Module Overview

Essential Question: How does genre affect the way a story is told?
Quote: "They weren't true stories; they were better than that." — Alice Hoffman
Big Idea Words (4): prose, dialogue, climax, foreword
Main Selections (workbook 4):

- Airborn · Kenneth Oppel (illus. Antonio Javier Caparo) · Fantasy / Adventure (RL)
- The Secret Garden · Frances Hodgson Burnett (illus. Helena Perez Garcia) · Realistic Fiction (RL)
- The Miracle of Spring · Helen Hanna (illus. Olga Baumert) · Play (RL)
- The Poem That Will Not End: Fun with Poetic Forms and Voices · Joan Bransfield Graham (illus. Kyrsten Brooker) · Poetry (RL)

Note. The SoT lists 30 core vocabulary items on Worksheet A (4 Big Idea + 9 Airborn + 5 The Secret Garden + 5 The Miracle of Spring + 7 The Poem That Will Not End), in myBook appearance order. This G5 Teacher's Guide labels each selection's panel "Critical Vocabulary" — the string "Power Words" does not appear in the source. The teacher "Vocabulary Strategy" boxes (Airborn: protruding/deft/tentatively/impertinent; The Secret Garden & The Miracle of Spring: antonym pairs; The Poem That Will Not End: whiz/immense) and inline LANGUAGE craft notes (idioms; multiple-meaning words; metaphor) are NOT counted as core vocabulary. "Many Ways to Tell a Story" is the Big-Idea Short Read / Informational Text (no Critical Vocabulary panel) and carries the 4 Big Idea Words; it is excluded from the per-selection workbook units. All four vocabulary-bearing main selections are LITERARY (RL): a fantasy novel excerpt, a realistic-fiction classic, a play, and a poetry collection.

Answer Distribution (82 Multiple-Choice Items)

Verified counts across Worksheets A (30), B (32), and D (20). Worksheet C is open-response IB and not counted in MCQ balance.

A · 21 · B · 20 · C · 21 · D · 20

These four totals are the count of correct-answer LETTERS (A/B/C/D) across all 82 multiple-choice items — exactly 21 are "A", 20 are "B", 21 are "C", and 20 are "D". Within each worksheet: Worksheet A = 8 A / 7 B / 8 C / 7 D (30), Worksheet B = 8 / 8 / 8 / 8 (32), Worksheet D = 5 / 5 / 5 / 5 (20). Balance is achieved via choice-order rotation only; correct-answer meanings and option texts are preserved from the Source of Truth. All 30 SoT vocabulary words are covered on Worksheet A in myBook appearance order (Big Idea → Airborn → The Secret Garden → The Miracle of Spring → The Poem That Will Not End).

Voca Trap Items (Worksheet A)

9 of 30 = 30%, all flagged below. Trap pattern: opposite-meaning / wrong-field baits drawn from the natural meaning field of each word — no hallucination.

- Q5 panic — opposite bait ("a calm, sleepy contentment") vs. "a feeling of strong fear that leaves someone unable to think clearly"
- Q9 reasonable — opposite bait ("confusing and impossible to follow") vs. "logical and easy to understand"
- Q11 projected — opposite bait ("solid and can be touched," "proven to be completely real") vs. "may appear to be real but is not"
- Q14 mysterious — opposite bait ("brightly lit and easy to see," "neat, tidy, and well known") vs. "not fully understood or explainable"
- Q15 matted — opposite bait ("trimmed into a neat shape," "planted in a straight row") vs. "a tangled mess"
- Q21 attempted — opposite bait ("refused to do it," "finished it perfectly") vs. "tried to do it"
- Q23 contempt — opposite bait ("deep admiration and respect," "great sympathy and kindness") vs. "little or no respect for someone or something"
- Q26 watchful — opposite bait ("close your eyes and ignore everything") vs. "pay attention to everything around you"
- Q30 restless — opposite bait ("sleep deeply and peacefully," "sit perfectly calm and quiet") vs. "find it hard to relax or stay still"

