Module Overview

Essential Question: What does it take to meet a challenge?
Quote: "When we least expect it, life sets us a challenge to test our courage and willingness to change." — Paulo Coelho
Big Idea Words (4): endurance, confront, dauntless, dedication
Main Selections (workbook 4):

- Rent Party Jazz · William Miller (illus. Charlotte Riley-Webb) · Historical Fiction
- The Galveston Hurricane of 1900 · Narrative Nonfiction with a Personal Narrative (survivor Milton Elford's letter) · no author credit printed
- Catch Me If You Can · Carol Schaffner (illus. Tim Mack) · Play / Drama ("The Story of Atalanta")
- My Diary from Here to There · Amada Irma Pérez (illus. Maya Christina Gonzalez) · Autobiographical Fiction

Note. The SoT lists 23 core vocabulary items on Worksheet A (4 Big Idea + 7 Rent Party Jazz + 3 The Galveston Hurricane of 1900 + 4 Catch Me If You Can + 5 My Diary from Here to There), in myBook appearance order. This G4 Teacher's Guide labels each selection's panel "Critical Vocabulary" — the string "Power Words" does not appear in the source. The teacher "Words for Using Context Clues" / "Multiple-Meaning Words" / "Words for Using Synonyms and Antonyms" strategy boxes (mean, plain, park, rock, direction, bright/clever, welcome/farewell) are NOT counted as core vocabulary. "Never Give Up!" is the Argumentative Big-Idea Short Read (no Critical Vocabulary panel) and carries the 4 Big Idea Words; it is excluded from the per-selection workbook units. Module 3 has NO standalone Media/Video reading selection.

Answer Distribution (75 Multiple-Choice Items)

Verified counts across Worksheets A (23), B (32), and D (20). Worksheet C is open-response IB and not counted in MCQ balance.

A · 19 · B · 19 · C · 19 · D · 18

These four totals are the count of correct-answer LETTERS (A/B/C/D) across all 75 multiple-choice items — 19 answers are "A", 19 are "B", 19 are "C", 18 are "D" (as even as 75 allows). Balance enforced via choice-order rotation only; correct-answer meanings and option texts are preserved from the Source of Truth. All 23 SoT vocabulary words covered on Worksheet A in myBook appearance order (Big Idea → Rent Party Jazz → The Galveston Hurricane of 1900 → Catch Me If You Can → My Diary from Here to There).

Voca Trap Items (Worksheet A)

7 of 23 ≈ 30%, all flagged below. Trap pattern: polysemy / opposite-meaning / wrong-field baits drawn from the natural meaning field of each word — no hallucination.

- Q2 confront — opposite bait ("run away," "pretend it is not there," "hand it to someone else") vs. "face it and deal with it"
- Q5 auction — meaning-field bait ("given away for free," "traded for an equal item") vs. "sold to the person who offers the most money"
- Q7 damp — opposite bait ("completely dry and dusty," "warm and cozy") vs. "a little wet"
- Q8 spare — polysemy/opposite bait ("the only one you own," "borrowed," "lost") vs. "extra, so you do not really need it"
- Q16 capable — opposite bait ("needs others to do everything," "refuses to try") vs. "has the skill or ability to do something"
- Q18 disbelief — opposite bait ("completely sure it is true," "already expected it") vs. "cannot believe that something is true"
- Q19 burst — literal/figurative bait ("pop like a balloon") vs. the figurative "so much emotion that it is hard to hold it in"

Reading Trap Items (Worksheet B)

4 of 32 ≈ 13%, all flagged below. Trap pattern for Section B: THEME/MAIN-idea bait (a true detail mistaken for the central idea) and length-balanced correct answers so a longest-option-wins guess fails. Distractors built from SoT only — no hallucination. Three anchor selections are LITERARY (RL: Rent Party Jazz, Catch Me If You Can, My Diary from Here to There); one is NONFICTION (RI: The Galveston Hurricane of 1900). Codes used are RL.4.1 / .2 / .3 / .5 / .6 and RI.4.1 / .2 / .3 / .5 / .6 / .8. RI.4.4, RI.4.7, and RL.4.7 are NOT used, and there are no "from the text" snippet boxes. Catch Me If You Can is a play, so RL.4.5 (drama structure) is used for its cast/dialogue feature.

