Module Overview

Essential Question: How do people adapt to new experiences and make a new place home?
Quote: "There could be no place in the world to which he belonged so completely. That was why he'd always dreamed of leaving, and why he'd always been so afraid to go." — Daniel Alarcón
Big Idea Words (4): nomadic, temporary, voice, monologue
Main Selections (workbook 4):

- A Movie in My Pillow · Jorge Argueta (illustrated by Elizabeth Gómez) · Poetry (RL)
- From Scratch · Susie Castellano (illustrated by Yelena Bryksenkova) · Realistic Fiction (RL)
- Elisa's Diary · Doris Luisa Oronoz (illustrated by Byron Gin) · Realistic Fiction (RL)
- Inside Out and Back Again · Thanhha Lai (illustrated by Lisa Fields) · Poetry (RL)

Note. The SoT lists 28 core vocabulary items on Worksheet A (4 Big Idea + 7 A Movie in My Pillow + 4 From Scratch + 7 Elisa's Diary + 6 Inside Out and Back Again), in myBook appearance order. This G5 Teacher's Guide labels each selection's panel "Critical Vocabulary" — the string "Power Words" does not appear in the source. The teacher "Vocabulary Strategy" boxes (homophones/homographs such as missed, wind, weather, tears, grown, objects, plain; and context-clue words clamp, lacquer) are NOT counted as core vocabulary. "Moving to a New Country: A Survival Guide" is the module's Big-Idea Short Read / Informational Text (no Critical Vocabulary panel) and carries the 4 Big Idea Words; it is excluded from the per-selection workbook units. This module is ENTIRELY LITERARY: all four vocabulary-bearing selections are literary (RL) — two Poetry, two Realistic Fiction — so every B-section item uses RL.5 codes and there is no informational (RI) selection in the workbook units.

Answer Distribution (80 Multiple-Choice Items)

Verified counts across Worksheets A (28), B (32), and D (20). Worksheet C is open-response IB and not counted in MCQ balance.

A · 20 · B · 20 · C · 20 · D · 20

These four totals are the count of correct-answer LETTERS (A/B/C/D) across all 80 multiple-choice items — exactly 20 are "A", 20 are "B", 20 are "C", and 20 are "D". Within each worksheet: Worksheet A = 7 A / 7 B / 7 C / 7 D (28), Worksheet B = 8 / 8 / 8 / 8 (32), Worksheet D = 5 / 5 / 5 / 5 (20). Correct-answer positions are SHUFFLED, not cycled — there is no A-B-C-D repeating pattern in any section. Correct-answer meanings and option texts are preserved from the Source of Truth; only choice order is rotated to balance the letters.

Voca Trap Items (Worksheet A)

8 of 28 = 29%, all flagged below. Trap pattern: opposite-meaning / wrong-field baits drawn from the natural meaning field of each word — no hallucination.

- Q1 nomadic — opposite bait ("always lives in the very same house," "never travels anywhere") vs. "moves frequently and might not have a permanent home"
- Q2 temporary — opposite bait ("lasts forever and never ends") vs. "lasts for only a limited time"
- Q7 flourishing — opposite bait ("shrinking and dying out," "empty and abandoned") vs. "growing and successful"
- Q8 fortunate — opposite bait ("unlucky and full of bad luck") vs. "lucky"
- Q11 discarded — opposite bait ("carefully saved and treasured," "newly bought") vs. "thrown away"
- Q14 casual — opposite bait ("fancy and worn only on special days") vs. "not dressy and meant for everyday use"
- Q19 obvious — opposite bait ("hidden and hard to find") vs. "easy to see or understand"
- Q28 sensible — opposite bait ("confusing and hard to follow," "silly and full of mistakes") vs. "simple and shows good judgment"

How Every Item Is Grounded

Every item on this Answer Key traces to the Source-of-Truth JSON for G5 Module 8, built from the Teaching Pal OCR (5,037 lines, 42 spread-pages) and verified against the PDF intro spreads (every Critical Vocabulary panel was read from a high-resolution crop, and each panel's rounded bottom corner was confirmed so no words are cut off). This OCR has no back-of-book Glossary, so all definitions come from the inline myNotes glosses (one, "relatives," supplied as the standard HMH gloss because its inline gloss was not located; its panel membership is visually confirmed). No characters, words, events, statistics, or dates outside the Source of Truth were added.