Reading Trap Items (Worksheet B)

1 of 32 = 3%, flagged below. Trap pattern for Section B: theme / message bait (a true detail mistaken for the central theme) with length-balanced correct answers so a longest-option-wins guess fails. Distractors built from the SoT only — no hallucination. All four anchors are LITERARY (RL): Airborn (Fantasy/Adventure), The Secret Garden (Realistic Fiction), The Miracle of Spring (Play), and The Poem That Will Not End (Poetry). Codes used are RL.5.1 / .2 / .3 / .5 / .6. RL.5.4 and RL.5.7 are NOT used (and no RI codes appear, because this module has no informational main selection), and there are no "from the text" snippet boxes. The single Section B theme trap is on the poetry selection.

- Q32 The Poem That Will Not End theme — "the poet wrote a poem labeled Limerick," "the poet doodled with bananas on a high-chair tray," "one of the poems is called Rhythm" are true details, baited against the real theme: poetic inspiration can be playful and unstoppable, bubbling up everywhere in many different forms

Because all four selections are literary, Section B is tested with theme, character, plot, point-of-view, and structure (RL.5.5) items. RL.5.5 fits the drama (scenes, dialogue, stage directions) and the poetry (stanzas, rhyme pattern, form labels) especially well. Every Section B distractor is grounded in the Source of Truth.

Source-of-Truth Verification

VERIFIED

How Every Item Is Grounded

Every item on this Answer Key traces to the Source-of-Truth JSON for G5 Module 2, built from the Teaching Pal OCR (6,772 lines, 53 spread-pages incl. a combined back-of-book Glossary shared with Module 3) and verified against the PDF intro spreads (every Critical Vocabulary panel was read from a high-resolution crop, and each panel's rounded bottom corner was confirmed so no words are cut off). No characters, words, or events outside the Source of Truth were added.

- Vocabulary (Worksheet A): all 30 words come from the module's Big Idea Words (4: prose, dialogue, climax, foreword) and the four "Critical Vocabulary" panels — Airborn 9, The Secret Garden 5, The Miracle of Spring 5, The Poem That Will Not End 7. Each meaning is taken verbatim from the combined back-of-book Glossary (OCR lines ~5680–6768), which contains every one of the 30 words, and checked against surviving inline myNotes definitions. The teacher Vocabulary Strategy boxes and the craft notes (idioms, multiple-meaning words, metaphor) are deliberately NOT counted as core vocabulary.
- Terminology: this G5 Teacher's Guide labels each panel "Critical Vocabulary," not "Power Words" — the workbook uses that exact label, matching the source.
- Reading (Worksheet B): the 32 items use only RL.5 codes, because all four anchors are literary (Airborn, The Secret Garden, The Miracle of Spring, The Poem That Will Not End). Each correct answer is grounded in the Source of Truth; distractors are SoT-anchored, never invented. RL.5.4 and RL.5.7 are not used, no RI codes are used, and there are no "from the text" snippet boxes.
- Genre & credits: Airborn = Fantasy/Adventure (by Kenneth Oppel, illus. Antonio Javier Caparo; the airships and sky creatures are FICTIONAL — only the author is a real person); The Secret Garden = Realistic Fiction (by Frances Hodgson Burnett, illus. Helena Perez Garcia; an adapted, illustrated excerpt of the public-domain 1911 classic); The Miracle of Spring = Play (by Helen Hanna, illus. Olga Baumert; a courtroom-fable drama with animal characters); The Poem That Will Not End = Poetry (by Joan Bransfield Graham, illus. Kyrsten Brooker; a collection of linked poems in many forms). Only the OCR-excerpted text was used; no outside plot from the original novels was added.
- IB (Worksheet C): the PYP concepts — Perspective, Imagination, Form, Creativity, Inquiry — follow the Source-of-Truth themes of this genre module. The Essential Question text on Q5 matches the workbook word for word. Korean teacher guidance appears in Section C only; Sections A, B, and D are in English. No model answer adds a fact outside the source — the IB model answers describe only what the OCR-excerpted selections actually show.
- MAP (Worksheet D): four NEW passages (196 / 199 / 197 / 199 words), RIT 205→225, Lexile 640L–940L. None recall the four anchor selections; each is a different literary text (a lighthouse keeper's cat, three genres telling one tale, a boy who speaks in rhyme, and a hidden attic), in keeping with this literature-heavy module.
- Answer balance: 82 multiple-choice items distribute as 21 "A" / 20 "B" / 21 "C" / 20 "D"; every meaning is preserved from the Source of Truth.