- Q8 Rent Party Jazz theme — "Sonny works for the coal man," "Smilin' Jack is from Mississippi," "Mama worked at a fish factory" are true details, baited against the real theme: a community working together overcomes hard times, and helping others is its own reward
- Q16 Galveston main idea — "winds grew to 135 miles per hour," "Milton hid in a tool chest," "buildings were raised 17 feet" are true details, baited against the main idea: the 1900 hurricane was a terrible disaster for Galveston, but the city slowly rebuilt
- Q24 Catch Me If You Can theme — "Atalanta runs fast," "the race is long ago," "Young John trained hard" bait vs. a person should be free to make their own choices, and respect beats being treated as a prize
- Q32 My Diary theme — "Amada has five brothers," "they stop in Mexicali," "Papa was born in Arizona" bait vs. with family's love and a record of one's memories, a person finds strength to face a hard change

How Every Item Is Grounded

Every item on this Answer Key traces to the Source-of-Truth JSON for G4 Module 3, built from the Teaching Pal OCR (4,091 lines, 36 spread-pages) and verified against the PDF intro spreads (every Critical Vocabulary panel was read from a high-resolution crop). The V1 selection The Galveston Hurricane of 1900 is grounded in the V1 Teaching Pal pp.190–199 (cited as V1 TP p.#). No characters, words, or events outside the sources were added.

- Vocabulary (Worksheet A): all 23 words come from the module's Big Idea Words (4: endurance, confront, dauntless, dedication) and the four "Critical Vocabulary" panels — Rent Party Jazz 7, The Galveston Hurricane of 1900 3, Catch Me If You Can 4, My Diary from Here to There 5. Each meaning is checked against the myBook inline footnote definition. The teacher "Words for Using Context Clues" / "Multiple-Meaning Words" / "Synonyms and Antonyms" strategy boxes (mean, plain, park, rock, direction, bright/clever, welcome/farewell) are deliberately NOT counted as core vocabulary.
- Terminology: this G4 Teacher's Guide labels each panel "Critical Vocabulary," not "Power Words" — the workbook uses that exact label, matching the source.
- Reading (Worksheet B): the 32 items use RL.4 codes for the three literary anchors (Rent Party Jazz, Catch Me If You Can, My Diary from Here to There) and RI.4 codes for the one nonfiction anchor (The Galveston Hurricane of 1900). Each correct answer is grounded in the Source of Truth; distractors are SoT-anchored, never invented. RI.4.4, RI.4.7, and RL.4.7 are not used, and there are no "from the text" snippet boxes.
- Genre & credits: Rent Party Jazz = Historical Fiction (William Miller, illus. Charlotte Riley-Webb); The Galveston Hurricane of 1900 = Narrative Nonfiction with a Personal Narrative (no author credit printed — Milton Elford is the survivor whose letter is quoted, not the author); Catch Me If You Can = Play (Carol Schaffner, illus. Tim Mack), subtitled "The Story of Atalanta"; My Diary from Here to There = Autobiographical Fiction (Amada Irma Pérez, illus. Maya Christina Gonzalez).
- IB (Worksheet C): the PYP concepts — Responsibility, Causation, Perspective, Connection, Perseverance — follow the Source-of-Truth challenge focus of this module. The Essential Question text on Q5 matches the workbook word for word. Korean teacher guidance appears in Section C only; Sections A, B, and D are in English.
- MAP (Worksheet D): four NEW passages (170 / 170 / 177 / 184 words), RIT 200→220, Lexile 500L–800L. None recall the four anchor selections; each applies the EQ to a fresh challenge someone rises to meet.
- Answer balance: 75 multiple-choice items distribute as 19 "A" / 19 "B" / 19 "C" / 18 "D" (as even as 75 allows), achieved by choice-order rotation only — every meaning is preserved from the Source of Truth.

MAP Mini-Passage Word Counts (Worksheet D)

- Passage 1 · The Long Climb · 170 words · Lexile 500–560L · RIT 200–206
- Passage 2 · The Storm Spotters · 170 words · Lexile 560–620L · RIT 206–211
- Passage 3 · Wilma Rudolph Runs · 177 words · Lexile 620–700L · RIT 211–216
- Passage 4 · The New Student · 184 words · Lexile 700–800L · RIT 216–220

Word counts match the workbook passage meta exactly. All four within target band 150–220 words; RIT 200→220; Lexile 500L–800L. Each passage models a different challenge someone rises to meet — a hard climb, the work of storm scientists, an athlete overcoming illness, and a new student finding courage and kindness. Passages are NEW — no recall of the four anchor selections.

