Module Overview

Essential Question: What impact can artists have on the world?
Quote: "It is the artist who has the courage to go against the crowd, and to create art wherever we are." — Henry Miller
Big Idea Words (4): inspiration, expressive, creativity, sculpture
Main Selections (workbook 4):

- The Beatles Were Fab (and They Were Funny) · Kathleen Krull & Paul Brewer (illus. Stacy Innerst) · Biography
- How Can Photos Take Us Back in Time? · from The Metropolitan Museum of Art #metkids · Video
- Let's Dance Around the World · Leticia Ann Kimura & Annabel Wildrick · Informational Text
- The Art of Poetry · J. Patrick Lewis, Bob Raczka, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow & Francisco X. Alarcón (illus. Marina Seoane) · Poetry

Note. The SoT lists 25 core vocabulary items on Worksheet A (4 Big Idea + 8 The Beatles + 3 How Can Photos + 4 Let's Dance + 6 The Art of Poetry), in myBook appearance order. This G4 Teacher's Guide labels each selection's panel "Critical Vocabulary" — the string "Power Words" does not appear in the source. The teacher "Multiple-Meaning Words" / "Words for Using Shades of Meaning" / "Words for Using Homographs and Homophones" strategy boxes (record, fans, glittering/starry, graceful/delicate, letters, know, sense of connection, spark) are NOT counted as core vocabulary. "Why Art Centers Matter" is the Argumentative Big-Idea Short Read (no Critical Vocabulary panel) and carries the 4 Big Idea Words; it is excluded from the per-selection workbook units. One anchor, "How Can Photos Take Us Back in Time?," is a VIDEO/Media selection.

Answer Distribution (77 Multiple-Choice Items)

Verified counts across Worksheets A (25), B (32), and D (20). Worksheet C is open-response IB and not counted in MCQ balance.

A · 20 · B · 19 · C · 19 · D · 19

These four totals are the count of correct-answer LETTERS (A/B/C/D) across all 77 multiple-choice items — 20 answers are "A", 19 are "B", 19 are "C", 19 are "D" (as even as 77 allows). Balance enforced via choice-order rotation only; correct-answer meanings and option texts are preserved from the Source of Truth. All 25 SoT vocabulary words covered on Worksheet A in myBook appearance order (Big Idea → The Beatles → How Can Photos → Let's Dance → The Art of Poetry).

Voca Trap Items (Worksheet A)

8 of 25 = 32%, all flagged below. Trap pattern: opposite-meaning / wrong-field baits drawn from the natural meaning field of each word — no hallucination.

- Q3 creativity — wrong-field bait ("very tall and strong," "good at following exact directions," "careful never to try anything new") vs. "inventive, especially in the arts"
- Q6 stunned — opposite bait ("calm and not surprised," "certain about what will happen") vs. "shocked or amazed by something"
- Q8 regretted — opposite bait ("proud of it," "forgot it," "told everyone happily") vs. "felt sorry about it and wished you hadn't done it"
- Q11 flattered — opposite bait ("insulted and angry," "bored and sleepy") vs. "made you feel honored or special"
- Q17 distinctive — opposite bait ("the same as everything else," "too quiet to hear") vs. "stands out in a way that makes it different or unusual"
- Q21 unsurpassed — opposite bait ("many things are far better," "the worst of all") vs. "there is nothing that is better"
- Q23 extraordinarily — opposite bait ("in an ordinary, everyday way," "carelessly and badly") vs. "very unusual or remarkable in some way"
- Q24 cruising — wrong-field bait ("sitting still on dry land," "sinking under the water," "climbing a mountain") vs. "traveling in a boat for fun"

Reading Trap Items (Worksheet B)

4 of 32 = 13%, all flagged below. Trap pattern for Section B: THEME/MAIN-idea bait (a true detail mistaken for the central idea) and length-balanced correct answers so a longest-option-wins guess fails. Distractors built from SoT only — no hallucination. Three anchors are INFORMATIONAL (RI: The Beatles = Biography, How Can Photos = Video, Let's Dance = Informational Text); one is LITERARY (RL: The Art of Poetry = Poetry collection). Codes used are RI.4.1 / .2 / .3 / .5 / .6 / .8 and RL.4.1 / .2 / .3 / .5 / .6. RI.4.4, RI.4.7, and RL.4.7 are NOT used, and there are no "from the text" snippet boxes. The Art of Poetry is a poetry collection, so RL.4.5 (poem structure: acrostic, concrete poem) is used for its form features.

