열 차트, 각 열에 2단어.

Step 2 · Hunt the small word.

강사: "In each poem, which ONE word does the poet use cleverly? Circle it."

코멘트. 시인이 가장 영리하게 쓴 단 한 단어 동그라미.

Step 3 · Try it.

강사: "Write your own two lines about today's weather, using ONE sound word."

코멘트. 오늘 날씨로 두 줄 짓기 — 의성어 1개 필수 포함.

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "What does 'rumble' make your body feel?"
  'rumble'을 들으면 몸으로 어떤 느낌이 들어?
- "Why does Nikki Giovanni use 'covers' three times?"
  'covers'를 세 번 반복한 이유는?
- "Can you make weather come alive with ONE word too?"
  너도 한 단어로 날씨를 살아나게 할 수 있을까?

DIFFERENTIATION

STRUGGLING Provide pre-drawn 3-column chart with poem titles already at top.

시 제목이 적힌 3열 차트 제공.

ADVANCED Find a Korean poem about weather. Compare with one Eve Merriam line.

한국 날씨 시 하나 찾아 영어 시와 비교.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "Poems have to rhyme." These poems use sound and repetition more than rhyme.

시가 꼭 운(rhyme)을 맞춰야 하는 건 아님. 소리·반복이 더 중요.

PITFALL "There is no information in a poem." Poems give information about feelings and senses.

시는 감정·감각이라는 정보를 전달함.

LEARNER PROFILE LINK

COMMUNICATORS Poets choose the smallest, sharpest words to communicate big feelings.

시인은 가장 작은 단어로 가장 큰 감정을 전달함 — Communicators.

KOREAN BRIDGE

표현 "Listen — can you hear it?" → "들어봐, 들리지?"

시 낭독 직전에 쓰는 따뜻한 한 줄.

Q5 Reflection DOK 4

Essential Question: How does weather affect us? Use ideas from TWO of the texts in this module.

MODEL ANSWER

Weather affects us in many ways. In "Wild Weather," a tornado or hurricane can be dangerous — strong winds, hail, even damage to buildings. But meteorologists study patterns and predict storms, so people get warnings in time. In "Cloudette," weather is also a way to HELP — one small cloud rained on a dried-up pond and saved the frog. Weather is not always scary or always kind. It can hurt; it can heal; it can change a plan. My Big Idea: Weather affects what we DO and how we FEEL. The wise thing is to watch it, get ready, and notice when it can also be a gift.

KEYWORDS (3)

predict + prepare | danger AND gift | watch + get ready + notice

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (4): two texts named + how each shows weather's effect + personal Big Idea.
- Partial (3): two texts + effect, Big Idea weak.
- Developing (2): one text only.
- Minimal (1): generic answer with no text evidence.

Approaching (2)	Names 2 texts but only 1 clear effect; Big Idea is weak.
Beginning (1)	Generic ("weather is fun / bad") without text evidence.

Watch out: Many students will say only "weather is scary." Push them to find the GIFT side too — Cloudette's rain saves the frog; the rain in Passage 1 still gives Mina a fun day in the gym.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Both-and thinking.

강사: "Weather can be scary AND helpful at the same time. Find one of each from the module."

코멘트. '무섭다 AND 도와준다' 양면 사고 — 모듈에서 각각 한 사례씩 찾기.

Step 2 · Personal connection.

강사: "Tell the story of one day weather changed your plan."

코멘트. 날씨 때문에 계획이 바뀐 하루 이야기 — 짧게 발표.

Step 3 · Write the Big Idea.

강사: "In one sentence — how does weather affect us?"

코멘트. 한 문장으로 EQ에 답하기.

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "Did weather ever surprise you in a GOOD way?"
  날씨가 좋은 의미로 너를 놀라게 한 적 있어?
- "What is one weather word you will remember from this module?"
  이번 모듈에서 가장 기억에 남는 날씨 단어 하나?
- "What can your family do this week to 'get ready' for weather?"
  이번 주 가족이 할 수 있는 '날씨 대비' 한 가지?

DIFFERENTIATION

올해 한국 실제 기상 사건과 모듈 내용 비교.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "Weather is always bad." Text shows weather can also HELP (Cloudette's rain saves the frog; Mina still has fun in the gym).

'날씨는 늘 나쁘다'는 오답. 도움이 되는 측면도 함께 있어야 함.

PITFALL "Only meteorologists need to think about weather." Everyone — farmers, families, kids — is affected.

기상학자만의 문제가 아님. 모두에게 영향을 미침.

LEARNER PROFILE LINK

THINKERS Holding "danger AND gift" together — that's true critical thinking.