What This Module Does NOT Contain (Guardrails)

- No "Power Words" label — the G4 source says "Critical Vocabulary."

- No Worksheet E — the V3 workflow uses four worksheets (A · B · C · D).
- The module quote IS by a NAMED person, Paulo Coelho, and is the EPIGRAPH only — he is NOT a story author.
- "Never Give Up!" is the Argumentative Big-Idea Short Read (no Critical Vocabulary panel) and is excluded from the per-selection units; it carries the 4 Big Idea Words instead. Its author is unverified — no byline in the source.
- Module 3 has NO standalone Media/Video selection. The only video reference is the module-opener "Get Curious" video "Rise Up."
- Critical Vocabulary counts are 7 / 3 / 4 / 5 = 19, not padded to match. Big Idea (4) + Critical (19) = 23 total. The Galveston Hurricane of 1900 genuinely has only 3.
- "Catch Me If You Can" is a play subtitled "The Story of Atalanta" — that subtitle is NOT a separate selection. Milton Elford (The Galveston Hurricane of 1900) is a real survivor whose letter is quoted, NOT a fictional character and NOT the author.
- Module 2 "Come to Your Senses" (The Science Behind Sight, Animal Senses, Blind Ambition, The Game of Silence) is a DIFFERENT module and is NOT included here.
- Performance Task = "Write an Opinion Essay."

Worksheet C — IB Critical Thinking · Answer Key

5 questions · PYP Key Concepts · DOK 2–4

Q1 Responsibility DOK 3

In "Rent Party Jazz," show the PROBLEM Sonny's family faces, then explain HOW the community and Smilin' Jack help them rise to the occasion — and what "the money belongs to anybody who needs it" shows.

MODEL ANSWER

The Problem: Sonny's mother has lost her job at the fish canning factory, so the family has no way to pay the rent. If they miss even one day, the rent man will change the locks and sell their belongings at a public auction. Sonny already works hard for the coal man before school, but it is not enough. What They Do: Smilin' Jack, a famous jazz trumpet player, tells Sonny how a whole neighborhood once threw a rent party. The family and their neighbors gather, music plays, and people drop money into a bucket to help. Smilin' Jack plays his trumpet at the party for free. How It Ends: By the end of the night, the bucket is brimming with coins — more than enough for the rent. Mama counts out what they need and tries to hand the rest to Smilin' Jack. What his words show: When Smilin' Jack says the money "belongs to anybody who needs it for rent or food" and that he has "already been paid" because playing was the most fun he has had in a long time, he shows that helping others is its own reward. Everyone took responsibility for a neighbor in trouble. The story shows that meeting a hard challenge can take a whole community, and that taking responsibility for one another is what helps people rise to the occasion.

KEYWORDS (3)

problem = lost job, cannot pay rent, auction

community = rent party, neighbors give, Jack plays free responsibility = helping others is its own reward

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): the rent problem + how the rent party and Smilin' Jack help + what "the money belongs to anybody who needs it" shows about responsibility.
- Partial (2): names the problem and the party but no link to helping others / responsibility.
- Minimal (1): only "they had a party" with no cause or meaning.

Q2 Causation DOK 3

In "The Galveston Hurricane of 1900," trace the CHAIN of cause and effect from where Galveston sat to the damage the storm caused, then explain how the storm changed the city.

MODEL ANSWER

Cause 1 · The Island: In 1900, Galveston was a busy commercial port, but it was on a barrier island. Barrier islands "take the impact of the damaging winds and storm surge that accompany a hurricane," so the city was in great danger. On September 8, 1900, the hurricane struck. Cause 2 · Storm Surge: The ocean swelled, waves rose twenty feet within hours, and "the storm surge easily flooded the island." Wind speeds grew to 135 miles per hour. It was a Category 4 hurricane. Effect · On the City: Buildings were shattered, the storm destroyed about 3,600 homes, and about 8,000 people perished. Milton Elford's letter shows this up close: he was the only member of his family to survive. So one thing causes the next: the island location PUTS the city in the storm's path, the surge and winds CAUSE buildings to fall, and the damage CAUSES the city to change. How the storm changed Galveston: The residents cleaned up the wreckage and rebuilt. They raised buildings up to 17 feet by pumping sand beneath the foundations, and a sturdy seawall was built along the ocean front. But the storm "convinced shippers to move north to Houston," so the busiest seaport in Texas "was forever changed," and it took over a decade for Galveston to fully rebuild. After a terrible loss, the people rose to the occasion by rebuilding their city.