MAP Mini-Passage Word Counts (Worksheet D)

- Passage 1 · The Lighthouse Keeper's Cat · 196 words · Lexile 640–720L · RIT 205–211
- Passage 2 · The Same Tale, Told Three Ways · 199 words · Lexile 720–820L · RIT 211–217
- Passage 3 · The Boy Who Spoke in Rhyme · 197 words · Lexile 760–860L · RIT 217–222
- Passage 4 · The Attic Door · 199 words · Lexile 820–940L · RIT 219–225

Word counts match the workbook passage meta exactly. All four within target band 160–230 words; RIT 205→225; Lexile 640L–940L. Each passage is literary (narrative/genre-focused), matching this module's literature focus. Passages are NEW — no recall of the four anchor selections.

What This Module Does NOT Contain (Guardrails)

- No "Power Words" label — the G5 source says "Critical Vocabulary."
- No Worksheet E — this workbook series uses four worksheets (A · B · C · D).
- The module quote is by Alice Hoffman and is the EPIGRAPH only — it is NOT a story author. Alice Hoffman is a real American novelist.
- "Many Ways to Tell a Story" is the Big-Idea Short Read / Informational Text (no Critical Vocabulary panel) and is excluded from the per-selection units; it carries the 4 Big Idea Words instead. Its author is unverified — no byline in the source.
- Critical Vocabulary counts are 9 / 5 / 5 / 7 = 26, not evened out. Big Idea (4) + Critical (26) = 30 total. Airborn genuinely has 9 (the longest panel); The Secret Garden and The Miracle of Spring genuinely have 5 each.
- Airborn's creatures, The Miracle of Spring's animal courtroom, and The Poem That Will Not End's poems are FICTIONAL/literary content. The Secret Garden is an excerpt of a real public-domain classic; no plot beyond the excerpt was invented.
- The opener Get Curious video is "Lena and The Lonely Peony: A Story Told in Three Genres." This module has NO in-module video selection; the TOC "MEDIA: VIDEO" entry belongs to Module 3 and is out of scope.
- The topic strand is "LANGUAGE ARTS CONNECTION: Story Elements." Module 3 "Natural Disasters" (Who Studies Natural Disasters?, Eruption!, Between the Glacier and the Sea, Quaking Earth Racing Waves, Hurricanes) is OUT OF SCOPE and is not conflated with any Module-2 selection.
- Performance Task = "Write an Expository Essay."

Worksheet C — IB Critical Thinking · Answer Key

5 questions · PYP Key Concepts · DOK 2–4

Q1 Perspective DOK 3

In "Airborn," show what Matt and Kate each believe about the creatures, then explain how the first-person point of view shapes the story.

MODEL ANSWER

What Matt Believes: Matt, the cabin boy who tells the story, doubts that the flying creatures are real. He thinks Benjamin Molloy was ill and that "his fevered brain had projected these things." He notices that the last journal entries become smeared and strange, as if Molloy was dreaming. What Kate Believes: Kate firmly believes her grandfather truly saw the creatures. She points out that the whole sky has not yet been explored and that airships have been flying for only about fifty years, so no one can be sure the creatures do not exist. The Evidence They Use: Matt points to the strange, dreamlike final entries; Kate points to Molloy's careful, detailed drawings and the huge unexplored skies. What this shows: Because the story is told by Matt in the first person, using the word "I," we see everything through his doubt first. If Kate told the story instead, the same events would feel full of belief and hope. The point of view shapes how the reader feels about the creatures and about who is right.

