Module Overview

Essential Question: What makes someone a hero?
Quote: "The goal will not be reached if the right distance is not traveled." — Tibetan proverb (Anonymous)
Big Idea Words (4): fearlessness, endeavor, confidence, aspire
Main Selections (workbook 4):

- Prince Charming Misplaces His Bride · Christopher Healy (illus. Davide Ortu) · Fairy Tale
- Smokejumpers to the Rescue! · Laurie Toupin · Narrative Nonfiction (photo-illustrated)
- Perseus and the Fall of Medusa · retold by Claire Daniel (illus. Pep Boatella) · Myth told as a Play
- The Battle of the Alamo · Amie Jane Leavitt (illus. Martin Bustamante) · Narrative Nonfiction

Note. The SoT lists 27 core vocabulary items on Worksheet A (4 Big Idea + 10 Prince Charming + 2 Smokejumpers + 5 Perseus + 6 Alamo), in myBook appearance order. This G4 Teacher's Guide labels each selection's panel "Critical Vocabulary" — the string "Power Words" does not appear in the source. The teacher "Multiple-Meaning Words" / "Words for Using Homographs and Homophones" / "Words for Using Context Clues" strategy boxes (drilled, sharpening, tearing, groom, chute, lives, fair, winds, peered, installed) are NOT counted as core vocabulary. "Who's a Hero?" is the Informational Big-Idea Short Read (no Critical Vocabulary panel) and carries the 4 Big Idea Words; it is excluded from the per-selection workbook units. Module 4 has NO standalone Media/Video reading selection.

Answer Distribution (79 Multiple-Choice Items)

Verified counts across Worksheets A (27), B (32), and D (20). Worksheet C is open-response IB and not counted in MCQ balance.

A · 20 · B · 20 · C · 20 · D · 19

These four totals are the count of correct-answer LETTERS (A/B/C/D) across all 79 multiple-choice items — 20 answers are "A", 20 are "B", 20 are "C", 19 are "D" (as even as 79 allows). Balance enforced via choice-order rotation only; correct-answer meanings and option texts are preserved from the Source of Truth. All 27 SoT vocabulary words covered on Worksheet A in myBook appearance order (Big Idea → Prince Charming → Smokejumpers → Perseus → Alamo).

Voca Trap Items (Worksheet A)

8 of 27 ≈ 30%, all flagged below. Trap pattern: opposite-meaning / wrong-field baits drawn from the natural meaning field of each word — no hallucination.

- Q3 confidence — opposite/wrong-field bait ("a secret you keep," "many doubts," "need someone to decide for you") vs. "strong and sure feelings about yourself"
- Q6 foreboding — opposite bait ("cheerful and funny," "good news is coming") vs. "suggests that something bad is going to happen"
- Q8 scowled — opposite bait ("smiled with delight," "laughed out loud," "sang a happy song") vs. "frowned or had an angry look"
- Q9 intimidated — opposite bait ("brave and ready," "proud and pleased," "calm and relaxed") vs. "feels afraid"
- Q12 rigid — opposite bait ("soft and floppy," "warm and gentle," "light and floating") vs. "stiff and does not bend easily"
- Q15 timid — opposite bait ("bold and eager to take risks") vs. "shy and may lack courage or confidence"
- Q18 distress — opposite bait ("calm and content," "proud and joyful") vs. "very worried and upset"
- Q21 mortal — meaning-field bait ("a god who lives forever") vs. "a person who lives and dies"

Reading Trap Items (Worksheet B)

4 of 32 ≈ 13%, all flagged below. Trap pattern for Section B: THEME/MAIN-idea bait — each distractor is a plausible but WRONG moral or main idea (often the opposite of the real one), grounded in the selection, and length-balanced with the correct answer so a longest-option-wins guess fails. Distractors built from SoT only — no hallucination. Two anchor selections are LITERARY (RL: Prince Charming = Fairy Tale, Perseus = Myth/Play); two are INFORMATIONAL (RI: Smokejumpers and The Battle of the Alamo, both Narrative Nonfiction). Codes used are RL.4.1 / .2 / .3 / .5 / .6

and RI.4.1 / .2 / .3 / .5 / .6 / .8. RI.4.4, RI.4.7, and RL.4.7 are NOT used, and there are no "from the text" snippet boxes. Perseus is a play, so RL.4.5 (drama structure) is used for its cast/scene/stage-direction feature.

