Module Overview

Essential Question: How do your experiences help shape your identity?
Quote: "Experience is the teacher of all things." — Julius Caesar
Big Idea Words (4): identity, wisdom, experience, pursuit
Main Selections (workbook 4):

- Flora & Ulysses: The Illuminated Adventures · Kate DiCamillo (illus. K.G. Campbell) · Fantasy
- Yes! We Are Latinos · Alma Flor Ada and F. Isabel Campoy (illus. Laura Pérez) · Narrative Poetry
- The Year of the Rat · Grace Lin (illus. Qu Lan) · Realistic Fiction
- Kitoto the Mighty · Tololwa M. Mollel (illus. Kristi Frost) · Folktale

Note. The SoT lists 30 core vocabulary items on Worksheet A (4 Big Idea + 10 Flora & Ulysses + 2 Yes! We Are Latinos + 5 The Year of the Rat + 9 Kitoto the Mighty), in myBook appearance order. This G4 Teacher's Guide labels each selection's panel "Critical Vocabulary" — the string "Power Words" does not appear in the source. The teacher "Words for Using Context Clues" strategy boxes are NOT counted as core vocabulary. "The Story of You" is the Big-Idea Short Read (Informational Text, no Critical Vocabulary panel) and carries the 4 Big Idea Words; it is excluded from the per-selection workbook units. Module 1 has NO video/media selection — the only video is the "Get Curious" intro video "Life."

Answer Distribution (82 Multiple-Choice Items)

Verified counts across Worksheets A (30), B (32), and D (20). Worksheet C is open-response IB and not counted in MCQ balance.

A · 21 · B · 21 · C · 20 · D · 20

These four totals are the count of correct-answer LETTERS (A/B/C/D) across all 82 multiple-choice items — 21 answers are "A", 21 are "B", 20 are "C", 20 are "D" (as even as 82 allows). Balance enforced via choice-order rotation only; correct-answer meanings and option texts are preserved from the Source of Truth. All 30 SoT vocabulary words covered on Worksheet A in myBook appearance order (Big Idea → Flora & Ulysses → Yes! We Are Latinos → The Year of the Rat → Kitoto the Mighty).

Voca Trap Items (Worksheet A)

9 of 30 = 30%, all flagged below. Trap pattern: polysemy / sound-alike / opposite-meaning baits drawn from the natural meaning field of each word — no hallucination.

- Q5 cynic — sense bait ("tells funny jokes," "reads only true stories") vs. "always expects bad things to happen"
- Q7 profound — sound/sense bait ("spoken in a very loud voice") vs. "deep and full of meaning"
- Q9 consumed — near-sense bait ("bought it at a store") vs. "ate or drank it"
- Q12 mundane — sound-alike bait ("wet and slippery," echoing 'mud-') vs. "ordinary and often dull"
- Q14 disdain — sense bait ("feel afraid of the person") vs. "think the person is not worth respect"
- Q19 relying — opposite/near bait ("hiding away," "competing against") vs. "trusting or depending on"
- Q20 clumsy — opposite-meaning bait ("graceful, skillful") vs. "awkward, careless"
- Q29 sumptuous — opposite-meaning bait ("empty and plain") vs. "impressive and expensive-looking"
- Q30 hoard — sound-alike bait ("a large crowd of noisy people," echoing 'horde') vs. "a group of valuable things kept secret and guarded"

Reading Trap Items (Worksheet B)

4 of 32 ≈ 13%, all flagged below. Trap pattern for Section B: THEME/MAIN-idea bait (a true detail mistaken for the theme) and length-balanced correct answers so a longest-option-wins guess fails. Distractors built from SoT only — no hallucination. All four anchor selections are LITERARY (RL), so codes are RL.4.1 / .2 / .3 / .5 / .6 only. RI.4.4, RI.4.7, and RL.4.7 are NOT used, and there are no "from the text" snippet boxes.