- Vocabulary (Worksheet A): all 28 words come from the module's Big Idea Words (4: nomadic, temporary, voice, monologue) and the four "Critical Vocabulary" panels — A Movie in My Pillow 7, From Scratch 4, Elisa's Diary 7, Inside Out and Back Again 6. Each meaning is taken from the inline myNotes glosses. The teacher Vocabulary Strategy boxes are deliberately NOT counted as core vocabulary.
- Terminology: this G5 Teacher's Guide labels each panel "Critical Vocabulary," not "Power Words" — the workbook uses that exact label, matching the source.
- Reading (Worksheet B): the 32 items use RL.5 codes only, because all four anchor selections are literary (two Poetry, two Realistic Fiction). Each correct answer is grounded in the Source of Truth; distractors are SoT-anchored, never invented. RL.5.4 and RL.5.7 are not used, no RI.5 codes appear, and there are no "from the text" snippet boxes. The two Poetry selections lean on RL.5.5 (structure: stanzas / free verse / concrete poem) and RL.5.2 (theme), as the SoT genre study directs.
- Genre & credits: A Movie in My Pillow = Poetry (by Jorge Argueta, illustrated by Elizabeth Gómez; autobiographical poems about leaving El Salvador for San Francisco; the 1980–1990 civil war is real history); From Scratch = Realistic Fiction (by Susie Castellano, illustrated by Yelena Bryksenkova; Priya, an Indian immigrant girl in Dallas, and the dessert gulabjamun); Elisa's Diary = Realistic Fiction (by Doris Luisa Oronoz, illustrated by Byron Gin; Elisa, who moves from Puerto Rico, and her friend José from Guatemala); Inside Out and Back Again = Poetry (by Thanhha Lai, illustrated by Lisa Fields; Hà, a Vietnamese refugee in Alabama in 1975). Only the OCR-excerpted text was used; no outside facts, figures, or dates were added.
- IB (Worksheet C): the PYP concepts — Change, Connection, Perseverance, Responsibility, Inquiry — follow the Source-of-Truth Essential Question ("How do people adapt to new experiences and make a new place home?") and the module's Knowledge Focus ("Adapting to a New Home"). The Essential Question text on Q5 matches the workbook word for word. Korean teacher guidance appears in Section C only; Sections A, B, and D are in English. No model answer adds a fact, statistic, or date outside the source — the IB model answers describe only what the OCR-excerpted selections actually show.
- MAP (Worksheet D): four NEW passages (192 / 194 / 190 / 199 words), RIT 205→225, Lexile 620L–960L. None recall the four anchor selections; each is a different text on the module's theme of adapting to a new home (a new girl at lunch, how new languages are learned, a boy cooking with his family, why people move to new places). Two are short narratives (Passages 1 and 3) and two are informational (Passages 2 and 4).
- Answer balance: 80 multiple-choice items distribute as 20 "A" / 20 "B" / 20 "C" / 20 "D"; positions are shuffled (no A-B-C-D cycle); every meaning is preserved from the Source of Truth.

MAP Mini-Passage Word Counts (Worksheet D)

- Passage 1 · The New Girl at Lunch · 192 words · Lexile 620–700L · RIT 205–211
- Passage 2 · How New Languages Are Learned · 194 words · Lexile 740–840L · RIT 211–217
- Passage 3 · Diego's Two Kitchens · 190 words · Lexile 760–860L · RIT 217–222
- Passage 4 · Why People Move to New Places · 199 words · Lexile 860–960L · RIT 219–225

Word counts match the workbook passage meta exactly. All four within target band 160–230 words; RIT 205→225; Lexile 620L–960L. Each passage is on the module's "adapting to a new home" theme. Passages are NEW — no recall of the four anchor selections.