- Q8 Prince Charming theme — wrong morals (a ruler should decide what is safest for his children; looks matter more than skill; staying safe beats adventure) baited against the real theme: do not let fear control your life; find your own courage
- Q16 Smokejumpers main idea — wrong main ideas (packing a parachute is the hardest part of the job; airplanes are a more exciting way to travel; fighting from the ground is always safer) vs. smokejumpers are brave, highly trained firefighters who risk themselves to save lives and land
- Q24 Perseus theme — wrong morals (a clever ruler wins by setting traps; a hero should win alone; magical gifts matter more than the courage to use them) vs. true heroism is bravery and using one's gifts to protect others and right wrongs
- Q32 Alamo main idea — wrong main ideas (the Texians gave up once the Alamo was lost; the defenders won because they had more men and cannons; anyone who left lost respect) vs. losing the Alamo did not end the fight, and its memory helped Texas win its freedom

How Every Item Is Grounded

Every item on this Answer Key traces to the Source-of-Truth JSON for G4 Module 4, built from the Teaching Pal OCR (4,490 lines, 37 spread-pages) and verified against the PDF intro spreads (every Critical Vocabulary panel was read from a high-resolution crop). No characters, words, or events outside the Source of Truth were added.

- Vocabulary (Worksheet A): all 27 words come from the module's Big Idea Words (4: fearlessness, endeavor, confidence, aspire) and the four "Critical Vocabulary" panels — Prince Charming 10, Smokejumpers 2, Perseus 5, The Battle of the Alamo 6 (V1). Each meaning is checked against the myBook inline footnote definition. The teacher "Multiple-Meaning Words" / "Homographs and Homophones" / "Context Clues" strategy boxes (drilled, sharpening, tearing, groom, chute, lives, fair, winds, peered, installed) are deliberately NOT counted as core vocabulary.
- Terminology: this G4 Teacher's Guide labels each panel "Critical Vocabulary," not "Power Words" — the workbook uses that exact label, matching the source.
- Reading (Worksheet B): the 32 items use RL.4 codes for the two literary anchors (Prince Charming, Perseus) and RI.4 codes for the two informational anchors (Smokejumpers, The Battle of the Alamo). Each correct answer is grounded in the Source of Truth; distractors are SoT-anchored, never invented. RI.4.4, RI.4.7, and RL.4.7 are not used, and there are no "from the text" snippet boxes.
- Genre & credits: Prince Charming Misplaces His Bride = Fairy Tale (Christopher Healy, illus. Davide Ortu); Smokejumpers to the Rescue! = Narrative Nonfiction (Laurie Toupin; photo-illustrated, illustrator unverified; Patrick Withen is a real smokejumper quoted, not a character); Perseus and the Fall of Medusa = Myth told as a Play (retold by Claire Daniel, illus. Pep Boatella); The Battle of the Alamo = Narrative Nonfiction (Amie Jane Leavitt, illus. Martin Bustamante; paragraphs 9–48 are told in the second person, "you" = a Texian settler; Santa Anna, William Travis, Jim Bowie, Davy Crockett, Susanna Dickinson, and Sam Houston are real historical people). V1 items for this selection are grounded in the V1 Teaching Pal and cited by book page (V1 TP p.288–302).
- IB (Worksheet C): the PYP concepts — Change, Responsibility, Connection, Perseverance, Responsibility — follow the Source-of-Truth hero focus of this module. The Essential Question text on Q5 matches the workbook word for word. Korean teacher guidance appears in Section C only; Sections A, B, and D are in English.
- MAP (Worksheet D): four NEW passages (185 / 183 / 185 / 205 words), RIT 200→220, Lexile 500L–800L. None recall the four anchor selections; each shows a different kind of hero.
- Answer balance: 79 multiple-choice items distribute as 20 "A" / 20 "B" / 20 "C" / 19 "D" (as even as 79 allows), achieved by choice-order rotation only — every meaning is preserved from the Source of Truth.