- Q8 Flora & Ulysses theme — "signed a contract," "vacuum for her birthday," "reads about Incandesto" are true details, baited against the real theme: an unexpected experience can change even a cynic and call out courage and care

- Q16 Yes! We Are Latinos theme — "Miguel's Tacos opened near school," "decided to learn Chinese and Japanese," "asked Mr. Tate about Cervantes" bait vs. your heritage and your name are a proud part of who you are
- Q24 The Year of the Rat theme — "Melody moved," "born in the Year of the Tiger," "Dun-Wei moved in" bait vs. only you can decide who you are and be brave enough to change what you dislike
- Q32 Kitoto theme — "a hawk circled," "the wind swung Kitoto," "Kigego built tunnels" bait vs. size does not decide power; the smallest creature can be mighty through hard work and courage

How the Four Worksheets Build Toward the EQ

This module asks "How do your experiences help shape your identity?" Each worksheet adds one layer of the answer, so the teacher can move from word knowledge to deep thinking in order:

- A · Vocabulary — students first own the four Big Idea Words of identity (identity, wisdom, experience, pursuit) and the words each selection uses (cynic, defiance, profound, inadvertently, consumed, descended, obliged, mundane, considered, disdain, heritage, ancient, resolutions, doubts, relying, clumsy, awkward, cautiously, trickle, marveled, mighty, distant, proclaimed, majestic, sumptuous, hoard). Without these words, students cannot discuss how the characters change.
- B · Reading Comprehension — students gather evidence from all four selections: a fantasy hybrid (Flora & Ulysses), two narrative poems about heritage and names (Yes! We Are Latinos), a realistic-fiction identity story (The Year of the Rat), and an African folktale (Kitoto the Mighty). Theme and point-of-view items prepare the thinking that Section C needs. All four are RL literary texts.
- C · IB Critical Thinking — students synthesize: they trace how one experience CHANGES the squirrel and Flora, how heritage shapes the three Yes! We Are Latinos speakers, how Pacy REFLECTS her way to a new identity, how Kitoto and Pacy both find real strength, and finally answer the EQ with two selections. The C activities grow straight out of the B evidence.
- D · MAP Practice — four NEW passages let students apply the same idea to characters they have not studied here (a shy soccer player, a girl learning patience in a garden, a boy finding his own drumbeat, a "winner" reshaped by losing), so the EQ becomes a transferable lens about how experience shapes identity, not a single-text answer.

Teaching tip. If time is short, the EQ can be reached with Section A (words) + Section C Q5 (synthesis) alone — but Section B supplies the evidence that makes Q5 specific rather than generic.

How Every Item Is Grounded

Every item on this Answer Key traces to the Source-of-Truth JSON for G4 Module 1, built from the Teaching Pal OCR (4,509 lines, 44 spread-pages) and verified against the PDF intro spreads (every Critical Vocabulary panel was read from a high-resolution crop). The V1 selection Yes! We Are Latinos is grounded in the V1 Teaching Pal pp.44–57 (cited as V1 TP p.#). No characters, words, or events outside the sources were added.