KEYWORDS (3)

barrier island = takes the impact | surge + winds = homes destroyed | rebuild = raise buildings, seawall

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): the cause-effect chain (barrier island → surge and winds → damage to the city) + how Galveston rebuilt and was "forever changed."
- Partial (2): a partial chain but no clear link to how the storm changed the city.
- Minimal (1): only "the hurricane was bad" with no chain.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Cause-effect chain.

강사: "Fill three boxes: The Island → Storm Surge → Effect on the City."

코멘트. 세 칸 — 보초도(barrier island) → 폭풍 해일 → 도시에 미친 영향.

Step 2 · The surge.

강사: "Underline how high the waves rose and how fast the winds blew."

코멘트. 파도가 얼마나 높아졌는지, 바람이 얼마나 빨랐는지 밑줄.

Step 3 · Change sentence.

강사: "Finish: 'After the storm, Galveston changed because ____.'"

코멘트. 문장 완성 — '폭풍 이후 갤버스턴이 달라진 이유는 ____ 때문이다.'

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "Why was a barrier island a dangerous place to be during a hurricane?"
  허리케인이 올 때 보초도는 왜 위험한 곳이었을까?

- "How did the storm surge cause damage on the island?"
  폭풍 해일은 섬에 어떤 피해를 주었니?
- "Why do you think the people built a seawall after the storm?"
  사람들은 폭풍이 지나간 뒤 왜 방파제를 쌓았을까?

DIFFERENTIATION

STRUGGLING Put 3 cards (barrier island / storm surge / rebuilding) in cause-to-effect order.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "Scientists knew the storm would hit Galveston." They predicted it would go along the East Coast; the storm changed direction.
과학자들은 동부 해안으로 갈 거라 예측 — 폭풍이 방향을 바꿈.

PITFALL "Milton Elford wrote the whole selection." Only his letter (paragraphs 6–14) is firsthand; the rest is secondhand.
Milton Elford가 글 전체를 쓴 게 아님 — 편지(6~14문단)만 1인칭 경험.

Q3 Perspective DOK 3

In "Catch Me If You Can," show what King Henry wants and what Atalanta wants, then explain how Atalanta rises to the occasion — and what Young John's choice shows about respect.

MODEL ANSWER

What the King Wants: King Henry wants his daughter, Atalanta, to be married. He thinks of the "perfect way" to choose her husband: he decrees a race, and whoever wins the race wins the right to marry her. From his point of view, marrying her off is the proper thing for a father and king to arrange. What Atalanta Wants: Atalanta sees her future very differently. She says she is "perfectly capable of choosing" her own husband, and that what she really wants is to "go out and see the world." She does not want to be a prize handed to the fastest runner. How Atalanta rises to the occasion: Instead of simply obeying or refusing, Atalanta runs in the race herself — fast as the wind — so that she keeps control of her own future. She meets her father's challenge on her own terms. What Young John's choice shows: Young John trains hard and nearly ties Atalanta, but when he could claim her as a prize, he refuses. He says he "couldn't possibly marry her unless she wanted to marry" him, and asks only to get to know her. His choice shows real respect: he treats Atalanta as a person with her own wishes, not an object to be won. Seeing the same race from two perspectives — a prize to be won versus a free person making her own choice — is what makes the play powerful.

KEYWORDS (3)

king = wants her married, holds a race

Atalanta = capable, wants to see the world respect = Young John will not claim her as a prize

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): what the king wants + what Atalanta wants + how she takes control + what Young John's refusal shows about respect.
- Partial (2): both viewpoints named but no link to respect / her own choice.
- Minimal (1): only "there is a race" with no two perspectives.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Two columns.

강사: "Make two columns: What the King Wants / What Atalanta Wants."

코멘트. 두 칸 — 왕이 원하는 것 / 아탈란타가 원하는 것.

Step 2 · Young John's words.

강사: "Underline the line where Young John refuses to claim Atalanta."

