Elisa's father told her to go to sleep. Elisa put her pen and notebook away in her backpack and promptly obeyed.

What does promptly mean here?

- A. loudly and with anger
- B. slowly and after a long wait
- C. quietly and very carefully
- D. quickly and without waiting

Q3 RI.5.4

Elisa looked around her new room. In the semidarkness she could just make out the objects in her new room.

What does semidarkness mean here?

- A. a state where everything is bright
- B. a cold wind from the north
- C. a state where there is only a little light
- D. a loud noise in the night

Q4 RI.5.4

The room was dim. In the semidarkness she could just make out the objects in her new room.

What does make out mean here?

- A. to turn off all the lights
- B. to shout across a room
- C. to paint a picture
- D. to just barely notice something through dim light or noise

Q5 RI.5.4

Elisa felt sad in her new room. The bright, vivid colors of her bedspread, which she liked so much before, now seemed cold and muted.

What does muted mean here?

- A. bright and full of strong color
- B. sticky and wet
- C. broken into many pieces
- D. gentle and not bright or loud

Q6 RI.5.4

Elisa had visited the mainland before. That morning she had been in Puerto Rico, and now she was in the mainland of the U.S., except that this time, supposedly, it was forever.

What does supposedly mean here?

- A. for sure, with no doubt at all
- B. late at night
- C. according to what people say, though it may not be true
- D. in a very loud voice