- Vocabulary (Worksheet A): all 30 words come from the module's Big Idea Words (4: identity, wisdom, experience, pursuit) and the four "Critical Vocabulary" panels — Flora & Ulysses 10, Yes! We Are Latinos 2, The Year of the Rat 5, Kitoto the Mighty 9. Each meaning is checked against the myBook inline footnote definition. The teacher "Words for Using Context Clues" strategy boxes (contract, malfeasance, profession, wishful, swift, startled) are deliberately NOT counted as core vocabulary.
- Terminology: this G4 Teacher's Guide labels each panel "Critical Vocabulary," not "Power Words" — the workbook uses that exact label, matching the source.
- Reading (Worksheet B): the 32 items use RL.4 codes only (RL.4.1 / .2 / .3 / .5 / .6), because all four anchor selections are literary (Fantasy, Narrative Poetry, Realistic Fiction, Folktale). Each correct answer is grounded in the Source of Truth; distractors are SoT-anchored, never invented. RI.4.4, RI.4.7, and RL.4.7 are not used, and there are no "from the text" snippet boxes.
- Genre & credits: Flora & Ulysses = Fantasy (Kate DiCamillo, illus. K.G. Campbell); Yes! We Are Latinos = Narrative Poetry (Alma Flor Ada and F. Isabel Campoy, illus. Laura Pérez); The Year of the Rat = Realistic Fiction (Grace Lin, illus. Qu Lan); Kitoto the Mighty = Folktale (Tololwa M. Mollel, illus. Kristi Frost). Each selection has a DIFFERENT author/illustrator pair.
- IB (Worksheet C): the PYP concepts — Causation, Responsibility, Reflection, Perspective, Reflection/Identity — follow the Source-of-Truth identity focus of this module. The Essential Question text on Q5 matches the workbook word for word.
- MAP (Worksheet D): four NEW passages (170 / 177 / 183 / 186 words), RIT 200→220, Lexile 500L–800L. None recall the four anchor selections; each applies the EQ to a fresh character discovering who they are.
- Answer balance: 82 multiple-choice items distribute as 21 "A" / 21 "B" / 20 "C" / 20 "D" (as even as 82 allows), achieved by choice-order rotation only — every meaning is preserved from the Source of Truth.

MAP Mini-Passage Word Counts (Worksheet D)

- Passage 1 · The New Boy's First Goal · 170 words · Lexile 500–560L · RIT 200–206
- Passage 2 · Maria's Garden · 177 words · Lexile 560–620L · RIT 206–211
- Passage 3 · The Drum That Found Its Beat · 183 words · Lexile 620–700L · RIT 211–216
- Passage 4 · Sam and the Science Fair · 186 words · Lexile 700–800L · RIT 216–220

Word counts match the workbook passage meta exactly. All four within target band 150–220 words; RIT 200→220; Lexile 500L–800L. Passages are NEW — no recall of the four anchor selections.

What This Module Does NOT Contain (Guardrails)

- No "Power Words" label — the G4 source says "Critical Vocabulary."
- No Worksheet E — the V3 workflow uses four worksheets (A · B · C · D).
- The module quote IS by a NAMED person, Julius Caesar, and is the EPIGRAPH only — he is NOT a story author.
- "The Story of You" is the Big-Idea Short Read (an Informational 2nd-person text, no Critical Vocabulary panel) and is excluded from the per-selection units; it carries the 4 Big Idea Words instead. Its author is unverified — no byline in the source.

- Module 1 has NO video/media selection among its numbered selections. The only video is the module-opener "Get Curious" intro video "Life" — it is not a body selection.
- Yes! We Are Latinos has only 2 Critical Vocabulary words (heritage, ancient) — the small poetry panel is not padded. Counts are 10/2/5/9 = 26 Critical Vocabulary; Big Idea (4) + Critical (26) = 30 total.
- "The Year of the Rat" contains an embedded story-within-a-story, "Knowing the Fish," told by Dad — it is NOT a separate selection. Pacy was born in the Year of the TIGER; the title names the year the story takes place.
- Kitoto gives himself escalating titles (the Mighty / the Great / the Magnificent; Master / King / Emperor of the Savannah) but he is ONE mouse. "Kigego" is the separate mountain-mouse he meets at the end.
- Performance Task = "Write an Expository Essay." It is not a narrative or opinion essay.

Q32 RL.4.2 TRAP

A

Theme: SoT — size does not decide power; even the smallest creature can be mighty through hard work and courage (OCR lines 4072–4080, 4176–4179).
Trap: B/C/D are stray details, length-balanced so the longest option is not automatically the answer.

Worksheet C — IB Critical Thinking · Answer Key

5 questions · PYP Key Concepts · DOK 2–4

Q1 Causation DOK 3

In "Flora & Ulysses," show what the squirrel was like BEFORE, what HAPPENED to it, and what it became AFTER — then explain how the same experience begins to change Flora.