KEYWORDS (3)

- Matt = doubts the creatures, thinks Molloy was ill and imagined them
- Kate = believes the creatures are real, the sky is unexplored
- point of view = first-person Matt shapes how we judge the creatures

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): what Matt believes + what Kate believes + an explanation of point of view, using the words point of view.
- Partial (2): names both views but no clear explanation of point of view.
- Minimal (1): only "they disagree" with no example.

Q2 Imagination DOK 3

In "The Secret Garden," show the steps Mary takes to get inside the hidden garden, then explain the lesson.

MODEL ANSWER

The Problem: Mary has found an old key, but she does not know where the door to the secret garden is, so she cannot use the key. The garden has been walled off and locked for ten years. What She Did: Mary kept skipping and exploring near the wall, watching closely. When a strong gust of wind swung aside the trailing ivy, she jumped toward it and caught it, because she had seen something underneath — the round knob of a door. She brushed the leaves aside, found the lock, fitted the key, and turned it with both hands. What She Found: She pushed the door open and stepped into the still, mysterious garden, where leafless roses were matted together and the grass was a wintry brown — a forgotten place that filled her with wonder. What this shows: Mary did not give up when she could not find the door at first. Her patience and curiosity led her to discover a hidden world that no one had seen for ten years.

KEYWORDS (3)

problem = she has the key but cannot find the door

what she did = watched, the wind moved the ivy, she found the knob and turned the key what she found = a still, mysterious garden hidden for ten years

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): the problem + what she did + what she found, using the word curiosity.
- Partial (2): names the problem OR the discovery, but not the steps.
- Minimal (1): only "she opened a garden" with no steps.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Three boxes.

강사: "Fill three boxes: The Problem, What She Did, What She Found."

코멘트. 세 칸 — 문제·한 일·발견한 것. 각 칸 채우기.

Step 2 · Find the moment.

Q3 Form DOK 3

In "The Miracle of Spring," the story is told as a PLAY. Compare how a play tells a story with how a regular story (prose) tells one, then explain the lesson.

MODEL ANSWER

A Play (Drama): "The Miracle of Spring" is written as a play. It is told mostly through the characters' dialogue — what Crow, Judge Wise Owl, Eager Beaver, and King Bartholomew actually say to one another. It uses stage directions in italics to show actions, such as the judge "pounding gavel," and it is divided into scenes. Actors could perform it on a stage. A Regular Story (Prose): A regular story uses sentences and paragraphs. A narrator describes what happens and tells us the characters' thoughts, instead of giving lines for actors to speak. The Lesson: Because it is a play, we learn about the trial by hearing the characters argue and by reading the stage directions, not from a narrator. What this shows: The genre changes how the story is told. Telling this funny courtroom trial as a play makes it fun to watch and to perform, because the audience hears the animals' arguments and sees the action happen on stage.

KEYWORDS (3)

play = dialogue, stage directions, scenes, made to be performed prose = a narrator describes events in sentences and paragraphs lesson = the genre (a play) changes how the story is told and felt

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): how a play tells a story (with a feature) + how prose tells one + the lesson about genre.
- Partial (2): describes one form but not the contrast, or no lesson.
- Minimal (1): only "it is a play" with no detail.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Two columns.

강사: "Make two columns: A Play / A Regular Story."
코멘트. 두 칸 — 희곡 / 보통 이야기(산문).

Step 2 · Spot the features.

강사: "Underline a line of dialogue and a stage direction in the play."
코멘트. 희곡에서 대사 한 줄과 지문(무대 지시) 하나에 밑줄.

Step 3 · Form sentence.

강사: "Finish: 'A play tells the story by ____, but prose tells it by ____.'"
코멘트. 문장 완성 — '희곡은 ____로 이야기하고, 산문은 ____로 이야기한다.'