코멘트. 영 존이 아탈란타를 차지하길 거절하는 대사에 밑줄.

Step 3 · Respect sentence.

강사: "Finish: 'Young John shows respect by ___.'"

코멘트. 문장 완성 — '영 존은 ____함으로써 존중을 보여 준다.'

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "Why does Atalanta race instead of just saying no?"
  아탈란타는 왜 그냥 거절하지 않고 직접 달릴까?

- "How is asking to 'get to know her' different from claiming a prize?"
  '알아가고 싶다'는 것은 상을 차지하는 것과 어떻게 다르니?
- "When is it right to make your own choice, even if an adult disagrees?"
  어른이 반대해도 스스로 선택하는 게 옳은 때는 언제니?

DIFFERENTIATION

STRUGGLING Match 2 cards ("win a husband for her" / "choose for herself") to the king and Atalanta.
카드 2장 — '대신 남편 정하기'와 '스스로 선택하기'를 왕·아탈란타와 매칭.

ADVANCED Explain how a play (cast list, stage directions) lets us hear both points of view.
희곡(등장인물·지문)이 두 관점을 들려주는 방식 설명.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "Atalanta loses because someone ties her." A tie is not a loss; she keeps her freedom, and Young John will not claim her.
동점은 패배가 아님 — 아탈란타는 자유를 지키고, 영 존도 차지하지 않음.

PITFALL "The king is the villain." He is not cruel; he simply sees her future differently — it is a clash of perspectives.
왕이 악당은 아님 — 미래를 다르게 볼 뿐, 관점의 충돌.

LEARNER PROFILE LINK

PRINCIPLED Young John acts fairly and will not take what is not freely given.
자유롭게 주어지지 않은 것을 취하지 않음 — Principled.

OPEN-MINDED Seeing the race from both the king's and Atalanta's view is open-minded.

Q4 Connection DOK 3

In "My Diary from Here to There," compare how Amada feels at the START of her journey with how she feels by the END, and explain how her family and her memories help her find strength.

MODEL ANSWER

Amada at the Start: At the beginning, Amada is scared and full of worry. She cannot sleep, and she writes in her diary, "If I don't write this all down I'll burst!" Her family must leave their little house in Juarez, Mexico, because Papa lost his job and there is no work. She is afraid of leaving her best friend Michi, of crossing the border, and of starting over in a strange new country. Amada by the End: By the end of her diary, Amada feels strong and sure of herself. After the family makes the hard, crowded crossing in Tijuana — holding hands the whole way — and reaches the United States, she writes, "Papa was right. I AM stronger than I think—in Mexico, in the States, anywhere." Her fear has turned into confidence. How family and memories help: Several connections give Amada her strength. Her father tells her, "You are stronger than you think," because he made it through a big change too. Her family stays together through every step. Her best friend Michi gives her a heart-shaped stone, and Amada keeps writing letters and diary entries to hold on to her memories and her culture. Through the love of her family and the record she keeps of who she is, Amada finds the strength to meet the huge challenge of leaving home and starting a new life. That is what it takes to rise to the occasion.

KEYWORDS (3)

start = scared, will "burst," leaving home end = "stronger than I think... anywhere"

strength = family's love + diary/memories

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): how Amada feels at the start + how she feels at the end + how family and memories give her strength.
- Partial (2): start and end named but no link to family/memories.
- Minimal (1): only "she moves to a new place" with no change in how she feels.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Start vs. end.

강사: "Make two columns: Amada at the Start / Amada by the End."

코멘트. 두 칸 — 시작의 아마다 / 끝의 아마다.

Step 2 · Papa's words.

강사: "Underline what Papa tells Amada about being strong."

코멘트. 아빠가 강함에 대해 아마다에게 한 말에 밑줄.

Step 3 · Strength sentence.

강사: "Finish: 'Amada finds strength because ____.'"

코멘트. 문장 완성 — '아마다는 ____ 때문에 힘을 얻는다.'

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "Why is leaving Michi so hard for Amada?"
  미치를 떠나는 것이 왜 아마다에게 그렇게 힘들까?
- "How can writing in a diary help someone feel braver?"

일기를 쓰는 것이 어떻게 더 용감해지도록 돕니?

- "When has YOUR family helped you through a big change?"

