4 Read & Infer

Set 1 · Story 1. Never Give Up! · Part 4 of 6

CCSS RI.4.4 · L.4.4

Directions. Read each short passage. Choose the best meaning of the bold word as it is used.

Q1 RI.4.4

We all face hard challenges in life. Sometimes a challenge seems overwhelming, as if it is just too big.

What does overwhelming mean here?

- ○ A. exciting, like a fun game with friends
- ○ B. so big or hard that it feels like too much to deal with
- ○ C. slightly tricky, but quick and easy to finish
- ○ D. quiet and calm, like an empty room

Q2 RI.4.4

When a challenge seems too big, you may want to back down. You might even want to run the other way.

What does back down mean here?

- ○ A. to run as fast as you can
- ○ B. to step backward slowly down a flight of stairs
- ○ C. to lie down for a short nap
- ○ D. to give up and stop trying when something gets hard or scary

Q3 RI.4.4

You should face challenges instead of running away. Challenges require hard work and endurance.

What does require mean here?

- ○ A. to run away from something hard
- ○ B. to wish for something that would be nice but is not needed
- ○ C. to make something necessary before a task can be done
- ○ D. to sell something at a store

Q4 RI.4.4

Facing a challenge is not easy. It requires hard work, and it also takes endurance.

What does endurance mean here?

- A. the color of the sky at sunset
- B. the strength to keep going for a long time through something hard
- C. the fear you feel when a task looks big
- D. the speed you need to win a very short race

Q5 RI.4.4

Facing hard things does more than help you meet a particular challenge. It also gets you ready for the next one.

What does particular mean here?

- A. certain and specific, meaning just this one and not any other
- B. very old and covered with dust
- C. ready for whatever comes next
- D. every one of a group, all at the same time

Q6 RI.4.4

Meeting a challenge is worth it even when you do not win. Others value your efforts, no matter what the outcome.

What does value mean here?

- A. to praise someone loudly in front of a crowd
- B. to think that something is important and worth a lot to you
- C. to get tips from people who did the same task
- D. to forget about something right away

Q7 RI.4.4

Before a challenge, find out how others got ready for the same task. This knowledge will give you a head start.

What does head start mean here?

- A. a large prize for the winner of a contest
- B. the first part of a race, when everyone starts together
- C. a helpful advantage you get by being ready before others begin
- D. a tip from someone who did the same task before

Q8 RI.4.4

Learning how others met challenges gives you a head start. It also increases your odds of succeeding.

What does odds mean here?

- A. jokes that you tell at a party
- B. steps you take to get a head start
- C. how likely something is to happen, compared with not happening
- D. rules that say who wins a game

Q9 RI.4.4

There is another important reason to confront challenges. Giving up once makes it easier to give up the next time.

What does confront mean here?

- A. to give up just this once
- B. to face a hard problem directly instead of trying to avoid it
- C. to clean a room from top to bottom
- D. to ask someone else to fix a problem for you

Q10 RI.4.4

It is tempting to think that giving up just this once is no big deal. But it makes giving up easier the next time.

What does tempting mean here?

- A. boring, so that nobody wants to try it
- B. made of strong, heavy metal
- C. pulling you strongly to do something, even if it is not a good idea
- D. easy to do again the next time

Q11 RI.4.4

When a challenge gets hard, do not give up. Instead, be dauntless and keep going.

What does dauntless mean here?

- A. sleepy and slow in the morning
- B. careless, rushing into things without thinking
- C. ready to give up when things get hard
- D. brave and determined, not frightened off by danger or difficulty

Q12 RI.4.4

Tell yourself that you can meet the challenge. You can do it with focus and dedication.

What does dedication mean here?

- A. a quick try that you give up on after one day
- B. a short break between two classes
- C. a way of talking to yourself out loud
- D. a strong promise of your time and effort to something you care about

Q13 RI.4.4

Sometimes we try our best but do not succeed. Success will not always be the outcome.

What does outcome mean here?

- A. the way that something finally turns out when it is all over
- B. the effort you put into trying your best
- C. the door at the back of a school
- D. the plan you make before something begins

Q14 RI.4.4

Sometimes we try our best and still fail to achieve a goal. That is another reason to keep trying.

What does achieve mean here?

- A. to reach a goal or finish something hard through effort
- B. to throw a ball over a fence
- C. to dream about a goal without trying to reach it
- D. to try your best and still fail

Q15 RI.4.4

Even when we fail, there is a reason to keep going. That is another reason to persist when you face challenges.

What does persist mean here?

- A. to try something once and then stop
- B. to wash the dishes after supper
- C. to fail at reaching a goal
- D. to keep on trying to do something even when it is hard