MAP Mini-Passage Word Counts (Worksheet D)

- Passage 1 · The Lifeguard's Whistle · 185 words · Lexile 500–560L · RIT 200–206
- Passage 2 · The Search-and-Rescue Dogs · 183 words · Lexile 560–620L · RIT 206–211
- Passage 3 · Harriet Tubman, Conductor of Freedom · 185 words · Lexile 620–700L · RIT 211–216
- Passage 4 · The Quiet Hero of Room 12 · 205 words · Lexile 700–800L · RIT 216–220

Word counts match the workbook passage meta exactly. All four within target band 150–220 words; RIT 200→220; Lexile 500L–800L. Each passage shows a different kind of hero — a lifeguard, search-and-rescue dogs, Harriet Tubman, and a small boy who stands up for a classmate. Passages are NEW — no recall of the four anchor selections.

What This Module Does NOT Contain (Guardrails)

- No "Power Words" label — the G4 source says "Critical Vocabulary."

- No Worksheet E — the V3 workflow uses four worksheets (A · B · C · D).
- The module quote is a TIBETAN PROVERB with no named author (recorded as Anonymous) and is the EPIGRAPH only — it is NOT a story author.
- "Who's a Hero?" is the Informational Big-Idea Short Read (no Critical Vocabulary panel) and is excluded from the per-selection units; it carries the 4 Big Idea Words instead. Its author is unverified — no byline in the source.
- Module 4 has NO standalone Media/Video selection. The only video reference is the module-opener "Get Curious" video "Everyday Heroes."
- Critical Vocabulary counts are 10 / 2 / 5 / 6 = 23, not padded to match. Big Idea (4) + Critical (23) = 27 total. Smokejumpers genuinely has only 2; Prince Charming genuinely has 10.
- Perseus and the Fall of Medusa is a Greek MYTH told as a PLAY — use "retold by" for Claire Daniel. The gods (Zeus, Athena, Hermes) are characters, not separate selections; "odyssey" is a Critical Vocabulary word, not a separate title.
- Module 5 "Art Everywhere" (Why Art Centers Matter, The Beatles Were Fab, How Can Photos Take Us Back in Time?, Let's Dance Around the World, The Art of Poetry) is a DIFFERENT module and is NOT included here.
- Performance Task = "Write an Expository Essay."

Worksheet C — IB Critical Thinking · Answer Key

5 questions · PYP Key Concepts · DOK 2–4

Q1 Change DOK 3

In "Prince Charming Misplaces His Bride," show how Frederic feels at the START, then explain WHAT makes him change from a fearful prince into someone willing to set out into the world.

MODEL ANSWER

Frederic at the Start: At the beginning, Frederic is a pampered, fearful prince. His father, King Wilberforce, has shielded him from anything that might cause him harm, so Frederic is not even allowed to wrestle, do martial arts, or explore caves. After a frightening "episode" with a tiger, he is afraid of almost everything. When he wants to find the mystery girl, his father reminds him about the tiger, and Frederic instantly shrinks away. He is so intimidated by the real world that he makes excuses to avoid every adventure Ella suggests. What Pushes Him: Two things push Frederic to change. First, he truly loves Ella, who is bold, feisty, and adventurous, and he does not want to lose her. Second, his loyal valet Reginald drops his stiff manner and speaks to him like a friend, telling him, "There's a bit of courage in you somewhere. Find it." Reginald even reminds Frederic of what his late mother would want for him. Frederic by the End: By the end, Frederic finally stands up, says "Okay, I'll go," and marches out to chase after Ella. The fearful prince chooses, for the first time, to face danger and go after what he truly wants. What this shows: Frederic's story shows that becoming a hero often means an inner change — learning to find your own courage instead of letting your fears control your life.

KEYWORDS (3)

start = fearful, sheltered, makes excuses push = love for Ella + Reginald's "find your courage" change = chooses to face danger and go after what he wants

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): how Frederic feels at the start + what pushes him + how he changes by the end, linked to courage.
- Partial (2): names start and end but no clear cause of the change.
- Minimal (1): only "he goes after Ella" with no change in how he feels.