- Q8 The Beatles main idea — "grew up in Liverpool," "Paul played the trumpet," "the Ed Sullivan Show was popular" are true details, baited against the real main idea: artists can change the world; the Beatles combined music with humor and friendship to make history and bring people joy
- Q16 How Can Photos main idea — "the Brooklyn Bridge is in New York," "a curator works in a museum," "one photo was taken 50 years after another" bait vs. photographers are artists whose images preserve moments in time and help people connect to the past
- Q24 Let's Dance main idea — "tap shoes have metal plates," "the tarantella comes from Italy," "Savion Glover is a tap dancer" bait vs. dance is a universal art form; across cultures people dance to celebrate, express themselves, and connect
- Q32 The Art of Poetry theme — "one poem is shaped like a balloon," "Elaine reads a dictionary," "one poem is in Spanish and English" bait vs. poets are artists who use sound, rhythm, figurative language, and form to make readers see ordinary things in new ways

How Every Item Is Grounded

Every item on this Answer Key traces to the Source-of-Truth JSON for G4 Module 5, built from the Teaching Pal OCR (3,427 lines, 34 spread-pages) and verified against the PDF intro spreads (every Critical Vocabulary panel was read from a high-resolution crop). No characters, words, or events outside the Source of Truth were added.

- Vocabulary (Worksheet A): all 25 words come from the module's Big Idea Words (4: inspiration, expressive, creativity, sculpture) and the four "Critical Vocabulary" panels — The Beatles 8, How Can Photos 3, Let's Dance 4, The Art of Poetry 6. Each meaning is checked against the myBook inline footnote definition. The teacher "Multiple-Meaning Words" / "Shades of Meaning" / "Homographs and Homophones" strategy boxes (record, fans, glittering/starry, graceful/delicate, letters, know, sense of connection, spark) are deliberately NOT counted as core vocabulary.
- Terminology: this G4 Teacher's Guide labels each panel "Critical Vocabulary," not "Power Words" — the workbook uses that exact label, matching the source.
- Reading (Worksheet B): the 32 items use RI.4 codes for the three informational anchors (The Beatles biography, How Can Photos video, Let's Dance) and RL.4 codes for the poetry collection (The Art of Poetry). Each correct answer is grounded in the Source of Truth; distractors are SoT-anchored, never invented. RI.4.4, RI.4.7, and RL.4.7 are not used, and there are no "from the text" snippet boxes.
- Genre & credits: The Beatles Were Fab (and They Were Funny) = Biography (Kathleen Krull & Paul Brewer, illus. Stacy Innerst; the real Beatles — John, Paul, George, Ringo — are real people, not fictional characters); How Can Photos Take Us Back in Time? = Video (from The Metropolitan Museum of Art #metkids; Kira and the curator are real video participants, Berenice Abbott is a real photographer); Let's Dance Around the World = Informational Text (Leticia Ann Kimura & Annabel Wildrick; photo-illustrated, illustrator unverified; Savion Glover is a real tap dancer); The Art of Poetry = Poetry collection (J. Patrick Lewis, Bob Raczka, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, Francisco X. Alarcón, illus. Marina Seoane).
- IB (Worksheet C): the PYP concepts — Change, Connection, Culture, Expression, Creativity — follow the Source-of-Truth arts focus of this module. The Essential Question text on Q5 matches the workbook word for word. Korean teacher guidance appears in Section C only; Sections A, B, and D are in English.
- MAP (Worksheet D): four NEW passages (180 / 186 / 176 / 192 words), RIT 200→220, Lexile 500L–800L. None recall the four anchor selections; each shows a different kind of artist.
- Answer balance: 77 multiple-choice items distribute as 20 "A" / 19 "B" / 19 "C" / 19 "D" (as even as 77 allows), achieved by choice-order rotation only — every meaning is preserved from the Source of Truth.

MAP Mini-Passage Word Counts (Worksheet D)

- Passage 1 · The Mural on Maple Street · 180 words · Lexile 500–560L · RIT 200–206
- Passage 2 · The Boy Who Drew Everywhere · 186 words · Lexile 560–620L · RIT 206–211
- Passage 3 · Frida Kahlo, Painter of Her Own Story · 176 words · Lexile 620–700L · RIT 211–216
- Passage 4 · The Violin in the Subway · 192 words · Lexile 700–800L · RIT 216–220

Word counts match the workbook passage meta exactly. All four within target band 150–220 words; RIT 200→220; Lexile 500L–800L. Each passage shows a different kind of artist — a muralist, a young illustrator, the painter Frida Kahlo, and a subway violinist. Passages are NEW — no recall of the four anchor selections.

What This Module Does NOT Contain (Guardrails)

- No "Power Words" label — the G4 source says "Critical Vocabulary."