MODEL ANSWER

The Squirrel Before: The squirrel was an ordinary, mundane creature, doing the everyday things squirrels do in Mrs. Tickham's backyard. It had no special powers and was about to be run over by a runaway vacuum cleaner. What Happened: The Ulysses 2000X vacuum sucked the squirrel up. It was almost killed, but Flora rushed over and gave it CPR — she breathed into its mouth and pushed on its chest, and the squirrel obliged and breathed again. The Squirrel After: The squirrel came back changed. Its brain felt "larger, roomier," as if doors had been flung wide, and "everything was shot through with meaning, purpose, light." It gained surprising strength and understanding, and Flora named it Ulysses, after the vacuum. How Flora changes: Flora calls herself a "natural-born cynic" who always expects bad things to happen. Yet this experience pulls her out of her comic books and into real action — she chooses to save a small, helpless creature and to care for it. The unexpected event begins to soften her cynicism and shows that even she can hope and act with courage. This is causation: one strange experience causes a deep change in both the squirrel and the girl.

KEYWORDS (3)

before = ordinary, mundane squirrel

event = vacuum + Flora's CPR

after = extraordinary Ulysses; Flora softens

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): squirrel before + what happened + what it became after + how the event begins to change Flora.
- Partial (2): before and event named but no clear "after" change in Flora.
- Minimal (1): only "a squirrel got vacuumed up" with no before or after.

Q2 Responsibility DOK 3

In "Yes! We Are Latinos," trace THREE speakers: where their family comes from, what they say or do, and how they feel.

MODEL ANSWER

Speaker 1 · José Miguel: He is "Cuban and Nicaraguan" and lives in Tampa, Florida. Kids tease him about his name, and Mr. Tate says being called Joe or Mike "would let you blend in." José Miguel answers with "my tone soft, my words polite" and explains that he was named "after my grandfather, José Miguel Martínez." He will not be Joe or Mike: "Cubano, a mucha honra. Yes, very proud / to be Cuban." Speaker 2 · Lili: She is Guatemalan and Chinese and lives in Los Angeles. She gets tired of explaining that "it's also true I'm a Latina, / a Latin American, a Guatemalan." With her best friend, she chooses to learn her grandparents' language: "we both decided to learn / Chinese and Japanese." Speaker 3 · Michiko: She is Peruvian and Japanese, "a sansei," and Spanish is her first language. She likes "the pride I feel / being from Peru" and knows her grandparents' culture "is equally ancient and rich." She will keep studying languages so she can "always feel at home / and among friends." What the poems show: Each speaker takes responsibility for their own name, languages, and heritage instead of hiding them to blend in. Keeping and learning about your heritage helps you know who you are, and it helps you understand other people too.

KEYWORDS (3)

José Miguel = keeps his grandfather's name

Lili = Chinese and Latina, learns a heritage language

Michiko = proud of two ancient cultures

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): all three speakers (heritage + what they say or do) + how keeping your heritage shapes who you are.
- Partial (2): three speakers named but no idea about how heritage shapes a person.
- Minimal (1): only one speaker, or "the poems are about being Latino" with no detail.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Three speaker boxes.

강사: "For José Miguel, Lili, and Michiko, write where each family comes from. Use the box before each poem."

코멘트. 세 칸 — José Miguel · Lili · Michiko 각각 뿌리가 어디인지 적기(시 앞 소개 박스 활용).

코멘트. 말하는 사람의 마음을 보여 주는 단어에 밑줄(예: 'very proud').

Step 3 · Who you become.

강사: "Finish: 'Keeping my name and heritage helps shape me into ____.'"

코멘트. 문장 완성 — '내 이름과 뿌리를 지키는 것은 나를 ____한 사람으로 만든다.'

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "Why does José Miguel say he will not be Joe or Mike?"
  José Miguel은 왜 Joe나 Mike가 되지 않겠다고 할까?
- "Why do Lili and Michiko decide to learn Chinese and Japanese?"

Q3 Reflection DOK 3

In "The Year of the Rat," show Pacy's doubt at the START, what Dad teaches her, and how she changes by the END — and why deciding for yourself matters.