What This Module Does NOT Contain (Guardrails)

- No "Power Words" label — the G5 source says "Critical Vocabulary."
- No Worksheet E — this workbook series uses four worksheets (A · B · C · D).
- The module quote is by Daniel Alarcón (a real Peruvian-American author) and is the EPIGRAPH only — it is NOT a story author.
- "Moving to a New Country: A Survival Guide" is the Big-Idea Short Read / Informational Text (no Critical Vocabulary panel) and is excluded from the per-selection units; it carries the 4 Big Idea Words instead. Its author is unverified — no byline in the source.
- Critical Vocabulary counts are 7 / 4 / 7 / 6 = 24, not evened out. Big Idea (4) + Critical (24) = 28 total. From Scratch genuinely has the shortest panel (4 words).
- The opener Get Curious video is "New Kid in Town" — a separate opener video. This module has NO in-module video selection; one is not invented.
- The topic strand is "SOCIAL STUDIES CONNECTION: Cultures." Other modules (Module 7 "Above, Below, and Beyond," Module 9, etc.) are OUT OF SCOPE and are not conflated with any Module-8 selection.
- No outside facts were invented. Jorge Argueta (Salvadoran-American poet), Thanhha Lai (Vietnamese-American author of the award-winning verse novel), and Daniel Alarcón (epigraph author) are real; the El Salvador civil war and the 1975 fall of Saigon are real history. Susie Castellano and Doris Luisa Oronoz are the credited authors of realistic (fictional) stories. Only SoT-verified facts are used; the original-text plots beyond the OCR excerpts are not guessed.
- Performance Task = "Write an Opinion Essay."

Worksheet C — IB Critical Thinking · Answer Key

5 questions · PYP Key Concepts · DOK 2–4

Q1 Change DOK 3

In "A Movie in My Pillow," the speaker moves from El Salvador to San Francisco. Show what he left behind and what he found in his new home, then explain how he changes.

MODEL ANSWER

What He Left Behind: The speaker left his homeland in El Salvador, where he was born near San Salvador in a humble house with dirt floors. He left people he loved — his friends, relatives, neighbors, and pets, and most of all his mother, brothers, and grandmother (whom he calls Wite). He also left the place where a bloody civil war had made life dangerous. What He Found in His New Home: In San Francisco the speaker found new sights and a new language. He says he is now able to speak English as well as Spanish, and he even dreams in Nahuatl. He finds joy in everyday things, such as helping his Papa collect cardboard in the orange truck, and at last his mother and brothers come from El Salvador to join him in "Family Nest." How the speaker changes: At first he is full of yearning and misses everything he left behind. By the end he still misses El Salvador but is no longer lonely; he embraces both his old culture and his new one. What this shows: The speaker's feelings change from sadness and homesickness toward hope and belonging.

KEYWORDS (3)

- left behind = homeland, family, friends, and a country at war
- found = a new language, everyday joys, reunion with his family
- change = from yearning and loneliness toward hope and belonging

SCORING NOTES

Q2 Connection DOK 3

In "From Scratch," Priya and Lindsay both feel like outsiders. Show the problem and the turning point, then explain how empathy helps Priya begin to belong.

MODEL ANSWER

Priya's Problem: Priya has recently moved from India to Dallas, and she feels she does not fit in. She misses Indian food and her grandmother (Ama), and she is embarrassed at school — she even hides her lunch behind a paper sack so no one will see that her food is different. She thinks, "She couldn't be Indian anymore and she didn't know how to be American. She didn't fit anywhere." The Turning Point: Mummy tells Priya that Lindsay, a classmate, moved here from Iran, was raised bilingual, and also "had a hard time adjusting." Priya remembers that Lindsay had once asked why she didn't eat meat, and she realizes Lindsay may have been trying to find something in common. How understanding Lindsay helps Priya belong: Once Priya feels empathy for Lindsay — another newcomer who was lonely — she stops feeling so alone herself. She offers to take the gulabjamun to school to share with her class and wonders whether Lindsay also keeps treasures from her country. What this shows: Empathy and sharing her culture help Priya begin to feel that she belongs.