- No Worksheet E — this workbook series uses four worksheets (A · B · C · D).
- The module quote is by HENRY MILLER (a named American writer) and is the EPIGRAPH only — it is NOT a story author.
- "Why Art Centers Matter" is the Argumentative Big-Idea Short Read (no Critical Vocabulary panel) and is excluded from the per-selection units; it carries the 4 Big Idea Words instead. Its author is unverified — no byline in the source.
- "How Can Photos Take Us Back in Time?" is a VIDEO selection (Media), credited "from The Metropolitan Museum of Art #metkids" — no individual author, no illustrator. It is DISTINCT from the module-opener "Get Curious" video "Art for All."
- Critical Vocabulary counts are 8 / 3 / 4 / 6 = 21, not padded to match. Big Idea (4) + Critical (21) = 25 total. How Can Photos genuinely has only 3; The Beatles genuinely has 8.
- The Art of Poetry is a POETRY COLLECTION (multiple poems by four poets), not a single poem. "Godzilla" is an allusion, not a character; the Spanish text and poem titles are not vocabulary words.
- Module 4 "Heroic Feats" (Who's a Hero?, Prince Charming Misplaces His Bride, Smokejumpers to the Rescue!, Perseus and the Fall of Medusa, Mario and the Hole in the Sky) is a DIFFERENT module and is NOT included here.
- Performance Task = "Write an Expository Essay" (the module ends with a Glossary).

Worksheet C — IB Critical Thinking · Answer Key

5 questions · PYP Key Concepts · DOK 2–4

Q1 Change DOK 3

In "The Beatles Were Fab (and They Were Funny)," show how the Beatles START, then explain WHAT changed once they became famous — and how their music and humor changed the world.

MODEL ANSWER

The Beatles at the Start: John, Paul, George, and Ringo were four ordinary young lads who grew up in Liverpool, "a scruffy city in northern England," during the 1940s and '50s. They were not rich or famous. They simply loved music, and playing it made hard times better. They started out performing in small, scruffy clubs, dreaming of something bigger. When John would ask, "Where are we going, lads?" they would shout back, "To the top, Johnny!" and "The toppermost of the poppermost!" What They Did: The Beatles worked hard and were so cool and funny that reporters began calling them the "Fab Four," short for fabulous. Their performance on the Ed Sullivan Show was as polished as could be and became one of the most-watched programs in history. How the World Changed: Soon a brand-new wave of excitement called Beatlemania swept the world. No one had ever seen or heard a band quite like them. They changed music, fashion, and hairstyles, and brought joy to millions of fans. What this shows: The Beatles show that artists can change the world. By combining fabulous music with humor and friendship, four ordinary boys from Liverpool made history and brought people joy everywhere.

KEYWORDS (3)

start = ordinary lads in Liverpool who loved music

what they did = music + humor made them the Fab Four change = Beatlemania changed music and brought joy worldwide

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): how the Beatles start + what they did + how the world changed, linked to artists' impact.
- Partial (2): names start and fame but no clear cause of the change.
- Minimal (1): only "they were famous" with no change in the world.

Q2 Connection DOK 3

In "How Can Photos Take Us Back in Time?," show WHAT the photo shows, then explain HOW a photograph connects people today with another time.

MODEL ANSWER

What the Photo Shows: In the video, the narrators look closely at a photograph of the Brooklyn Bridge. The photographer Berenice Abbott took her picture in 1937, about fifty years after an earlier photo of the same bridge. Together the two photos show the bridge and the city around it at two very different moments in time. The Clues: The curator and the young viewer, Kira, do not just look — they search for clues. They study the buildings, the streets, and other details in the photo to figure out the time period and even which side of the bridge the picture was taken from. Berenice Abbott wanted to "record things just as they are in a moment in time," so her photo is full of true details about the past. What We Learn: By comparing the older and newer photos, viewers can see how the city changed over the fifty years between them. How a photograph connects us: A photographer is an artist who freezes one real moment forever. When we look at a historical photograph, we are connected to people and places from long ago. The picture lets us see what life was like in another time and how things change over time — almost like traveling back in time ourselves.

Q3 Culture DOK 3

In "Let's Dance Around the World," choose TWO dances, then explain how dance lets a culture express itself.

MODEL ANSWER

Dance 1 and Its Culture: One dance is the Italian tarantella, a famous folk dance from Italy. A legend says that people who were bitten by tarantula spiders danced fast and wildly to try to sweat the poison out of their bodies. The tarantella carries a story and a tradition that belong to Italian culture. Dance 2 and Its Culture: Another dance is tap, an American dance known for the rhythmic heel-toe steps the dancers make. Tap shoes have metal plates that create a distinctive sound. A real tap dancer named Savion Glover even brought the rhythms of hip-hop to the tap-dancing stage, showing how a culture's dance can keep growing and changing. How dance lets a culture express itself: The text shows dances from many places — tap, hip-hop and breaking, the tarantella, Japanese folk dance, the Mexican "Los Viejitos," the limbo from West Africa, and capoeira from Brazil. Each dance grew out of a particular place and people. What this shows: Dancers are artists, too. The fact that almost every culture has its own dances shows that people everywhere use movement to celebrate, tell stories, and express who they are. Dance is a universal art form that connects people across the world.