MODEL ANSWER

Pacy at the Start: Pacy dreams of becoming an author and illustrator, but she is full of doubts. She wonders whether this is "just a wishful dream, or... something I could make happen." She is unsure of who she is and afraid she is not brave or talented enough to chase her dream. What Dad teaches her: When Pacy asks if anyone can tell her what she should be, Dad answers, "No, no one can tell you. Only you can decide, because only you know who you are." He also tells her the story "Knowing the Fish," which shows that only you can truly know what is inside you. He reminds her she was born in the year of the tiger, so she can be brave. Pacy by the End: Pacy reflects on Dad's words and decides she does not need "tiger luck" — she IS a tiger. She finds the courage to stand up for Dun-Wei when others tease him, and "deep inside" she hears "a tiger roar." She trusts that she can decide her own future and shape her own identity. Why deciding for yourself matters: Your identity is who you are, and no one else can live your life or feel your feelings. When you decide for yourself, your choices truly belong to you, and that is how you grow into the person you want to become.

KEYWORDS (3)

start = doubts about her dream

Dad = only you can decide who you are end = brave like a tiger, decides for herself

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): Pacy's doubt + Dad's lesson + how she changes + why deciding for yourself matters.
- Partial (2): start and end named but no clear reason why deciding for yourself matters.
- Minimal (1): only "Pacy becomes brave" with no doubt or lesson.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Start and end.

강사: "Make two columns: Pacy at the start / Pacy at the end. How does she feel in each?"

코멘트. 두 칸 — 시작의 Pacy / 끝의 Pacy. 각자 어떤 기분인지.

Step 2 · Dad's words.

강사: "Circle the sentence where Dad says only she can decide who she is."

코멘트. 아빠가 '오직 너만 결정할 수 있다'고 말한 문장에 동그라미.

Step 3 · Why it matters.

강사: "Finish: 'It matters to decide for yourself because ____.'"

코멘트. 문장 완성 — '스스로 결정하는 게 중요한 이유는 ____이기 때문이다.'

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "Why can't anyone else tell Pacy who she is?"
  왜 다른 누구도 Pacy가 누구인지 말해 줄 수 없을까?
- "How does the story 'Knowing the Fish' help Pacy?"
  'Knowing the Fish' 이야기는 Pacy에게 어떤 도움이 되니?

Q4 Perspective DOK 3

Compare HOW "Kitoto the Mighty" and "The Year of the Rat" each show a small or unsure character discovering real strength.

MODEL ANSWER

Kitoto · the tiny mouse: Kitoto is a small, weak mouse who is almost caught by a hawk. He believes he needs to find the "most powerful being" to protect him, and he asks the river, the sun, the wind, and the mountain. Each points him onward, until he learns that the most powerful being is Kigego, another mountain mouse who carved a whole mountain "with nothing more than my teeth and a lot of hard work." Kitoto discovers that real power does not come from being big — it comes from effort and courage, and that he was mighty all along. Pacy · the unsure girl: Pacy is full of doubts about whether she can become an author and illustrator. Her father tells her that only she can decide who she is, and reminds her she can be brave like a tiger. By the end she realizes she does not need "tiger luck" — she IS a tiger. She finds the courage to stand up for Dun-Wei and to chase her own dream. What both stories show: Both a tiny mouse and an unsure girl learn the same truth from a new perspective: real strength does not come from size, luck, or someone else's power. It comes from hard work, courage, and believing in who you are.

KEYWORDS (3)

Kitoto = small mouse, power = hard work

Pacy = unsure girl, brave like a tiger

both: strength is not size or luck

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): how EACH character finds strength (Kitoto / Pacy) + the shared truth that strength is not size or luck.
- Partial (2): both described but only one lesson named.
- Minimal (1): only "both are small" with no comparison of strength.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · T-chart.

강사: "Make a T-chart: Kitoto / Pacy. Where does each one find real strength?"

코멘트. T-차트 — Kitoto / Pacy. 각자 진짜 힘을 어디서 찾니?

