Module Overview

Essential Question: What makes something mysterious, and what makes people want to solve mysteries?
Quote: "The true mystery of the world is the visible, not the invisible." — Oscar Wilde
Big Idea Words (4): falsify, effect, suspense, factor
Main Selections (workbook 4):

- Mr. Linden's Library · Walter Dean Myers (illustrated by Ivan Kravetz) · Mystery (RL)
- The Loch Ness Monster · from National Geographic · Video / Documentary (RI)
- Finding Bigfoot: Everything You Need to Know · Martha Brockenbrough · Informational Text (RI)
- The Secret Keepers · Trenton Lee Stewart (illustrated by Chris King) · Mystery (RL)

Note. The SoT lists 32 core vocabulary items on Worksheet A (4 Big Idea + 9 Mr. Linden's Library + 5 The Loch Ness Monster + 5 Finding Bigfoot + 9 The Secret Keepers), in myBook appearance order. This G5 Teacher's Guide labels each selection's panel "Critical Vocabulary" — the string "Power Words" does not appear in the source. The teacher "Vocabulary Strategy" boxes (homophones/homographs such as nights, lead, proceeds, watch, stairs, wound; and multiple-meaning words drop, matter) are NOT counted as core vocabulary. "Why People Love Mysteries" is the module's Big-Idea Short Read / Informational Text (no Critical Vocabulary panel) and carries the 4 Big Idea Words; it is excluded from the per-selection workbook units. This module is GENRE-BALANCED: two literary (RL) mysteries (Mr. Linden's Library, The Secret Keepers) and two informational (RI) selections (The Loch Ness Monster, a documentary video, and Finding Bigfoot, an informational text), so B-section items use RL.5 codes for the two mysteries and RI.5 codes for the two informational selections.

Answer Distribution (84 Multiple-Choice Items)

Verified counts across Worksheets A (32), B (32), and D (20). Worksheet C is open-response IB and not counted in MCQ balance.

A · 21 · B · 21 · C · 21 · D · 21

These four totals are the count of correct-answer LETTERS (A/B/C/D) across all 84 multiple-choice items — exactly 21 are "A", 21 are "B", 21 are "C", and 21 are "D". Within each worksheet: Worksheet A = 8 A / 8 B / 8 C / 8 D (32), Worksheet B = 8 / 8 / 8 / 8 (32), Worksheet D = 5 / 5 / 5 / 5 (20). Correct-answer positions are SHUFFLED, not cycled — there is no A-B-C-D repeating pattern in any section. Correct-answer meanings and option texts are preserved from the Source of Truth; only choice order is rotated to balance the letters.

Voca Trap Items (Worksheet A)

10 of 32 = 31%, all flagged below. Trap pattern: opposite-meaning / wrong-field baits drawn from the natural meaning field of each word — no hallucination.

- Q3 suspense — opposite bait ("calm and boredom," "complete certainty") vs. "excitement or anxiety due to an uncertain situation"
- Q5 formidable — opposite bait ("small, plain, and easy to ignore") vs. "a bit frightening but also impressive"
- Q6 relentlessly — opposite bait ("stops after only a moment," "once and never again") vs. "continues steadily and never stops"
- Q10 engulfed — opposite bait ("left out in the open and uncovered") vs. "surrounded or completely covered"
- Q14 chastised — opposite bait ("praised warmly," "rewarded with a prize") vs. "scolded severely"
- Q16 earnest — opposite bait ("only joking," "unsure whether you mean it") vs. "very serious and believe it to be true"
- Q19 misperception — opposite bait ("a clear and correct understanding," "a proven fact") vs. "a misunderstanding"
- Q21 elusive — opposite bait ("easy to find and simple to explain") vs. "hard to find or understand"
- Q28 feeble — opposite bait ("strong and powerful," "heavy and solid") vs. "weak"
- Q32 extinguished — opposite bait ("started to burn brightly," "begun to glow") vs. "stopped shining or burning, or come to an end"

How Every Item Is Grounded

Every item on this Answer Key traces to the Source-of-Truth JSON for G5 Module 9, built from the Teaching Pal OCR (4,423 lines, 35 spread-pages) and verified against the PDF intro spreads (every Critical Vocabulary panel was read from a high-resolution crop, and each panel's rounded bottom corner was confirmed so no words are cut off). This OCR excerpt ends at the Performance Task and has no back-of-book Glossary, so all definitions come from the inline myNotes glosses. No characters, words, events, statistics, or dates outside the Source of Truth were added.