KEYWORDS (3)

dance 1 = tarantella (Italy) with its legend dance 2 = tap (American), Savion Glover

Q4 Expression DOK 3

In "The Art of Poetry," show how a poem's FORM and its WORDS work, then explain how poets help us see ordinary things in new ways.

MODEL ANSWER

A Poem's Form: Poets use special forms to express ideas. In "Necessary Gardens," J. Patrick Lewis builds an acrostic, where the first letters of the lines spell the word LANGUAGE — so the shape of the poem carries part of its meaning. Bob Raczka's "Balloon" is a concrete, or shape, poem printed in the shape of a balloon, so the poem looks like the thing it describes. A Poem's Words and Images: Poets also choose words carefully to create pictures and feelings. In Longfellow's "The Arrow and the Song," the speaker shoots an arrow and a song into the air and later finds the song "in the heart of a friend," which shows how kindness lasts. In Francisco X. Alarcón's "Quiet Water," still water is described as "as still as a mirror / facing the sky," a simile that helps us picture calm water in a new way. How poets help us see in new ways: By choosing a clever form, sound, rhythm, and figurative language, poets take ordinary things — a library, a balloon, a river, still water — and make us see and feel them freshly. What this shows: Poets are artists who use the tools of poetry to express feelings and ideas and to help readers notice the wonder in everyday things.

KEYWORDS (3)

form = acrostic ("Necessary Gardens"), concrete poem ("Balloon") words = simile in "Quiet Water," the lasting song in "The Arrow and the Song" expression = poets make ordinary things feel new

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): an example of poem form + an example of words/images + how poets help us see ordinary things in new ways.
- Partial (2): one example only, with a weak link to expression.

Q5 Creativity DOK 4

Essential Question: What impact can artists have on the world? Use ideas from TWO of the selections in this module to answer.

MODEL ANSWER

Artists can have a powerful impact on the world. They can change how people feel, connect people across time and place, and help everyone see ordinary things in new ways. In "The Beatles Were Fab (and They Were Funny)," four ordinary boys from Liverpool became the Fab Four by combining fabulous music with humor and friendship. Their music set off Beatlemania, changed fashion and hairstyles, and brought joy to millions of fans around the world. In "Let's Dance Around the World," dancers are artists too. Across many cultures — tap, the tarantella, capoeira, and more — people use dance to celebrate, tell stories, and express who they are, and a dancer like Savion Glover can even transform a whole dance style. My Big Idea: As Henry Miller said, "It is the artist who has the courage to go against the crowd, and to create art wherever we are." Artists do not have to be famous or rich. Whether they make music, dance, photographs, or poems, artists use their creativity to express feelings, connect people, and change the world for the better. That is the impact artists can have.

KEYWORDS (3)

The Beatles = music + humor brought the world joy

Let's Dance = dance lets cultures express and connect

Big Idea: artists use creativity to change the world

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (4): two selections named + who the artist is in each + the impact each has + a Big Idea answering the EQ.
- Partial (3): two selections + artists + Big Idea weak.
- Developing (2): one selection only.
- Minimal (1): generic ("art is nice") without naming a selection.

SYNTHESIS FRAME

SELECTION 1 IDEA	CONNECTING WORD	SELECTION 2 IDEA
Name the artist and their impact: The Beatles = music and humor that brought the world joy; How Can Photos = a photographer who connects us to the past; Let's Dance = dancers who express culture; The Art of Poetry = poets who make us see ordinary things in new ways.	BOTH / AND — joins two selections (for example The Beatles AND Let's Dance) into one Big Idea about the impact artists can have.	A different selection than Selection 1 — so the two show two ways an artist can impact the world.

REAL-WORLD CONNECTION

Approaching (2)	Names 2 selections but only retells facts — no link to an artist's impact.
Beginning (1)	Generic ("art is fun") without text evidence.

Watch out: Many G4 students will just retell the plot (the Beatles were famous; people dance everywhere) and stop. Push them to say WHAT IMPACT each artist has — bringing joy, connecting people across time, expressing culture, helping us see in new ways — and to write a Big Idea. The EQ asks what IMPACT artists can have, not just what happened.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Two selection cards.

강사: "Pick 2 selections. For each, name the artist or artists."

코멘트. 선택지 둘 — 각자 예술가가 누구인지 적기.

Step 2 · Their impact.

강사: "Under each, write the impact that artist has on the world."

코멘트. 각각 아래 — 그 예술가가 세상에 주는 영향 적기.

Step 3 · Big Idea sentence.

강사: "Write one sentence answering the EQ. Use both selections."

코멘트. EQ에 답하는 한 문장 — 두 선택지 모두 사용.