Step 2 · The turning point.

강사: "Circle the moment each character realizes the truth about power."

코멘트. 각 인물이 힘에 대한 진실을 깨닫는 순간에 동그라미.

Step 3 · Both-stories sentence.

강사: "Finish: 'Both stories show that real strength comes from ____.'"

코멘트. 문장 완성 — '두 이야기 모두 진짜 힘은 ____에서 온다고 보여 준다.'

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "Why does Kitoto think he needs a powerful protector at first?"
  Kitoto는 처음에 왜 강한 보호자가 필요하다고 생각할까?
- "How is Pacy's 'tiger' like Kigego's hard work?"
  Pacy의 '호랑이'는 Kigego의 노력과 어떻게 닮았니?

- "When did YOU find strength you did not know you had?"
  네가 몰랐던 힘을 발견한 적은 언제니?

DIFFERENTIATION

STRUGGLING Match 2 cards ("hard work" / "be brave") to Kitoto and Pacy.

카드 2장 — '노력'과 '용기'를 Kitoto와 Pacy에 매칭.

ADVANCED Add Flora as a third small/unsure character and how she finds courage.

Flora를 세 번째 작거나 확신 없는 인물로 추가하고 용기를 찾는 과정 적기.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "Kitoto becomes a real king." His grand titles are pretend; he is one small mouse the whole time.

Kitoto가 진짜 왕이 된 게 아님 — 거창한 칭호는 허세일 뿐, 끝까지 작은 쥐 한 마리.

PITFALL "Pacy needs luck to be brave." She learns she does not need luck — she already has the courage inside.

Pacy가 용기를 위해 운이 필요한 게 아님 — 이미 안에 용기가 있음을 깨달음.

LEARNER PROFILE LINK

OPEN-MINDED Seeing two very different characters learn the same truth is open-minded thinking.

아주 다른 두 인물이 같은 진실을 배움을 봄 — Open-minded.

RISK-TAKERS Both characters act bravely despite being small or unsure.

작거나 확신이 없어도 용감히 행동 — Risk-taker.

KOREAN BRIDGE

표현 "Real strength comes from hard work and courage, not size." → "진짜 힘은 크기가 아니라 노력과 용기에서 온다."

관점(Perspective) 핵심 문장.

단어 "mighty / 강한 — strength / 힘 — courage / 용기 — perspective / 관점"

핵심 단어 영-한.

Q5 Reflection / Identity DOK 4

Essential Question: How do your experiences help shape your identity? Use ideas from TWO of the selections in this module to answer.

MODEL ANSWER

Our experiences shape our identity because what we live through and the choices we make become part of who we are. In "The Year of the Rat," Pacy is full of doubts about whether she can become an author and illustrator. Through her experiences — her father's words, the story "Knowing the Fish," and standing up for Dun-Wei — she learns that only she can decide who she is. By the end she feels brave "like a tiger" and trusts herself. That experience reshapes her identity from an unsure girl into a braver, more confident one. In "Kitoto the Mighty," a tiny mouse searches the whole Savannah for a powerful protector. The experience of meeting Kigego, who carved a mountain with hard work, teaches Kitoto that he was mighty all along. His journey changes how he sees himself. My Big Idea: Experiences — even hard or surprising ones — teach us who we are and who we can become. As Julius Caesar said, "Experience is the teacher of all things." Each new experience, like Pacy's doubts or Kitoto's journey, adds to our wisdom and helps shape the unique person each of us is becoming.

KEYWORDS (3)

Year of the Rat = doubt becomes courage

Kitoto = journey reveals his own strength

Big Idea: experience teaches who we are

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (4): two selections named + what experience each character has + how it shapes their identity + a Big Idea answering the EQ.
- Partial (3): two selections + experiences + Big Idea weak.
- Developing (2): one selection only.
- Minimal (1): generic ("experiences are important") without naming a selection.