DIFFERENTIATION

카드 2장 — '무섭고 잠 못 듦'과 '생각보다 강함'을 시작·끝과 매칭.

ADVANCED Explain how the diary form lets us watch Amada change over time.
일기 형식이 아마다의 변화를 시간에 따라 보여 주는 방식 설명.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "Amada never feels scared." She begins very scared; the point is how she changes.
아마다가 두려움을 안 느끼는 게 아님 — 처음엔 매우 두려워함, 핵심은 변화.

PITFALL "The Spanish words are vocabulary to test." Words like m'ija and pan dulce are cultural detail, not Critical Vocabulary.

핵심 단어 영-한.

Q5 Perseverance DOK 4

Essential Question: What does it take to meet a challenge? Use ideas from TWO of the selections in this module to answer.

MODEL ANSWER

Meeting a challenge takes courage, hard work, help from others, and the will to keep going. In "Rent Party Jazz," Sonny's family faces the challenge of losing Mama's job and not being able to pay the rent. They meet it by not giving up and by leaning on their community: the neighbors gather for a rent party, and Smilin' Jack plays his trumpet for free until the bucket is brimming with enough money for the rent. What it takes here is teamwork and the kindness of people who take responsibility for one another. In "My Diary from Here to There," Amada faces the challenge of leaving her home in Mexico and starting a new life in the United States. At first she is so scared she feels she will burst, but she meets the challenge with the love of her family, her father's words that she is "stronger than" she thinks, and the memories she keeps in her diary. By the end she knows she is strong "in Mexico, in the States, anywhere." My Big Idea: As Paulo Coelho's quote reminds us, life "sets us a challenge to test our courage and willingness to change." Meeting a challenge takes courage, perseverance, and often the help and love of others. Whether it is a neighborhood raising rent money or a girl finding the strength to start over, people rise to the occasion when they refuse to give up and lean on one another.

KEYWORDS (3)

Rent Party Jazz = community + not giving up

My Diary = family's love + inner strength

Big Idea: courage, perseverance, help from others

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (4): two selections named + the challenge in each + what it takes to meet it + a Big Idea answering the EQ.
- Partial (3): two selections + challenges + Big Idea weak.
- Developing (2): one selection only.
- Minimal (1): generic ("you have to try hard") without naming a selection.

SYNTHESIS FRAME

SELECTION 1 IDEA

Name the challenge and what it takes: Rent Party Jazz = raise the rent, through community and not giving up; Galveston Hurricane = survive a deadly storm and rebuild, through courage and hard work; Catch Me If You Can = win her own freedom, through courage and self-belief; My Diary = leave home and start over, through family's love and inner strength.

CONNECTING WORD

BOTH / AND — joins two selections (for example Rent Party Jazz AND My Diary) into one Big Idea about what it takes to meet a challenge.

SELECTION 2 IDEA

A different selection than Selection 1 — so the two show two ways people rise to the occasion when life sets a challenge.

REAL-WORLD CONNECTION

KOREA 우리도 매일 크고 작은 도전에 맞선다 — 어려운 시험을 준비하고, 새 학교에 적응하고, 가족이 힘들 때 서로 돕는다. 포기하지 않는 마음과 곁의 사람들 덕분에 우리는 도전을 이겨 낸다.

Meeting (3)	Names 2 selections + a challenge for each + a Big Idea.
Approaching (2)	Names 2 selections but only retells facts — no link to meeting a challenge.
Beginning (1)	Generic ("try your best") without text evidence.

Watch out: Many G4 students will just retell the plot (Sonny had a party; Amada moved) and stop. Push them to name the CHALLENGE in each selection and say WHAT IT TAKES to meet it — courage, hard work, perseverance, help from others — and to write a Big Idea. The full EQ asks what it TAKES to meet a challenge, not just what happened.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Two selection cards.

강사: "Pick 2 selections. For each, name the challenge the people face."

코멘트. 선택지 둘 — 각자 인물이 맞선 도전 적기.

Step 2 · The what-it-takes.

강사: "Under each, write what it takes to meet that challenge."

코멘트. 각각 아래 — 그 도전을 이기는 데 필요한 것 적기.

Step 3 · Big Idea sentence.

강사: "Write one sentence answering the EQ. Use both selections."

코멘트. EQ에 답하는 한 문장 — 두 선택지 모두 사용.

STUDENT PROMPTS