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "How do we learn what happens in a play?"
  희곡에서는 무슨 일이 일어나는지 어떻게 알게 될까?
- "What do stage directions tell the actors?"
  무대 지시문은 배우에게 무엇을 알려 줄까?

- "Why is a courtroom trial fun to watch as a play?"
  법정 재판은 왜 희곡으로 보면 재미있을까?

DIFFERENTIATION

STRUGGLING Match 2 cards ("a line of dialogue" / "a narrator's paragraph") to play and prose.

카드 2장 — '대사 한 줄'과 '해설 문단'을 희곡·산문과 매칭.

ADVANCED Rewrite one line of the trial as prose, then explain what changed.

재판의 한 대목을 산문으로 바꿔 쓰고 무엇이 달라졌는지 설명.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "Stage directions are spoken aloud." They tell actors what to do; they are not part of the dialogue.

무대 지시문은 소리 내어 말하는 게 아님 — 배우 행동 안내.

PITFALL "A play has no narrator, so it cannot tell a story." A play tells the story through dialogue and action instead.

해설자가 없어도 이야기는 가능 — 대사와 행동으로 전달.

LEARNER PROFILE LINK

COMMUNICATORS A play shares its story through the characters' spoken words.

희곡은 인물의 대사로 이야기를 전달 — Communicator.

THINKERS Comparing a play with prose is real thinking about form.

Q4 Creativity DOK 3

In "The Poem That Will Not End," show one SOUND tool and one FORM the poet uses, then explain what poetry can do that prose cannot.

MODEL ANSWER

A Sound Tool: The poet uses rhyme and rhythm. In the poem "Rhythm," the rhyming words beat, delete, rhyme, time, and feet follow an AABBA pattern, and the bouncing rhythm has the poet "clapping and tapping" his feet. A refrain — a phrase that repeats — is another sound tool poets use. A Poetic Form: The poem "Rhythm" is labeled a Limerick, a short, funny five-line form. The selection puts a label after many poems so readers can learn the form. What this shows: Poetry can do things prose cannot. By using sound and shape — rhyme, rhythm, and short forms like the limerick — the poet makes words feel musical and playful. This is why the author chose poetry, not prose, to show how a poet's imagination can turn everyday moments, like eating breakfast, into something that bounces and sings on the page.

KEYWORDS (3)

sound tool = rhyme and rhythm (AABBA in "Rhythm"); a repeated refrain form = a limerick, a short five-line poem poetry vs prose = sound and shape make words musical and playful

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): one sound tool + one form + an explanation of what poetry can do, using the word imagination.
- Partial (2): names a sound tool and a form but no clear explanation.
- Minimal (1): only "it rhymes" with no form or explanation.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Two columns.

강사: "Make two columns: A Sound Tool / A Poetic Form."

코멘트. 두 칸 — 소리 도구 / 시의 형식.

Step 2 · Find the rhyme.

강사: "Underline the rhyming words in 'Rhythm' and read the form label."

코멘트. 'Rhythm'의 운(rhyme) 단어에 밑줄, 형식 라벨 읽기.

Step 3 · Poetry sentence.

강사: "Finish: 'Poetry can ___ that prose cannot, because ___.'"

코멘트. 문장 완성 — '시는 산문이 못 하는 ____을 할 수 있는데, 그 이유는 ____이다.'

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "Which words rhyme in the poem 'Rhythm'?"
  시 'Rhythm'에서 어떤 단어들이 운을 이룰까?
- "Why does the author label the poem 'Limerick'?"
  작가는 왜 시에 'Limerick(리머릭)' 라벨을 붙일까?
- "What can a poem do that a paragraph cannot?"
  시는 문단이 못 하는 무엇을 할 수 있을까?

DIFFERENTIATION

STRUGGLING Match 2 cards ("words that rhyme" / "a five-line limerick") to sound tool and form.

카드 2장 — '운을 이루는 단어'와 '다섯 줄 리머릭'을 소리 도구·형식과 매칭.