- Vocabulary (Worksheet A): all 32 words come from the module's Big Idea Words (4: falsify, effect, suspense, factor) and the four "Critical Vocabulary" panels — Mr. Linden's Library 9, The Loch Ness Monster 5, Finding Bigfoot 5, The Secret Keepers 9. Each meaning is taken from the inline myNotes glosses. The teacher Vocabulary Strategy boxes are deliberately NOT counted as core vocabulary.
- Terminology: this G5 Teacher's Guide labels each panel "Critical Vocabulary," not "Power Words" — the workbook uses that exact label, matching the source.
- Reading (Worksheet B): the 32 items are genre-matched. The two mysteries (Mr. Linden's Library, The Secret Keepers) use RL.5 codes; the two informational selections (The Loch Ness Monster, Finding Bigfoot) use RI.5 codes. Each correct answer is grounded in the Source of Truth; distractors are SoT-anchored, never invented. RL.5.4, RL.5.7, RI.5.4, and RI.5.7 are not used (note: The Loch Ness Monster is a documentary video, but its media-to-text skill, RI.5.7, is excluded per the task spec; its items lean on RI.5.1/.2/.3/.6/.8 instead). There are no "from the text" snippet boxes.
- Genre & credits: Mr. Linden's Library = Mystery (by Walter Dean Myers, illustrated by Ivan Kravetz; Carol and the elderly seaman Josiah Linden, and a book whose page keeps changing); The Loch Ness Monster = Video / Documentary (from National Geographic; the real 1934 "surgeon's photo," R. Kenneth Wilson, and Christian Spurling's later confession that his stepfather Duke Wetherell faked it); Finding Bigfoot = Informational Text (by Martha Brockenbrough; cryptozoology, the arguments for and against bigfoot, the scientific method); The Secret Keepers = Mystery (by Trenton Lee Stewart, illustrated by Chris King; Reuben and a pocket watch that turns out to make him invisible). Only the OCR-excerpted text was used; no outside facts, figures, or plot beyond the excerpts were added.
- IB (Worksheet C): the PYP concepts — Form, Causation, Perspective, Reflection, Connection — follow the Source-of-Truth Essential Question ("What makes something mysterious, and what makes people want to solve mysteries?") and the module's Knowledge Focus ("Why We Enjoy Mysteries"). The Essential Question text on Q5 matches the workbook word for word. Korean teacher guidance appears in Section C only; Sections A, B, and D are in English. No model answer adds a fact, statistic, or date outside the source — the IB model answers describe only what the OCR-excerpted selections actually show.
- MAP (Worksheet D): four NEW passages (199 / 204 / 204 / 206 words), RIT 205→225, Lexile 620L–1000L. None recall the four anchor selections; each is a different text on the module's theme of mysteries and how people solve them (a crow that takes a ring, why people love mysteries, a classroom plant mystery, and unsolved mysteries of nature). Two are narratives (Passages 1 and 3) and two are informational (Passages 2 and 4).
- Answer balance: 84 multiple-choice items distribute as 21 "A" / 21 "B" / 21 "C" / 21 "D"; positions are shuffled (no A-B-C-D cycle); every meaning is preserved from the Source of Truth.

MAP Mini-Passage Word Counts (Worksheet D)

- Passage 1 · The Crow's Treasure · 199 words · Lexile 620–710L · RIT 205–211
- Passage 2 · Why People Love a Good Mystery · 204 words · Lexile 760–860L · RIT 211–217
- Passage 3 · The Classroom Plant Mystery · 204 words · Lexile 820–910L · RIT 217–222
- Passage 4 · Unsolved Mysteries of Nature · 206 words · Lexile 900–1000L · RIT 219–225

Word counts match the workbook passage meta exactly. All four within target band 160–230 words; RIT 205→225; Lexile 620L–1000L. Each passage is on the module's "unsolved mysteries" theme. Passages are NEW — no recall of the four anchor selections.

What This Module Does NOT Contain (Guardrails)

- No "Power Words" label — the G5 source says "Critical Vocabulary."
- No Worksheet E — this workbook series uses four worksheets (A · B · C · D).
- The module quote is by Oscar Wilde (a real Irish writer, 1854–1900) and is the EPIGRAPH only — it is NOT a story author.
- "Why People Love Mysteries" is the Big-Idea Short Read / Informational Text (no Critical Vocabulary panel) and is excluded from the per-selection units; it carries the 4 Big Idea Words instead. Its author is unverified — no byline in the source.
- Critical Vocabulary counts are 9 / 5 / 5 / 9 = 28, not evened out. Big Idea (4) + Critical (28) = 32 total.
- The opener Get Curious video is "What Was That?" — a separate opener video. The in-module VIDEO selection is "The Loch Ness Monster"; the two videos are not merged.
- The topic strand is "SCIENCE CONNECTION: Unsolved Mysteries." Other modules (Module 8 "A New Home," Module 10 "The Lives of Animals," etc.) are OUT OF SCOPE and are not conflated with any Module-9 selection. The bleed-through Module-10 items (Willie B., Why We Watch Animals, Dolphin Parenting, Can We Be Friends?, Winter Bees) are NOT part of this module.
- No outside facts were invented. Oscar Wilde (epigraph author), Walter Dean Myers (Mr. Linden's Library author), Martha Brockenbrough, and Trenton Lee Stewart are real; the Loch Ness video concerns real figures (R. Kenneth Wilson, Christian Spurling, Duke Wetherell) and the documented 1934 hoax. Mr. Linden's Library (Carol, Josiah Linden) and The Secret Keepers (Reuben, The Smoke) are fictional mystery stories — their endings and full plots beyond the OCR excerpts are not guessed.
- Performance Task = "Write an Opinion Essay."