SYNTHESIS FRAME

SELECTION 1 IDEA

Name the experience and the change: Flora & Ulysses = saving the squirrel softens a cynic; The Year of the Rat = doubt becomes courage; Yes! We Are Latinos = keeping your name and heritage shapes who you are; Kitoto = a journey reveals hidden strength.

CONNECTING WORD

BOTH / AND — joins two characters' experiences (Pacy AND Kitoto, or Flora AND José Miguel) into one Big Idea about how experience shapes identity.

SELECTION 2 IDEA

An experience from a DIFFERENT selection than Selection 1 — so the two show two ways experience shapes who you are.

REAL-WORLD CONNECTION

KOREA 우리도 경험으로 자란다 — 처음 자전거를 타다 넘어지고 다시 일어선 날, 친구를 위해 용기 내어 나선 순간이 '나'를 만든다. 어려운 경험일수록 더 큰 지혜와 정체성을 남긴다.

나를 바꾼 '경험' 하나를 떠올려 정체성과 연결하기.

PERSONAL What experience changed how you see yourself? How did it help shape who you are?

너 자신을 보는 눈을 바꾼 경험은 무엇이고, 그것이 너를 어떻게 빚었니?

RUBRIC

LEVEL	WHAT IT LOOKS LIKE
Exceeding (4)	Names 2 selections + each character's experience + how it shapes their identity + a Big Idea answering the EQ.
Meeting (3)	Names 2 selections + an experience for each + a Big Idea.
Approaching (2)	Names 2 selections but only retells the plot — no link to identity.
Beginning (1)	Generic ("experiences matter") without text evidence.

Watch out: Many G4 students will just retell what happened (Pacy got brave; Kitoto met another mouse) and stop. Push them to connect the EXPERIENCE to the character's IDENTITY — how the experience changed who the character is — and to write a Big Idea. The full EQ asks HOW experiences SHAPE identity, not just what happens in the story.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Two selection cards.

강사: "Pick 2 selections. For each, name one experience a character has."

코멘트. 선택지 둘 — 각자 인물이 겪는 경험 하나씩 적기.

Step 2 · The change.

강사: "Under each, write how that experience changed who the character is."

코멘트. 각각 아래 — 그 경험이 인물을 어떻게 바꿨는지.

Step 3 · Big Idea sentence.

강사: "Write one sentence answering the EQ. Use both selections."

코멘트. EQ에 답하는 한 문장 — 두 선택지 모두 사용.

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "What experience changed the character the most?"
  인물을 가장 많이 바꾼 경험은 무엇이니?
- "Which character in this module is most like YOU?"
  이 모듈의 인물 중 너와 가장 닮은 사람은?
- "Why can a hard experience teach us more than an easy one?"
  어려운 경험이 쉬운 경험보다 더 많이 가르치는 이유는?

DIFFERENTIATION

STRUGGLING Sentence frame: "In ____, ____ has the experience of ____. It changes ____ because ____. Experiences shape who we are because ____."

3단 문장 골격.

ADVANCED Use THREE selections and sort the experiences by the kind of change they cause (courage / kindness / self-knowledge).

선택지 셋 사용 — 경험이 일으키는 변화별 분류(용기·친절·자기이해).

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "Only big events shape who you are." Small experiences — a kind act, a parent's words — shape identity too.

큰 사건만 정체성을 빚는 게 아님 — 작은 친절, 부모의 한마디도 정체성을 만듦.

PITFALL "Retelling the plot answers the EQ." The EQ asks HOW experience shapes identity, not just what happens.

줄거리 요약은 EQ 답이 아님 — '경험이 정체성을 어떻게 빚는지'를 물음.

LEARNER PROFILE LINK

REFLECTIVE Connecting two characters' experiences to identity is reflective thinking.

두 인물의 경험을 정체성과 연결 — Reflective.

THINKERS Building one Big Idea from two selections is the heart of critical thinking.

두 선택지로 하나의 Big Idea를 세움 — Thinker.

KOREAN BRIDGE

표현 "Our experiences shape who we are." → "우리의 경험이 우리가 누구인지를 빚는다."