Q2 Responsibility DOK 3

In "Smokejumpers to the Rescue!," show the PROBLEM smokejumpers face, then explain WHAT it takes to do their job — and why taking responsibility for others makes them heroes.

MODEL ANSWER

The Problem: A dangerous wildfire breaks out in a remote area that fire trucks cannot reach quickly. A fire truck thirty miles away could take an hour or more to arrive, and by then the fire could spread far. People's lives and thousands of acres of wild land are in danger. What They Do: To respond fast, smokejumpers parachute straight to the scene from an airplane, because "even if we are one hundred miles away, we can be working on that fire within thirty-five minutes." Once on the ground, their most important task is to create a firebreak — a stretch of ground with nothing left to burn — so the fire runs out of fuel and burns itself out. What It Takes: The job takes courage, teamwork, and rigorous training. Would-be smokejumpers must pass a fitness test and complete about six weeks of strenuous training, including learning to pack their own parachutes. They work in pairs and carry everything they need for days. Why this makes them heroes: Smokejumpers choose to take responsibility for people and places they have never met. They risk their own safety so that "many lives and thousands of acres of wild land are saved each year." Taking responsibility for others, even when it is dangerous, is exactly what makes the smokejumpers heroes.

KEYWORDS (3)

problem = remote wildfire, trucks too slow

what they do = parachute in, build a firebreak

responsibility = risk themselves to save lives and land

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): the wildfire problem + how they fight it (parachute in, firebreak) + what it takes + a link to taking responsibility for others.
- Partial (2): names the problem and the firebreak but no link to responsibility.
- Minimal (1): only "they fight fires" with no cause or meaning.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Three boxes.

강사: "Fill three boxes: The Problem, What They Do, What It Takes."

코멘트. 세 칸 — 문제·하는 일·필요한 것. 각 칸 채우기.

Q3 Connection DOK 3

In "Perseus and the Fall of Medusa," show how OTHERS help Perseus and whom Perseus helps, then explain how a hero uses gifts and help from others.

MODEL ANSWER

Who Helps Perseus: Perseus does not face his deadly quest alone. Three gods come to help him. Zeus gives him a sword that "cuts through any substance as though it is soft butter." Athena gives him a shield that "acts like a mirror," so he can look at Medusa's reflection instead of her deadly face, plus a knapsack to carry the head safely. Hermes gives him winged slippers that "will fly you away from all harm." With these gifts, Perseus is able to slay Medusa without being turned to stone. Whom Perseus Helps: Perseus then uses what he has gained to help others. He rescues Andromeda, who is chained to a rock as bait for a sea monster, by turning the monster to stone with Medusa's head and cutting her chains. Finally, he returns to free his mother, Danae, from the scheming king Polydectes, and turns the king's court to stone. How a hero uses help: Perseus shows that a hero is connected to others. He accepts the gods' gifts and advice, and then he uses that help and his own bravery not for himself, but to protect Andromeda and his mother. A true hero is not a loner — heroes receive help, and then they pass that help on by protecting others.

KEYWORDS (3)

helpers = Zeus's sword, Athena's mirror-shield, Hermes's slippers

Perseus helps = Andromeda + his mother Danae connection = receive help, then protect others

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): who helps Perseus + whom he helps + how a hero uses help and gifts for others.

Step 3 · Connection sentence.

강사: "Finish: 'Perseus uses the gods' help to ____.'"

코멘트. 문장 완성 — '페르세우스는 신들의 도움으로 ____한다.'

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "Why does Athena give Perseus a mirror-shield instead of an ordinary shield?"
  아테나는 왜 보통 방패가 아니라 거울 방패를 줄까?
- "How is rescuing Andromeda different from just killing the monster?"
  안드로메다를 구하는 것은 괴물을 죽이는 것과 어떻게 다르니?

Q4 Perseverance DOK 3

In "The Battle of the Alamo," compare what happens at the Alamo at FIRST with what happens in the END, and explain how the defenders' perseverance makes them heroes.