Worksheet C — IB Critical Thinking · Answer Key

5 questions · PYP Key Concepts · DOK 2–4

Q1 Form DOK 3

In "Mr. Linden's Library," the book Tales From a Dark Sea is mysterious. Show the clue Carol notices and how she tries to explain it, then explain what makes the book mysterious.

MODEL ANSWER

A Clue Carol Notices: Carol reads the bookmarked page of Mr. Linden's book, Tales From a Dark Sea, which is page 201. The next time she looks, "It was still on page 201, but the text now ended farther down the page than she had remembered." The italic story about a boy named Esteban and a dolphin keeps growing and changing. Carol checks "the numbers of the pages before and after" and realizes the story is "changing from day to day." How Carol Tries to Explain It: At first Carol looks for a logical reason. She "turned over the book and studied it from as many angles as she could," then tells herself, "There had to be a logical explanation," and that she must have "allowed her imagination or some random thought to change the way she remembered the page." For a while she even decides "There were no mysteries in the real world." What makes the book mysterious: The book is mysterious because the same bookmarked page keeps changing on its own, with no explanation Carol can find, and Mr. Linden warns that some books "are better off never read, never opened." What this shows: The unexplained, changing page is what makes the book a true mystery.

KEYWORDS (3)

clue = page 201 keeps changing from day to day explain = Carol looks for a logical reason and tries to stay calm mysterious = the changing page has no explanation she can find

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (3): a clue + how Carol tries to explain it + what makes the book mysterious, with one detail.
- Partial (2): names the clue but not how she tries to explain it.
- Minimal (1): only "the book is strange" with no detail.

Q2 Causation DOK 3

In "The Loch Ness Monster," a famous photo made people believe in Nessie. Show the claim and the evidence that revealed the truth, then explain how the hoax was uncovered.

MODEL ANSWER

The Claim (1934): In 1934, R. Kenneth Wilson claimed he had taken a photograph of the Loch Ness Monster. This "surgeon's photo" made "Nessie" seem real, and the photo drew the world's attention. For a long time it stood as the strongest "proof" that the monster existed. The Evidence That Revealed the Truth: Sixty years later, a man named Christian Spurling admitted that the photo was a hoax. He revealed that his stepfather, Duke Wetherell, had falsified it. Wetherell had made "the head and neck of a monster" and attached them to "the top of a toy submarine," then launched the fake "Nessie" in Loch Ness and snapped the photo. How the hoax was uncovered: The hoax came to light through Spurling's confession. He explained that Wetherell faked the photo "because he wanted to get back at the Daily Mail for firing him." What this shows: A single confession turned a famous "proof" into a known fake, showing how careful checking can reveal the cause behind a mystery.

claim = Wilson's 1934 "surgeon's photo" of Nessie

evidence = Spurling's confession that the photo was faked

Q3 Perspective DOK 3

In "Finding Bigfoot," the author weighs reasons for and against the existence of bigfoot. Show one reason for each side, then explain why "healthy skepticism" matters.

MODEL ANSWER

A Reason For: The author gives reasons that support bigfoot in "The Arguments for Bigfoot." For example, there are many eyewitness accounts: "Many people who've had encounters are respected community members, including police officers and judges, who have a lot to lose by lying." She also points to physical evidence such as footprints, and to the fact that new animals — like a fly-sized frog and the lesula monkey — are discovered "all the time." A Reason Against: The doubters have a strong argument too. The author writes that people have been looking for a long time with technology such as cameras "that can detect heat," and "If there really were such a creature, all those... technology would have found proof." No body, skeleton, or DNA has ever been found. How to Decide: The author suggests using the scientific method — ask a question, research, make a guess, test it, and consider the results. Why "healthy skepticism" matters: The author says, "There's nothing wrong with a healthy dose of skepticism. That's how scientists get smarter. And open minds are the only ones that can learn new things." Skepticism and an open mind matter because they let people weigh real evidence instead of just believing or doubting. What this shows: Looking at both sides with an open, questioning mind is the fair way to investigate a mystery.