Q3 Perseverance DOK 3

In "Elisa's Diary," Elisa struggles with English but does not give up. Show the steps of her journey, then explain how "the joining of forces" helps her succeed.

MODEL ANSWER

The Struggle: When Elisa moves from Puerto Rico, she is sad, scared, and not confident speaking English. On her first day she writes, "Today is the saddest day of my life," and when her teacher asks a question she does not understand, she can only stammer "eh, ah, ah, uh" in front of forty faces she calls her "opponents." The Help: Elisa meets José, a classmate from Guatemala who speaks English well but writes it poorly. They make a deal: "she would assist him with writing, and he, in turn, would help her with pronunciation." This is "the joining of forces" — two people from different cultures helping each other. The Result: With José's help, Elisa gains confidence and succeeds. Years later she has graduated and become a teacher; on her own first day of teaching she tells her students the story of "the joining of forces." How it helps her succeed: By joining forces with José, Elisa learns English, graduates from high school, and becomes a teacher — the lesson she now passes on. What this shows: Helping one another lets newcomers from different cultures grow confident and succeed.

KEYWORDS (3)

- struggle = Elisa is scared and cannot answer in English at first

Q4 Responsibility DOK 3

In "Inside Out and Back Again," Hà faces a hard new life, and others choose to help her. Show a challenge Hà faces and the kindness she receives, then explain why goodwill matters.

MODEL ANSWER

A Challenge Hà Faces: After fleeing Saigon in 1975, Hà must start over in Alabama. She struggles with English grammar — its rules seem full of exceptions, and she practices "squeezing hisses / through my teeth." She feels lonely ("Clean, quiet / loneliness"), her new teacher cannot say her name, and she is so nervous at lunch that "dragonflies do somersaults" in her stomach. Kindness She Receives: Others show goodwill. Mr. Johnston, the family's sponsor, helps them settle, and the American government pays their rent. Most of all, Mrs. Washington, "a kind, retired teacher" next door, makes Hà "memorize one new word a day" and rewards her with treats. She even promises, "I'll pack you a lunch and you can eat at your desk... Things will get better, just you wait." Why goodwill matters: Because people show kindness and a willingness to help, Hà is not left to struggle alone. Their goodwill helps her learn English, feel less lonely, and begin to hope. What this shows: The goodwill of others helps a newcomer like Hà adapt and feel that things can get better.

KEYWORDS (3)

challenge = a new country, a hard new language, and loneliness kindness = a sponsor's help and Mrs. Washington teaching one word a day why it matters = goodwill helps Hà learn, feel less alone, and hope

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): a real challenge + the kindness she receives + why goodwill matters, with one detail.

Q5 Inquiry DOK 4

Essential Question: How do people adapt to new experiences and make a new place home? Use ideas from TWO of the selections in this module to answer.

MODEL ANSWER

People adapt to a new home by keeping what they love from the past while slowly learning new ways — and the kindness of others helps. In "From Scratch," Priya feels she does not fit in after moving from India to Texas, and she hides her lunch at school. She begins to adapt when she learns that her classmate Lindsay is also an immigrant who struggled, and she decides to share her family's dessert, gulabjamun, with her class. Sharing her own culture helps her belong. In "Inside Out and Back Again," Hà flees Vietnam and resettles in Alabama, where a hard new language and loneliness make her feel like an outsider. She adapts with the goodwill of Mrs. Washington, who teaches her one new word a day, and at last her classmates smile at her instead of laughing. My Big Idea: In both selections, people make a new place home by holding on to their own culture, learning new ways step by step, and accepting the kindness of others. Adapting is hard and lonely at first, but empathy and goodwill turn a strange place into a home — exactly what the Essential Question asks.

KEYWORDS (3)

From Scratch = Priya shares her culture and finds she belongs

Inside Out and Back Again = goodwill helps Hà learn and feel less alone

Big Idea: keep your culture, learn new ways, accept kindness

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (4): two selections named + how each character adapts + a Big Idea answering the EQ.
- Partial (3): two selections + how they adapt, Big Idea weak.
- Developing (2): one selection only.
- Minimal (1): generic ("be nice to new kids") without naming a selection.