MODEL ANSWER

At First: When Santa Anna's army arrived, the Texians inside the Alamo refused to give up. Travis answered Santa Anna's red flag with cannon fire and said, "We'll never surrender to that tyrant!" Travis knew that "it's impossible for fewer than 200 men to fight off thousands of soldiers," yet he said, "I will fight to my last breath." Davy Crockett, Almaron Dickinson, Gregorio Esparza, and even the sick Jim Bowie crossed the line in the sand to "stay and fight for the liberty of Texas." By dawn on March 6, the battle was over and the Mexicans won. Every Texian defender inside the Alamo died, and hundreds of Mexican soldiers were also killed or wounded. In the End: The fight for Texas did not stop there. Susanna Dickinson walked 70 miles to Gonzales carrying her daughter, Angelina, and told Sam Houston what she had witnessed. On April 21, Houston's army caught Santa Anna by surprise near San Jacinto, shouting the battle cry "Remember the Alamo!" The battle was over in 18 minutes, and "this time, the Texians won." Santa Anna agreed to order his armies back to Mexico, and Texas was finally free. How perseverance makes them heroes: The defenders are remembered as heroes not because they won, but because they kept their promise to stand and fight even when the odds were against them. Their courage gave other Texians the strength to keep going. That is why, to this day, "the people of Texas still remember the brave defenders of the Alamo." The text also shows respect for people who made a different hard choice: when "you" decided to leave for your family's sake, "They respect your decision."

KEYWORDS (3)

at first = fewer than 200 defenders, the Alamo is lost in the end = "Remember the Alamo!", Texians win at San Jacinto perseverance = "I will fight to my last breath"

SCORING NOTES

코멘트. 문장 완성 — '알라모 수비대는 ____하기 때문에 영웅이다.'

STUDENT PROMPTS

소제목 흐름이 패배에서 승리로의 변화를 보여 주는 방식 설명.

Q5 Responsibility DOK 4

Essential Question: What makes someone a hero? Use ideas from TWO of the selections in this module to answer.

MODEL ANSWER

A hero is someone who shows courage, takes responsibility for others, and does not give up — even when it is hard or dangerous. In "Smokejumpers to the Rescue!," smokejumpers are heroes because they parachute straight into dangerous wildfires to protect people and land they have never met. They train for weeks, work in pairs, and build firebreaks so that "many lives and thousands of acres of wild land are saved each year." What makes them heroes is their courage and their choice to take responsibility for others. In "The Battle of the Alamo," the defenders are heroes in a different way. Fewer than 200 men chose to "stay and fight for the liberty of Texas" against thousands of soldiers, and Travis promised, "I will fight to my last breath." After the battle, Susanna Dickinson walked 70 miles carrying her daughter to bring the news to Sam Houston. Their courage became the battle cry "Remember the Alamo!" My Big Idea: As the Tibetan proverb reminds us, "The goal will not be reached if the right distance is not traveled." A hero is not always someone famous or super-strong. A hero is someone who travels the hard distance — who is brave, takes responsibility for others, and keeps going until the goal is reached. Whether it is a smokejumper risking everything or a defender refusing to give up, what makes someone a hero is the courage to act for others.

KEYWORDS (3)

Smokejumpers = courage + responsibility for others

Alamo defenders = courage + perseverance against great odds

Big Idea: a hero is brave and acts for others

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (4): two selections named + who acts like a hero in each + what makes them one + a Big Idea answering the EQ.
- Partial (3): two selections + heroes + Big Idea weak.
- Developing (2): one selection only.
- Minimal (1): generic ("a hero is brave") without naming a selection.

SYNTHESIS FRAME

SELECTION 1 IDEA

Name the hero and what makes them one: Prince Charming = Frederic finds courage to face his fears; Smokejumpers = brave, trained firefighters who protect others; Perseus = uses gifts and bravery to protect Andromeda and his mother; The Battle of the Alamo = defenders who stay to fight "for the liberty of Texas" against great odds.

CONNECTING WORD

BOTH / AND — joins two selections (for example Smokejumpers AND The Battle of the Alamo) into one Big Idea about what makes someone a hero.

SELECTION 2 IDEA

A different selection than Selection 1 — so the two show two ways a person can be a hero.