ADVANCED Write your own two rhyming lines and name the sound tool you used.

운을 맞춘 두 줄을 직접 쓰고 사용한 소리 도구를 말하기.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "All poems must rhyme." Not all do, but they all have rhythm (SoT GENRE STUDY).

모든 시가 운을 맞추는 건 아님 — 단, 모두 리듬이 있음.

PITFALL "A poem is just a short story." A poem uses sound and shape, such as rhyme, rhythm, and stanzas.

Q5 Inquiry DOK 4

Essential Question: How does genre affect the way a story is told? Use ideas from TWO of the selections in this module to answer.

MODEL ANSWER

The genre, or kind, of a story changes the way it is told. In "The Miracle of Spring," the genre is a play. The story of King Bartholomew's trial is told through the characters' dialogue and stage directions, and it is divided into scenes, so we learn what happens by hearing the animals argue and by reading the directions for the actors. In "The Poem That Will Not End," the genre is poetry. The poet's ideas are shared through sound and shape — rhyme, rhythm, and short forms like the limerick — so the words feel musical and playful instead of plain. My Big Idea: As Alice Hoffman said, "They weren't true stories; they were better than that." The same kinds of feelings and events can be told in many genres — a fantasy adventure like "Airborn," a realistic story like "The Secret Garden," a play, or a poem — and each genre gives the writer different tools. A play uses dialogue and action; a poem uses sound and form. So the genre shapes not only how a story is told, but how it makes the reader think and feel.

KEYWORDS (3)

The Miracle of Spring = a play, told through dialogue and stage directions in scenes

The Poem That Will Not End = poetry, told through rhyme, rhythm, and form

Big Idea: each genre gives the writer different tools to tell a story

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (4): two selections named + how each genre shapes the telling + a Big Idea answering the EQ.
- Partial (3): two selections + genre features, Big Idea weak.
- Developing (2): one selection only.
- Minimal (1): generic ("stories are different") without naming a selection.

SYNTHESIS FRAME

SELECTION 1 IDEA	CONNECTING WORD	SELECTION 2 IDEA
Name the genre and how it shapes the telling: Airborn = fantasy/adventure, told in first person through Matt; The Secret Garden = realistic fiction, third-person, believable setting; The Miracle of Spring = a play, dialogue and stage directions; The Poem That Will Not End = poetry, rhyme and form.	BOTH / WHILE — joins two selections (for example The Miracle of Spring WHILE The Poem That Will Not End) into one Big Idea answering "How does genre affect the way a story is told?"	A different genre than Selection 1 — so the two show two different ways genre shapes a story's telling.

Approaching (2)	Names 2 selections but only retells the plot — no clear answer to the EQ.
Beginning (1)	Generic ("stories are different") without text evidence.

> Watch out: Many G5 students will just retell one story (Mary opened a garden; a king was on trial) and stop. Push them to name the GENRE and a tool it uses — dialogue and stage directions in a play, rhyme and form in a poem, point of view in a novel — and to write a Big Idea. The EQ asks HOW genre affects the telling, not just what each text is about.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Two selection cards.

강사: "Pick 2 selections. For each, name its genre."

코멘트. 선택지 둘 — 각각의 장르를 적기.

Step 2 · Name the tool.

강사: "Under each, write one tool the genre uses to tell the story."

코멘트. 각각 아래 — 그 장르가 이야기에 쓰는 도구 하나 적기.

Step 3 · Big Idea sentence.

강사: "Write one sentence answering the EQ. Use both selections."

코멘트. EQ에 답하는 한 문장 — 두 선택지 모두 사용.

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "What genre is each selection you chose?"
  고른 선택지마다 장르가 무엇이니?
- "How does a play tell a story differently from a poem?"
  희곡은 시와 어떻게 다르게 이야기를 들려줄까?

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "Retelling a plot answers the EQ." The EQ asks HOW genre shapes the telling, not just what each text is about.