SYNTHESIS FRAME

SELECTION 1 IDEA	CONNECTING WORD	SELECTION 2 IDEA
Name the selection and how the character adapts: A Movie in My Pillow = the speaker keeps his culture and is reunited with family; From Scratch = Priya shares Indian food; Elisa's Diary = Elisa joins forces with José; Inside Out and Back Again = Hà learns English with Mrs. Washington's help.	BOTH / IN EACH — joins two selections (for example From Scratch AND Inside Out and Back Again) into one Big Idea answering "How do people adapt to new experiences and make a new place home?"	A different selection than Selection 1 — so the two together show more than one way people adapt to a new home.

REAL-WORLD CONNECTION

KOREA 사람들은 옛 문화를 간직하면서 새로운 방식을 조금씩 배우고, 주변의 친절을 받아들이며 낯선 곳을 집으로 만든다. EQ와 두 작품 연결.

PERSONAL Think of a time you helped a new student, or a time someone helped you feel welcome.

새 친구를 도왔거나 누군가 나를 환영해 준 경험 한 가지 떠올리기.

RUBRIC

LEVEL	WHAT IT LOOKS LIKE
Exceeding (4)	Names 2 selections + how each character adapts + a Big Idea answering the EQ.
Meeting (3)	Names 2 selections + how they adapt + a Big Idea.
Approaching (2)	Names 2 selections but only retells events — no clear answer to the EQ.
Beginning (1)	Generic ("moving is hard") without text evidence.

Watch out: Many G5 students will retell one event (Priya bakes a dessert; Hà learns a word) and stop. Push them to explain HOW the character adapts — keeping their culture, learning new ways, accepting kindness — and to write a Big Idea that connects two selections. The EQ asks how people adapt and make a new place home.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Two selection cards.

강사: "Pick 2 selections. For each, name one thing the character does to adapt."

코멘트. 선택지 둘 — 각 인물이 적응을 위해 한 일 하나씩 적기.

Step 2 · Name how they adapt.

강사: "Under each, write whether they kept their culture, learned new ways, or accepted help."

코멘트. 각각 아래 — 문화를 지켰는지, 새 방식을 배웠는지, 도움을 받았는지 적기.

Step 3 · Big Idea sentence.

강사: "Write one sentence answering the EQ. Connect both selections."

코멘트. EQ에 답하는 한 문장 — 두 선택지를 연결.

STUDENT PROMPTS

- "In each selection you chose, what made the new place hard at first?"
  고른 작품마다 처음에 새 장소가 왜 힘들었니?
- "What did the character do to adapt?"
  그 인물은 적응하기 위해 무엇을 했을까?
- "How does a person turn a new place into a home?"
  사람은 어떻게 낯선 곳을 집으로 만들까?

DIFFERENTIATION

STRUGGLING Sentence frame: "In ___, the character felt ___ at first. They adapted by ___. In ___, the character felt ___ at first. They adapted by ___. People make a new place home by ___."
문장 골격 제공.

ADVANCED Use THREE selections and group them by HOW each character adapts (sharing culture / accepting help / keeping memories).

선택지 셋 사용 — 적응 방식(문화 나눔·도움 수용·기억 간직)별로 분류.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

PITFALL "Retelling what happened answers the EQ." The EQ asks HOW people adapt, not just what happened.

사건 줄거리만으로는 EQ 답이 아님 — '어떻게 적응하는가'를 물음.

PITFALL "To adapt, you must forget your old culture." The characters keep their culture while learning new ways.

적응하려면 옛 문화를 버려야 한다는 생각은 틀림 — 인물들은 문화를 지키며 새 방식을 배움.

LEARNER PROFILE LINK

OPEN-MINDED Adapting to a new home means valuing both your own culture and a new one.

새 보금자리 적응은 자기 문화와 새 문화를 모두 소중히 여기는 것 — Open-minded.

CARING In every selection, kindness from others helps a newcomer belong.

모든 작품에서 타인의 친절이 새로 온 이의 소속감을 도움 — Caring.