KEYWORDS (3)

for = eyewitness accounts, footprints, new animals found all the time against = long searches with technology have found no proof skepticism = an open, questioning mind weighs the evidence

SCORING NOTES

Q4 Reflection DOK 3

In "The Secret Keepers," Reuben does not give up on the watch's secret. Show the problem and how he solves it, then explain what his actions reveal about him.

MODEL ANSWER

The Problem Reuben Faces: Reuben has found an unusual pocket watch, and a watch expert, Mrs. Genevieve, has told him it "is not an ordinary watch for telling time." He wants to discover its secret, but he cannot find a way to open it, and a mysterious figure called The Smoke is hunting for it. He realizes, "the watch had a secret," and he must figure out how it works on his own. How He Solves It: Reuben experiments patiently. An old jack-in-the-box gives him the idea that the watch might "open up from the inside" if he sets it to a certain time and winds it. He tests setting after setting, hour by hour, even though nothing seems to happen. When he finally sets it to twelve o'clock and winds it, "everything went black." To be sure, he uses a toy digital camera to photograph himself holding the watch; the photo shows his bed and closet "but clearly not" Reuben — proving the watch makes him disappear. What his actions reveal: Reuben is patient and determined; he "tries the winding experiment again and again" and works like a careful investigator. What this shows: By experimenting step by step and not giving up, Reuben solves the mystery of the watch.

KEYWORDS (3)

problem = a watch with a secret he cannot open solves = he experiments setting by setting, then checks with a toy camera

Q5 Connection DOK 4

Essential Question: What makes something mysterious, and what makes people want to solve mysteries? Use ideas from TWO of the selections in this module to answer.

MODEL ANSWER

Something is mysterious when it cannot be explained, and people want to solve mysteries because they are curious and enjoy figuring things out. In "Mr. Linden's Library," the book Tales From a Dark Sea is mysterious because the same bookmarked page keeps changing from day to day, with no explanation Carol can find. Carol wants to solve it because she is curious; she checks the page numbers, studies the book "from as many angles as she could," and looks for "a logical explanation." In "Finding Bigfoot," bigfoot is mysterious because no one can be sure it exists — there are eyewitness accounts and footprints, but no body or proof. People want to solve this mystery by gathering evidence and using the scientific method, keeping "a healthy dose of skepticism" and an open mind. My Big Idea: In both selections, something is mysterious when the facts do not add up and no clear answer is found, and people are driven to solve it by curiosity and by gathering and testing clues. Whether it is a changing book or a hidden creature, an unexplained puzzle makes people want to look closer and find the truth — exactly what the Essential Question asks.

KEYWORDS (3)

- Mr. Linden's Library = a book that changes with no explanation
- Finding Bigfoot = a creature no one can prove, studied with evidence
- Big Idea: the unexplained sparks curiosity and a search for clues

SCORING NOTES

- Full credit (4): two selections named + what makes each mysterious and why someone wants to solve it + a Big Idea answering the EQ.
- Partial (3): two selections + the mystery in each, Big Idea weak.
- Developing (2): one selection only.
- Minimal (1): generic ("mysteries are fun") without naming a selection.

SYNTHESIS FRAME

SELECTION 1 IDEA	CONNECTING WORD	SELECTION 2 IDEA
Name the selection and what makes it mysterious: Mr. Linden's Library = a book whose page changes; The Loch Ness Monster = a famous photo and an unexplained legend; Finding Bigfoot = a creature no one can prove; The Secret Keepers = a watch with a hidden secret.	BOTH / IN EACH — joins two selections (for example Mr. Linden's Library AND Finding Bigfoot) into one Big Idea answering "What makes something mysterious, and what makes people want to solve mysteries?"	A different selection than Selection 1 — so the two together show more than one kind of mystery and reason people want to solve it.

Approaching (2)	Names 2 selections but only retells events — no clear answer to the EQ.
Beginning (1)	Generic ("mysteries are interesting") without text evidence.

Watch out: Many G5 students will retell one event (the page changed; people look for bigfoot) and stop. Push them to explain WHAT makes each thing mysterious — the facts do not add up and there is no clear answer — and WHY people want to solve it (curiosity, gathering and testing clues), then write a Big Idea that connects two selections. The EQ asks what makes something mysterious AND what makes people want to solve mysteries.

TEACHING STEPS

Step 1 · Two selection cards.

강사: "Pick 2 selections. For each, name what made it mysterious."

코멘트. 선택지 둘 — 각 작품에서 무엇이 신비로웠는지 적기.

Step 2 · Name the reason to solve.

강사: "Under each, write why someone wanted to solve that mystery."

코멘트. 각각 아래 — 누군가 그 미스터리를 풀고 싶었던 이유 적기.

Step 3 · Big Idea sentence.

강사: "Write one sentence answering the EQ. Connect both selections."

코멘트. EQ에 답하는 한 문장 — 두 선택지를 연결.
